Rosanna Coulombe, Matthew Schoellmann Are Married Jan. 2

Miss Rosanna Coulombe of Austin became the bride of Matthew Schoellmann of Austin in a double-ring ceremony January 2nd, 1982 in the University Christian Church at Austin. The Rev. Harold Dowler and Mr. A. L. Leopold officiated the five o'clock evening wedding.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harrell of Seminole, Florida, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schoellmann of Napa.

For the ceremony, the church was decorated with floral arrangements of white gladioli and pink mums, two candelabra and a wedding candle.

Organist for the occasion was Brooks Liston and soloist Celeste Rau presented selections of "The Twelfth of November" and "The Wedding Song".

Given in marriage by her stepfather, E. B. Harrell, the bride wore a gown of organza over faille designed of princess lines with applied lace roses, a scoop neckline, puffed organza sleeves with wide cuffs and a cathedral train. Her double illusion veil was gathered into a small lace cap accented with pearls and organza ribbon.

The bride wore a raised heart necklace of gold inset with diamonds, a gift of her parents, and carried a bouquet of white carnations, baby's breath, lilies of the valley and stephanotis accented with red rosebuds and white lace ribbon.

Serving as the bridesmaid was Denise Holder of Austin, a friend. She chose Carol Schoellmann, the groom's sister, of Houston as her bridesmaid.

Her attendants wore identical floor-length gowns of burgundy polyester featuring an empire waist, fitted bodice with spaghetti straps and pleated skirt. They wore matching lace capes and carried bouquets of pink carnations, white spider mums and baby's breath. Flower girl was Shannon Wesselski, cousin of the groom. She wore a floor-length dress of pink dotted swiss with a deep ruffle at the neckline and a full skirt with a ruffle at the bottom. She carried a white basket filled with pink carnations, white spider mums and baby's breath.

The groom chose James Schoellmann, his cousin, of Napa as his best man. Groomsmen were also his cousins, Andrew Till of Napa and Anthony Leopold of Napa. Ushering wedding guests were John Lopez, Rick Brooks and David Ritter.

The bride's mother was attired in a three-piece floor-length outfit in silver gray. The straight skirt had slight gathers at the waist and the gina blouse featured a roll collar which formed a bow at the neckline. They were complemented by a collarless evening jacket accented with metallic threads.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Schoellmann wore a dusty rose floor-length gown with fitted waist, full puffed skirt and Queen Anne neckline extending into bands that crossed over the bodice front and formed a belt. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations and baby's breath accented with red rosebuds.

Reception Following

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs Ballroom, a restored mansion with lighted wall chandeliers. The ballroom was decorated with floral arrangements of pink mums and white gladioli and also pink, white and burgundy streamers; silver, pink and white bells; and English ivy.

Highlighting the reception table was the bride's three-tiered cake, a white confection with pink roses, bells and burgundy ribbon topped with a pair of doves perched on a filigree pearl beak. The groom's cake, devil food with chocolate icing encrusted with almonds, was accented with white lettering and variegated carnations. The table was covered with a white linen and held brass candleholders with burgundy tapers.

The refreshment table, draped in white, held silver and burgundy buffet trays, punch bowls and the silver coffee service.

For the barbecue dinner with all the trimmings guests were seated at banquet tables covered with white tablecloths with English ivy, and pink and burgundy accents.

Members of the house party for the reception were Lori Heiser, Peggy Burns, Lorrie Labay, Becky Supak, Paula Williams, Ruthie Buzek, Claudia Leopold, Cheryl Till, Donna Korenek, Rose Ann Wesselski and Brenda Labay.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schoellmann, at the Old Spaghetti Warehouse in Austin. Members of the wedding party and other special guests were in attendance.

Selective Service Continues Registration Of Young Men

The Selective Service System is continuing to make available for public inspection lists of registrants and their tentative local board assignments. This is in keeping with the intent of Selective Service that its procedures be open to the public.

The list may be viewed at the County Courthouse. The lists cover registrations processed through September 30, 1981, and include men born in 1960, 1961, 1962, and 1963.

their 18th birthday. They may do so at any U.S. Post Office.

