Business Club Holds Banquet; Hears Thomas

(By Leslie Harrison)

The Annual Business Club Banquet was held on Monday, April 19, 1982 at 7:00 p.m. in the Commons. President John Lee Korenek, Jr. welcomed everyone and Carmen Schneider led the pledge. All members then recited the club's Preamble. Laurie Bubela said the invocation and the supper began. The meal consisted of turkey and dressing, potatoes, green beans, cranberry sauce and chocolate cake. It was prepared by Bob Staff Catering Service of El Campo and was enjoyed by all.

A special presentation was given by Karen Rucka to Mrs. Baumgarten for her help and support and to Joe Wendel, the sponsor, to show the club's appreciation to him for devoting his time.

A slide show was used to introduce each of the officers, by Mr. Wendel, and to show some of the club's various activities during the year, such as the lake sale and club meetings. Becky Benge then recognized the graduating seniors, who were given a round of applause.

Thomas Is Speaker

The guest speaker was introduced by Ronny Cook. The guest speaker was John Thomas, owner of the American Hydrograss Company. He spoke to the club about seeing the opportunity to venture into a business occupation and not being afraid to fail, but to take the risk of chance to succeed. After his inspiring talk, a brief history of the club was given by Cathy Lanyon and special thanks were extended to all by Leslie Harrison. The door prize winner was Kitty Thomas. The banquet was then adjourned.

All in all, the event was a huge success.
