Girls' Major League

Fillies take two; Eagles, Honey Bees one each

The Fillies took two games from the Red Sox last week, and the Eagles and the Honey Bees split a pair in action in the Girls' Major Softball League.

Both wins for the Fillies, the first Monday, June 21 and the second the following Thursday, were by forfeit of the Red Sox team. They go on record as 6-0 wins for the Fillies.

In action that same Monday, the Honey Bees, led by winning pitcher Shaunda Williams, won 6-5. Williams allowed three hits while striking out two and with two bases on balls. Wendy Gonzales pitched the first three innings for the Honey Bees, posting seven strikeouts, three hits and three walks.

Sheryl McGrew pitched the first three for the Eagles, allowing four hits, two walks and striking out three. Losing pitcher Lakeshia Jackson gave up two hits, walked one and fanned three.

Hitting: Honey Bees: Shaunda Williams 1-1; Renee Worant and Tammie Lamascus 1-2; Wendy Gonzales and Cassandra Edwards and Prisca Cantu 1-3.

Eagles: Frances Cobia 2-3; Sheryl McGrew 2-4; Lori Flores 1-4; and Lakeshia Jackson 1-5.

In the game Thursday, the Eagles beat the Honey Bees 16-3. Sheryl McGrew was the winning pitcher, allowing three hits and one walk.

Losing pitcher Wendy Gonzales gave up six hits, fanned one and walked one. Shaunda Williams relieved in the fourth and allowed two hits and two walks.

Hitting: Eagles: Charlene McGrew 2-3; Sheryl McGrew 2-5; Lacie Weeks, Frances Cobia and Stephanie Owens 1-5; Lakeshia Jackson 1-6.

Honey Bees: Shaunda Williams 2-3; Cassandra Edwards; Tammie Lamascus 1-3; Wendy Gonzales 1-4.

Lead changes hands as men continue play

The Lakers, the defending Rice Area Men's Softball League champs, took a couple of big steps toward regaining that title during the past week as they knocked off the league leading and first round winner Yard Dogs and then defeated second place Duncan Ranch two nights later.

The Lakers currently hold a one game lead in second round action and can wrap up the title with one win in the two games they have remaining. The Lakers, sponsored by Laker Printing, will play the Broncos Wednesday night at 8 and then take on the Cops on Thursday night at 7. Should the Lakers hold on to win the second round they will meet first round winner Yard Dogs in a playoff game next week.

In other games during the past week results included: Garwood beat Duncan Ranch and the

Gladys Cowboys win tourney

After three days of competition, which included 35 games, the Gladys Cowboys, sponsored by Gladys and Kenneth Austin, captured the championship of the Third Annual Lakers Softball Tournament held at the City Ball Park in Eagle Lake during the past weekend.

The Cowboys had to win the tournament in the hard way, as they battled back through the losers' bracket to defeat the only undefeated team in the event, Duncan Ranch, two games in a row in the finals.

Duncan Ranch, despite losing in the finals, made a strong showing in the tournament and claimed second place. Bay City High Voltage, sponsored by Mark Henske, took third place honors followed by Morales Painting in fourth, the Needville Chargers in fifth, and the Gophers of Houston in sixth place.

A total of 18 teams competed in the Laker tournament this year and included the strongest field of teams by far in the tournament's three year history. The Lakers, sponsored by Laker Printing, expressed appreciation to the teams during the awards ceremony following play on Sunday evening and also added special kind words to the very many people who helped to make the event a huge success. Special thanks go to Fred and Eunice Frnka who spent many hours at the ball park helping the Lakers, despite a very busy weekend.

During the awards ceremony, team trophies were presented to the top six teams and individual awards were given to each member of the top two teams. Also honored were the outstanding players in the event and they included James Wisnoki of the Cowboys, who was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Other awards included the selection of an all-tournament team and those selected included: (from the Cowboys) Ernie Jozwiak, Donny Jankowski, Bobby Pinick and Andy Tucker; (from Duncan Ranch) Wayne Zimmerhanel, Dwayne Pagel, Jim Mathis and Vance Duncan.

Also, Andy Hawkins, Mark Svatek and Randy Bull of Bay City; Allen Morales and Bill H. of Morales Painting; Murry Yates of the Gophers and Donny Kudan of Needville. Several prizes were also awarded during the event and winners included: N. J. Schneider of Garwood, an RCA 19 inch portable color television; C. H. Callahan of Houston, a haker broiler oven; Ronnie Frankum of Wharton, a Mr. Coffee Coffemaker; Marlene Williams of Eagle Lake, dinner for four at Broesche's Restaurant; and Mike Davis of Matthews, a $20.00 bill.

The Lakers extend thanks to the merchants who contributed in some way to the tournament with a special thanks to Vic's TV and Radio of Nada, Spalinger Hardware, Furniture Shoppe and Broesche's Restaurant.

Tournament director Jeff Frnka presents the second place trophy to Vance Duncan of the Duncan Ranch team. The team was undefeated going into the finals.

Reds, Mets take two

The Reds beat the Giants twice last week, and the Mets also took two from the Sox in Boys' Minor Little League games last week.

The Reds and the Giants played games on Monday, June 21, and on the following Thursday, Monday's game ended 19-4, and the second game saw the Reds win again by 14-2.

Patrick Middleton won the Monday game for the Reds by allowing no hits, walking 10 and striking out four. Rodney Sosa pitched the fourth inning and also allowed no hits, struck out three and allowed four bases on balls. Losing pitcher Charles Miller was 1-1 and Darrell Fobbs 1-2.

The Mets and the Sox met first on Tuesday, June 22, when the Mets won by a score of 6-5. Shawn Turner was the winning pitcher with two hits, 13 walks and seven fans.

Matthew Wilson and Patrick Powers combined for the loss, a total of two hits, nine walks and six strikeouts.

Matthew Wilson was 2-4 for the Sox, hitting Johnny Gonzales was 1-1 and Darrell Fobbs 1-2.

The Mets also took the second game, on Friday, by a score of 10-8. The winning pitcher was Robert Gonzales with nine walks, four strikeouts and four hits. Matthew Wilson and Jesse Scott pitched for the Sox.

Hitters for the Mets were: Johnny Gonzales 1-1 and Darrell Fobbs 1-2. Sox hitters included Willie Scott 2-2; Matthew Wilson 1-1; and Felix Salinas 1-2.

Dusters still undefeated in women's softball

The ladies division of the Rice Area Softball League will open play at a new site beginning on Wednesday night of this week with games slated for 8 and 9 p.m.

The women's league has previously been playing at the City Ball Park but as of this week open play at the Little League Field. The first night of action at the new location pits the Trunkers and the Blazers against each other at 8 p.m. followed by the Dusters and People Pleasers.

In games played during the past week the Dusters remained undefeated by beating the Trunkers and then the Blazers remained just one game off of the lead by easing past the People Pleasers.
