Candelario Juarez longtime resident, dies

Candelario Juarez, 68, retired after more than 30 years service with the U.S. Civil Service Commission, died last Wednesday at 7:55 a.m. in the Eagle Lake Community Hospital from natural causes, after a lengthy illness.

Juarez was born on February 2nd, 1914, in Manor, Texas to Sabas Juarez and Benita Llanas.

He resided in Eagle Lake for most of his life, living in California for a while as he worked in the Long Beach Naval Shipyard.

Survivors include five daughters, Celia Loya, Alicia Acuna, Mary Lou Chagoya, Carmen Gonzales and Carmela DeLaCruz, all of Houston; two sisters, Eulalia Castillo of Eagle Lake and Esther Rodriquez of Conroe; two brothers, Thomas Juarez of Eagle Lake and Victor Juarez of Germany; 13 grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews.

Mr. Juarez was a member of the Catholic church. He served as a PFC in Company A, 114th Infantry, with the U.S. Army in Europe during World War II.

Rosary was recited at 7:30 p.m. last Friday at the Mill-Bauer Funeral Home chapel. Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. last Saturday at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church with the Rev. Ray Widacki officiating. Interment was at Lakeside Cemetery.

Arrangements by the Mill-Bauer Funeral Home in Eagle Lake.

TP&WD issues reminder on hunting hours

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials remind hunters that shooting hours for the September teal duck hunting season are different from those set for the regular waterfowl season.

Teal may be taken only between sunrise and sunset, a regulation established to help hunters identify teal and not take other species accidentally. During the regular waterfowl season, shooting hours are 30 minutes before sunrise to sunset.

This year's early teal season is Sept. 11-19. Bag limit is four teal in the aggregate per day; possession limit eight.

Licenses sales begin Aug. 16

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials have announced that hunting and fishing regulations leaflets and 1982-83 hunting and fishing licenses will be available August 16.

The materials can be obtained at department offices and many retail outlets such as fishing tackle shops, sporting goods and discount stores. The hunting and fishing guides are free. Resident hunting licenses are priced at $25, resident fishing licenses are $8.75.

The 1982-83 licenses become effective September 1, and expires August 31, 1983.

Municipal court convenes

Eagle Lake Municipal Court convened Tuesday morning, August 10th with Honorable Judge M. M. Jones as the presiding judge and Willard Shurt, the prosecuting city attorney. Bailiff was Constable J. T. Frnka.

The case heard was that of William Randall Grievies, who was charged with failure to control speed. Two testifying witnesses were Officers Andy Munoz and Lupe Villarreal. Grievies was found guilty and was fined $25 plus $16 court costs.

Serving on the jury were Joe Lee McCreary, Fred R. Frnka, Scharlene Praatz, Rubie Drymalla, Sharon Webb and Linda Frnka.

Colorado County Sheriff's Report By Jim Broussard

Sheriff's Posse to meet in near future

To bring our people up to date on the status of the Sheriff's Posse, a meeting will be held within the next two or three weeks. Final plans on equipping the bus and completing the by-laws that will govern the Posse is being completed. Everyone will be advised in advance of our next meeting to finalize the Posse.

Knights of Columbus install newly elected officers

The Knights of Columbus, Council 4843 of Eagle Lake, held their installation of officers for the 1982-83 council year on Tuesday, July 27.

District Deputy for District 35, Bennie Holesovsky of Columbus, was present to officially install the new officers at an open meeting in which the wives of the members were present.

The Knights of Columbus officers which were elected in May are: Grand Knight, Darrell Gertson; Deputy Grand Knight, Rick Arlitt; Chancellor, James Dierschke; Record-

Baby shower compliments Mrs. John (Rhonda) Rosanky

Mrs. John Rosanky of Rosenberg, the former Miss Rhonda Kochwep of Eagle Lake, was the honoree at a Baby Shower held at a home on Saturday, August 7th at three o'clock in the afternoon. The setting for the delightful social was the James Gertson home in Eagle Lake.

The guest of honor received a corsage of pink carnations with pink and blue ribbon accents upon her arrival. Special guests were Baby Rosanky's maternal grandmother, Mrs. E. F. (Mickey) Kochwep of Eagle Lake, and maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. O. H. Kochwep of Lissie.

After the guests enjoyed some amusing "stork" games, the honoree graciously opened the gifts brought for the expected newcomer to their family.

The cake, baked and decorated by Penny Henske, was a white confection decorated with an orange and yellow sugarpun hobby horse, portraying the "soon-to-be daddy's" hobby with the rodeo circuit. Guests were also served sandwiches, mints, nuts and punch. A

Altar Society hears report on deanery meet

The Altar Society of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church held its regular monthly meeting August 5th at 7 p.m. at the Dinder Hall.

The hostesses, Martha Sommer and Melinda Kuchera, served delicious refreshments.

The president, Emily Stiles, opened the meeting with a prayer.

Mary Theuman gave a report on the Brenham Deanery Council of Catholic Women meeting that was held in Sealy on July 20th. There were five priests and 103 ladies present at this meeting.

Overweight?

The problem of overweight can be solved by a combination of things - a sensible diet program based on lower caloric choices from the basic food groupings, a daily exercise program and changing those bad eating habits, points out Mary K. Sweeten, a food and nutrition specialist on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.
