Attorney General Rules On Livestock Brand Statutes
Attorney General Mark White has issued two Attorney General's opinions which affect and should interest everyone involved in the cattle, ranching, farming and dairy industries. Opinion MW-289 discusses certain changes in laws on the registration of livestock brands, and MW-356 further clarifies the statutes. Article 6899, V.T.C.S. was passed by the Legislature and became effective on August 30, 1971. Under this law and under Article 6899, V.T.C.S., all marks and brands registered after August 30, 1971 and before August 30, 1981 must be re-registered within six months of the latter date. Marks and brands must then be re-registered at subsequent ten-year intervals by the owner. All marks and brands will then be recorded with the county clerk, regardless of when they originally were recorded, within six months of August 30, 1981, August 30, 1991, August 30, 2001, etc. Attorney General Mark White is reminding every citizen who has registered a brand prior to August 30, 1981 that citizens must re-register each brand with the county clerk within six months in order to protect their right to it. If anyone follows the registration schedule set out by the law, county clerks will have a correct, revised set of records every ten years, and there should be no dispute about the correct ownership of livestock and white. To register or re-register marks and brands, the livestock owner may obtain forms either by mail or in person from his or her county clerk's office. There will be blank spaces on the forms in which to describe the mark or brand and the location on the animal where the brand is recorded. The forms should then be mailed or delivered in person to the county clerk, who will keep the bound volume or on microfilm for easy reference. Marks and brands must then be re-registered at subsequent ten-year intervals by the owner. All marks and brands will then be recorded with the county clerk, regardless of when they originally were recorded, within six months of August 30, 1981, August 30, 1991, August 30, 2001, etc. Attorney General Mark White is reminding every citizen who has registered a brand prior to August 30, 1981 that citizens must re-register each brand with the county clerk within six months in order to protect their right to it. If anyone follows the registration schedule set out by the law, county clerks will have a correct, revised set of records every ten years, and there should be no dispute about the correct ownership of livestock and white. To register or re-register marks and brands, the livestock owner may obtain forms either by mail or in person from his or her county clerk's office. There will be blank spaces on the forms in which to describe the mark or brand and the location on the animal where the brand is recorded. The forms should then be mailed or delivered in person to the county clerk, who will keep the bound volume or on microfilm for easy reference.

Attorney General Rules On Livestock Brand Statutes
Attorney General Mark White has issued two Attorney General's opinions which affect and should interest everyone involved in the cattle, ranching, farming and dairy industries. Opinion MW-289 discusses certain changes in laws on the registration of livestock brands, and MW-356 further clarifies the statutes. Article 6899, V.T.C.S. was passed by the Legislature and became effective on August 30, 1971. Under this law and under Article 6899, V.T.C.S., all marks and brands registered after August 30, 1971 and before August 30, 1981 must be re-registered within six months of the latter date. Marks and brands must then be re-registered at subsequent ten-year intervals by the owner.
