

Rees family holds reunion in Garwood June 5

The children of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rees held a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Rees on Saturday, June 5. A delicious barbecue beef and chicken dinner with all the trimmings was served. The afternoon was spent visiting and taking pictures.

Those attending were: Mrs. Layton (Opal) Snow of Whitney, Texas; her son, Lester Snow, and his daughter of Granbury, Texas; Mrs. Harold (Esther) Wahler of Whitney, and her children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wahler and son from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wahler and daughters from Fort Worth.

Also attending were: Mrs. Melvin (Bertha) Rees of Garwood and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Berger and daughter of Rosenberg; Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Rees and children, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bolog of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fisher and son of Houston, Tim Rees of Houston, and his guest, Doris Nieman from Freeport, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rees and children of Garwood, and Bill Rees of Garwood; and Leonard Engstrom of Garwood.

A great time was enjoyed by all.

Bartos, Kristynik married

On Saturday afternoon, May 29, 1982 at three o'clock, Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Rosenberg was the setting of a beautiful ceremony uniting Miss Sharon Jane Bartos and Ricky Wayne Kristynik.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon J. Bartos of Rosenberg and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bartos of East Bernard and the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Macha of Hungerford.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Kristynik of Garwood and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kana of Schulerburg, Joe Kristynik of Moulton and the late Mrs. Martha Kristynik.

Magr. Robert Barzyk of Rosenberg and Magr. Victor Schmidtinsky of Nada celebrated the double-ring ceremony and High Mass sung by the St. Mary's Choir of Nada directed by Mrs. Joe Popp and accompanied by its organist, Mrs. Clarence Martin, and trumpet soloist, Alan Kristynik. Mrs. Paul Gonzales of Rosenberg also played traditional wedding music.

Green and white calladums were on the main altar flanked by wicker baskets of Boston ferns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of pearl white silk organza and Venice lace with a Queen Anne neckline and fitted bodice. The sheer Bishop sleeves with lace motifs were gathered in deep cuffs at the wrists. The graceful skirt featured appliques of matching lace and swept to form a chapel train. Her waist-length veil was held by a Juliet cap of Venice lace and pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade created by her mother of white daisies, stephanotis and yellow roses centered with a yellow-throated white orchid.

Wedding Attendants
Miss Shirley Kendziora of Rosenberg was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Lori Young of San Antonio, Cindy Richter of El Campo, Sheila Brossman of Schulerburg, Paula Macha, Teresa Podlipy and Ann Vack of Rosenberg.

They wore butter yellow qiana gowns with blouson bodices and Schiffler lace yokes and sleeves. They carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies.

Miss Roxann Brossman, the flower girl of Schulerburg, wore a beffuffed gown of white voile over yellow taffeta and carried a white basket of white daisies and forget-me-nots. They all wore white daisies clipped in their hair.

Frank Beck, Jr. served as best man, while the groomsmen were Scott Bartos of Rosenberg and Alan Kristynik of Garwood, brothers of the couple, Kenny Krensek of Wharton, Michael Lamin and Greg Korenek of Garwood and Scott Brossman of Schulerburg. Mark Barla of Cedar Park, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Ushers were Ernest J. Macha, uncle of the bride, of Hungerford, Delfin Marck, Jr. of El Campo, Stephen Kana of Victoria and Jay Bunge of Garwood. They were all attired in light gray as was the groom.

Witnesses for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vacek and Mr. and Mrs. James Brossman.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bartos wore a mauve qiana floor-length gown with a chiffon blouson bodice. The mother of the groom wore a gown of seafam green chiffon over Lustraglio knit with a blouson bodice and butterfly sleeves. Their corsages were of cymbidium orchids.

Reception Following
Immediately following the ceremony, the reception was held at the Rosenberg American Legion Hall with a barbecue dinner and dance. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hubenak led the grand march and music was provided by the Twilights.