On January 7, 1982, President Reagan announced his decision to continue peacetime Selective Service Registration. In announcing his decision, the President declared a grace period during which late registration would be accepted without penalty. That grace period extends through February 1982.

Anyone who was scheduled to register previously but has not yet done so is encouraged to register immediately at any U.S. Post Office in order to avoid any possible penalty. For further information on this subject, contact Paul D. Aikin, State Director for the Selective Service System in Texas. He can be reached at telephone number 214/784-7593.

17 Reach Mid- Point In LVN Training At WCJC

Seventeen students reached the midway point in their one-year vocational nursing program Thursday, Feb. 11th when they proudly donned their traditional white caps in a memorable capping ceremony that was called "a milestone in their studies" by Dr. Theodore Nickels, Jr., president of Wharton County Junior College in Wharton.

Guest speaker Dr. L. B. Oular, Jr., M.D., of Wharton warmly welcomed the students "into the health care profession" and stated, "We couldn't do without you."

The vocational nursing students included Beverly Blanton of Eagle Lake and Michelle June of East Bernard. Inquiries about admission and registration should be directed to Helen Pickett, director of vocational nursing.

Rice High School students will hold their annual blood drive in April.

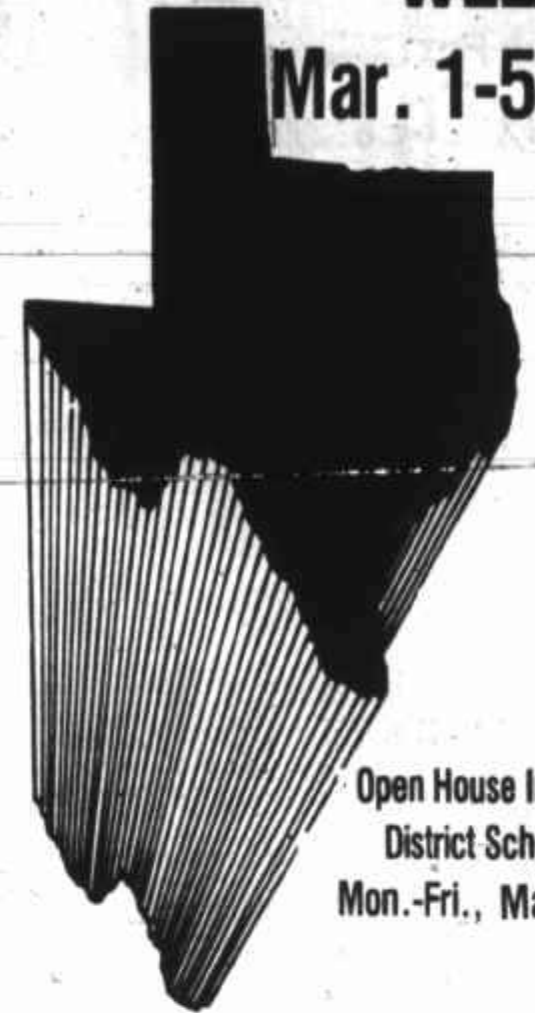

Since the club held its annual Hot Cake supper Tuesday of this week, there was no meeting on Wed., Feb. 24th.

March 2nd Is Texas Flag Day

March 2 is Texas Flag Day. Over 10,000 flags are expected to be flying for this official Texas Heritage Day.

Around Texas, organizations and individuals are taking this opportunity to pay tribute to their state and its flag by flying the "Lone Star" on their homes and public buildings. Local activities will include flag raisings, proclamations by mayors and county judges, speeches and special programs by service clubs, historic organizations and patriotic groups.

The Texas flag was adopted in 1839 as the official standard of the Republic. It became the state flag after the Treaty of Annexation was signed in 1845.

There were several designs for a national flag prior to 1839, but each of them incorporated a single star. The star signifies that Texas was alone in the Mexican Confederation, and that the star of liberty was rising.

This gave Texas its nickname, "The Lone Star State".

Texas Flag Day is a Texas Heritage Project of the Texas Historical Foundation. For more information about this and other programs, contact
