FHA Plans Projects; Hears Guest Speaker Bob Hudson

[By Alieta Gonzalez]

On Tuesday, January 19, General Hardware and Feed Store, Mr. Hudson talked to them about his accident, and how he reacted. The students then asked some questions which reached their curiosity. The students enjoyed Mr. Hudson's presentation and would like to thank him for his time.

speaker was Bob Hudson of Eagle Lake, manager of General Hardware and Feed Store. Mr. Hudson talked to them about his accident, and how he reacted. The students then asked some questions which reached their curiosity. The students enjoyed Mr. Hudson's presentation and would like to thank him for his time.

In India and Peru cotton grows wild in the form of a tree. A perennial, it lives on through decades as might an apple tree.

[By Elva Ann Remo] Who is this adorable little pair? This was the question posed to several people on the Rice campus.

Those who guessed incorrectly were Renee Hunt and Darryl Hines. They knew the pair had to be Chrissy Mayes and Warren Bortz. Both Chrissy and Warren are cousins and seniors at Rice.

RHS Registers For 1982-1983

[By Renee Hunt]

Registration for the 1982-83 school year at Rice High School took place last week. The high school principal and counselors met with current 8th grade students and their parents in the three communities. The rules and regulations were presented to the parents and students by Fred Grahman. The students were then registered by counselors William Carpenter and Guy Beane.

Students currently enrolled in high school registered during different days of the week according to classification. Juniors met with the counselors on Tuesday, January 19. These students were instructed to take their registration forms home and upon parental approval, return them to their American History teacher. Likewise, sophomores after meeting with counselors on Wednesday, January 20, were asked to return registration forms to their English teacher upon their parents' approval. In addition, current freshmen who met with counselors on Thursday, January 21, were asked to follow the same procedure of returning approved forms to their English teacher.

If any parent has any questions regarding their child's registration form, please feel free to contact the counselors at 234-5555.

Who's Zat?

This week the Raider Review would like to introduce two of the boys on the Rice Varsity tennis team, Glen Janow and Ricky Miller. Glen Janow, a junior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Janow of Eagle Lake. This is his third year to be on the team. When asked what he thought about this year's team, Glen said, "I think we can have a good team if we work together."

Ricky Miller, a senior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlin Miller of Garwood. This will be Ricky's fourth year to be a part of the team. When asked what he thought about the team this year, Ricky said, "I've had a bad break last year, but I think this year we can win district."

Good luck to these boys in the upcoming season!

Meet The Raider Tennis Players

[By Leslie Harrison]

This week the Raider Review would like to introduce two JV players, Delbert Jarvis and Shawn Spaniel. Delbert Jarvis, a sophomore, is the son of Mrs. Eurma Jarvis of Eagle Lake. This is his first year on JV and he plays the position of post. When asked how he felt about the team, Delbert replied, "We're going all the way!"

Shawn Spaniel, a sophomore, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Spaniel of Eagle Lake. This is his first year on JV and he plays the position of forward. When asked his opinion of the team, Shawn replied, "With the talent we have on the team, we'll have no trouble winning district."

Show your spirit and support by coming out and cheering on the Raiders!

Meet The Girls' JV Basketball Team

[By Patricia Fields]

This week the Raider Review would like to introduce two players of the JV girls' team. They are Rhonda Cotton and Rosharon Foster. Rhonda, a sophomore, wears the number 32 and plays the forward position. She feels that if the team sticks together, they will win district. Rhonda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pervis Cotton, Jr. of Matthews.

Rosharon, also a sophomore, wears the number 50 and plays the post position. She thinks that if the team's desire to play and win continues, they will be more successful. Rosharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carl Foster of Eagle Lake.

Good luck girls' JV team!

The winning pieces of art will be displayed in the Hayloft in the Houston Livestock Exposition Building throughout the entire run of the 1982 Show. For the more than 500,000 visitors that attend the Livestock Show, the Hayloft Gallery is consistently one of the most popular attractions each year.

Artwork of Troy Corman, a 17-year-old high school student, was selected as Best of Show. Best of Show art for junior high school was painted by Suzanne Corman, 11. Six-year-old Lawanda Alley's painting was judged Best of Show on the elementary level.

Gold Medal winners were Denise Hyek and Troy Hagedorn, both of Rice High School.

Among the other ribbon winners, 24 were chosen to hang their work in Houston exhibits. Displays of the school art will be scheduled at Houston Center II, Plaza Commerce Bank and Southern National Bank from Feb. 4 through Feb. 20.

Foley's plan their exhibit to begin on Feb. 15 and continue through Feb. 27.

The Houston Livestock Show opens Feb. 20 and runs through March 7th with rodeo performances in the Astrodome beginning Feb. 21th.

Crime Prevention Program

A new educational program in crime prevention is being launched by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The program will focus on actions that can be taken by both individuals and organized groups to reduce crime in their neighborhoods and communities, says an Extension community development specialist.

The program will focus on six areas: vandalism prevention, home security, farm security, personal protection, neighborhood and community watch, and prevention of car games and other frauds.

County Extension agents have additional information about this new program.