Members of the house-party were Mrs. Joe Hubenak, Mrs. Jerome Bartos of Cedar Park, Mrs. Edward Korenek of Garwood, Mrs. Johnny Hajovsky of Louise, Ms. Alicia Premar of Houston, Mrs. Joe Gurecky, Mrs. Doug Hrusak, Mrs. Wilfrid Meisner, Mrs. Joe Dan Huffmann and Ms. Theresa Vack of Rosenberg.

The register table was covered in yellow and held the bride's book and a decoupage plaque of their wedding invitation.

A serpent-shaped reception table held both cakes, a silver punch service with lemon yellow punch, the coffee service and champagne bucket. The wedding cake was a pale arrangement of lilies. The 17 guests were served a menu of fresh salad, chicken breasts over rice, broccoli spears, iced tea and wine. A dessert of lime sherbet followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Wayne Kristynik

The rice bags for the wedding were then tied. At the wedding, they were distributed by Elizabeth Hubenak and Loretta Drake of San Antonio.

Poolside Party
The rehearsal dinner for the wedding party was held poolside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gurecky with Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bartos and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kristynik joining as hosts.

The party was held Friday evening after rehearsal and served as a time for the attendants to be presented with gifts of pearl necklaces for Sharon's attendants and ceramic mugs for Rick's.

A menu of spaghetti and meat sauce, tossed green salad, French bread and Cokes with ice cream cake roll for dessert was served from a table covered in a lime green and white checkered cloth. Nine bride tables were similarly covered and centered with hurricane candlelight and scattered throughout the backyard. Potted plants decorated the area around the pool.

Immediately following the ceremony, the reception was held at the Rosenberg American Legion Hall with a barbecue dinner and dance. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hubenak led the grand march and music was provided by the Twilights.

Mrs. Clayton Alan Smith

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a formal princess style white gown of organza over taffeta with a sweetheart neckline accented with embroidered lace. The slipper length gown was edged with three tiers of embroidered lace and her chapel length veil was attached to a white designer hat. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white and pink roses accented with English ivy and white stephanotis.

Bride's Attendants
The bride chose a friend, Suzannah Graham of Kingwood as her maid of honor.

Following a wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, the couple will make their home in Kermit, Texas.

The new Mrs. Smith, a graduate of Abilene Christian University, is a member of Zeta Rho Alpha social club. The groom, also a May ACU graduate, was a member of the university's track team. He is a management trainee for Western Co. of North America.

Drlik, Batla wed

Miss Patricia Ann Drlik of Garwood became the bride of John Dudley Batla of Bernardo in a double-ring ceremony performed by Monsignor Victor Schmidtinsky Saturday, June 5. The afternoon ceremony was performed in St. Mary's Catholic Church at 2:30 with organ music by Mrs. George King, Soloist was Danny Waddell, cousin of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Drlik of Garwood, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Batla of Bernardo.

Decorating the main altar for the ceremony were two baskets of white gladioli. Four large ferns were placed near the altar and the front pews were marked with white bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of point de spiree with cascading ruffles of seven tiers that swept to a cathedral train. The high neck bodice of point de spiree was accented with a point de spiree ruffle and seed pearls; and carried a long-stemmed rose.

Best man was Joe Waligura, the groom's cousin. He chose as groomsmen, David Boatright, James Henneke, his cousin; Steven Drlik and Alan Restivo, cousins of the bride; Charles Drlik, brother of the bride, and Jerry Jordan, brother-in-law of the groom.

Serving as ushers were John Polach, Jr., Patrick Korenek and Jack Clost, all friends of the groom, and Scott Havard, cousin of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Drlik chose a gown of rose-pink polyester crepe with an ivory lace capelet. The groom's mother chose a light blue polyester knit gown with a capelet of polyester chiffon. Each mother wore an ivory rose corsage.

Reception At KJ Hall
Following the wedding ceremony, the newlyweds were guests of honor at a reception at the Nada K.J. Hall. Highlighting decorations for the occasion was the wedding cake, a three-tiered white confection with pineapple filling set up above an arrangement of flowers centered with doves and wedding
