Raiders to scrimmage Sweeny Friday in Altair

Rice High School football fans can get their first glimpse of the 1982 edition of the Rampaging Rice Raiders this Friday evening when the Sweeny Bulldogs visit Raider Stadium in Altair for freshmen, junior varsity and varsity scrimmages beginning at 4:30. The varsity action is expected to start around 7:30 p.m.

It will be the final warmup of the year for coach Clifton Darden's Raiders as they open the regular season one week from this Friday in a non-district battle against the El Campo Ricebirds starting at 8 p.m., there.

Sweeny is coming off a year much like the Raiders, finishing with an 8-2 win-loss record while Rice closed out the 1982 campaign with a 7-3 mark. Besides getting the advantage of outside competition

Klasing Oil wins KC tournament

Eagle Lake Knights of Columbus Council No. 4843 sponsored a men's softball tournament last weekend with the Klasing Oil team from El Campo swinging undefeated to take first place. Lots of good play was turned in by the 18 teams participating in the event Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the City Ball Park.

The sponsors named David Kutac from the top team as Most Valuable Player with Klasing Oil team members Coon Brom selected Outfield Golden Glove and Darryl Popp, Infield Golden Glove. The local team sponsored by Duncan Ranch reached the finals of the tournament but were defeated by Klasing to put them in second place.

The Sealy Knights of Columbus team came in third as the local Lakers team sponsored by Laker Printing finished in fourth. The Hallettsville Bluecats received the fifth place trophy while the local Johnny's 66 team followed in sixth. Named to the All-Tournament team by the Knights of Columbus were Chris Wisniewski, Andrew Sablatore and Dale Wisniewski from the Klasing Oil team; Mike Grigar, Thierry LeNorman and Brock Ashby from Duncan Ranch; Bonnie Kutra and Chuck Tomlinson from the Sealy Knights; John Grammer of the Lakers team; and Freddie Blaha of the Hallettsville Bluecats.

Ladies' softball

benefits Little League

This past weekend a Ladies Softball Tournament was held at the Little League Park in Eagle Lake to benefit the local Little League.

Sponsors reported the weekend turned out to be a success with nine teams participating from Yoakum, Rosenberg, Tomball, La Grange, Sealy, Wallis and Eagle Lake.
