Meet The RHS Girls' Varsity Track Team

(By Patricia Fields)

This week the Raider Review would like to introduce two members of the Girls' Varsity track team. They are Kim Wunderlich and Stephanie Rhodes.

Kim, a junior, has been on the team for three years now. She is on the Mile Relay and runs the 800 meter dash. She feels that the team has gotten off to a good start and that they should be very successful at the District Meet. Kim is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Wunderlich of Sheridan.

Stephanie, also a junior, has been on the team for three years. She runs the 200 meter dash. She feels that they have a very demanding coach and with such a large team they should come out on top. Stephanie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Obie Rhodes of Matthews.

Ishee Works In Children's Barnyard

Tuesday, March 2 Kathy Ishee represented District IV FFA Chapter and District IV Association by working in the Houston Livestock Show Children's Barnyard. She acted as a guide to the various school groups that attended the livestock show. She told the students about the animals that were in the barnyard and answered any questions that the kids had.

Who's Zat?

(By Renee Hunt)

Who's this adorable little blue-eyed "urban cowboy"? Puzzled? So were a lot of our guessers this week.

Those students who mistook the identity of this little buccaneer included: Ronny Cook and Becky Bengue who thought it was Michael Faichtinger, Dwayne Page who guessed it was Troy Hagendorf, Leslie Harrison who said it was Darryl Hinz, and Michael Faichtinger who stated it was Jimmy Epps.

However, many students were not fooled by those sexy legs and blue eyes. Those guessing correctly were the following: Melissa Wilcox, David Shimek, Cindy Rodriguez, Stacey Holden, Julia Garcia and Clark Popp. They all knew that cotton hair could not belong to anyone else but Ricky Miller, a senior and vice president of the Rice High School student body.
