Engstrom Speaks To RHS Gov't. Class

[By Paul Belcher]
On Thursday, May 13, John Engstrom, a member of the Navy Reserve, spoke to the fourth period Rice Government class and fifth period Ag class. Mr. Engstrom gave an interesting presentation. After saying that he entered the Navy on a scholarship after high school graduation, he spoke of the four years during which he actively served in the Navy. He then discussed the manpower and equipment of the U.S. Navy. The presentation was enjoyed by all the students, and they would like to thank Mr. Engstrom for his time.

Keep up with all activities of the Rice School District by reading the Headlight.

8 p.m. The program is being sponsored by the pastor's aides of the church. The Rev. L. C. Campbell is pastor of Olive Branch Baptist Church.

Members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church are busy making plans for their annual church Bazaar to be held Sunday, June 27th at the Eagle Lake Community Center. A barbecue dinner will be served followed by an auction of donated items.

Entertainment for the afternoon will include a horse-shoe pitching contest and other attractions for the young and the young-at-heart.

A dance with music by Gold-Dust will provide entertainment for the evening.
