36 Play in Rec Center golf tournament

Seven women and 29 men competed Sunday in the first Eagle Lake Recreation Center golf tournament, with top honors awarded in four flights for the men, and for the women in gross and net scoring.

Marie Pinchback, with an 83 gross placed first for the women, and Susie Peikert, 94, while net scores for the gross winners were Marie Pinchback, 67, and Charlotte Reed, 74.

In the championship flight for the men, Brock Ashby won with a 75, Cam Harrell was second with a 78 and Dennis DeLaughter shot an 88.

In the first flight, Joe Frazar won top honors with a 75, Glen Sunderman was second with a 76, and Beans Frnka won third place after defeating Jack Harrell on the first playoff hole. Both scored 79 in regulation.

Others in the flight were Gus Seaborn, 84, Don Reed, 86, and Ronnie Miksch, 99.

Second flight winner was Micky Kochwelp, 82, and third was Lonnie Sommerlatte, who tied with an 83 with Jeff Frnka, but won the trophy on a coin flip. Others in the flight and their scores were: Thurston Webb, 84, Domingo Castillo, 86, Frank Pidgeon, 95, and Butch Parma, 96.

Third flight winner was Ernie Frnka with an 89. Second was Ted Reese, 90, and third was John Seaholm, 94. Others were Dr. Steve Edwards, 97, Louis Schorlemmer, 98, Don Janowiak, 103, Cecil Benham, 106, John Fearing, 107, Sonny Spaniel, 109, Herbert Benham, 112, and Calvin Benham, 117.

Other prizes awarded for play included $50 to Cam Harrell, for hitting the ball closest to the cup on the Par 3; his placement was 16 feet, three inches from the pin, just beating his father's placement by five inches. Stephanie Sunderman won $20 for the women with a placement of 28 feet, seven inches.

Awards of $10 each were made to Louis Schorlemmer, Jeff Frnka, Aubrey Meyers, Don Reed and Thurston Webb, for chipping the ball into the cup from off the green.

Brock Ashby was tournament chairman.

Lakers wins men's softball championship

The Lakers wrapped up their fourth straight men's softball championship in convincing fashion on Monday night of this week as they defeated the Columbus Yard Dogs in the best of three playoff series played at the City Ball Park in Eagle Lake.

The Lakers, sponsored by Laker Printing, earned a berth in the playoff by winning the second half of the Rice Area Men's Softball League while the Yard Dogs reached the title match by winning the first round.

It took just two games for the championship to be decided as the Lakers swept the series winning the first game 9 to 3 and the second game 16 to 2. The title won by the Lakers is a very familiar one to them as they have now captured that crown for the past four years. The Yard Dogs wind up in second place in league play with a 12-2 record, the best mark in men's league play, while the Lakers finish 11-3 overall. The final records do not include the playoff games.

Other standings in the league include Duncan Ranch, 11-3, third place; Chargers, 7-6, fourth; Cops, 6-8, fifth; Broncos and Garwood currently tied for sixth with four wins each, and the Playboys finished in eighth place.

Members of the championship Laker team include: Jeff Frnka, coach, Jay Zahradnik, Mike Gertson, David Grammer, John Schneider, Kenny Hyek, Butch Broesche, John Grammer, Steve Epps, Finto Broesche, Wayne Bowen, Randy Epps, Trey Kell, Andy Gertson and Jack Mann.

Reds, Sox win

The Giants and the Sox played their games on Monday and Thursday of that week. The Monday game was a 6-6 tie. Patrick Powers and Jesse Scott shared pitching duties for the Sox and together they posted 10 walks, 6 strikeouts and allowed 2 hits.

In the Thursday game, the Sox won 5-1, behind pitcher Jesse Scott who allowed no hits. He walked 8 and fanned 6. Giant's pitcher Kevin Jackson walked 5, struckout 4 and gave up 3 hits.

Hitting:
Reds - Jose Gonzales 1-1; Jason Duarte 2-2; Charles Miller 2-2; Rodney Sosa 1-2; Horace Mitchell 1-2.

Mets - Robert Gonzales 1-2; Joe Rodriguez 1-1; Darrell Anderson 1-1; Romaldo Cardenas 1-2.

In their second game the follow Friday, the Reds won by a 10-6 margin. Winning pitcher was Joe Gonzales, 4 strikeouts, 5 walks and 3 hits; loser was Robert Gonzales. Rodney Sosa relieved for the Reds in the 4th, posting 1 walk.

Reds - Jose Gonzales 2-2; Preston Broesche, Keith Dowdy 1-2.
