Confused about which air conditioning unit to buy?

Fortunately, there's an easy way to determine which one will operate most economically: look for the model with an Energy Efficiency Ratio (EER) or Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) of 8 or higher.

In addition, you should make certain the system is sized to fit your home and installed correctly—other factors essential to maximum efficiency and electricity savings.

But air conditioners with the same cooling capacity can vary greatly in individual efficiency. By comparing EER/SEER numbers, you can tell which unit will do the job with less electricity.

Although a high efficiency model may cost more initially, it will save you money in the long run through lower operating expenses. That's an important consideration here in South Texas where air conditioning is in use so many months of the year.

Be sure to check EER/SEER numbers before you buy air conditioning. Your best value is a unit with an efficiency rating of 8 or more.

United Daughters of the Confederacy meet

On September 9th at 10 a.m., Shropshire-Upton Chapter, No. 361, United Daughters of the Confederacy met in the James R. Cranek home. Assisting Mrs. Cranek with the brunch were Mrs. Sam K. Seymour, Jr., Mrs. Robert Streckfus, Mrs. Lucille Taylor of El Campo, and Miss Jayne Cranek.

The president, Mrs. O. A. Schade, opened the meeting with the reading of the ritual. Mrs. Homer Koliba led the pledges to the United States and Texas flag and the salute to the Confederate flag.

Mrs. Sue Imbornone reported on the activities of Colonel Charles W. Tait Chapter, Children of the Confederacy as host of the June 1982 Texas Division convention in Salado, Texas. Four Tait chapter members served on the executive board. Parts of Miss Stephanie Imbornone's first place essay on "Prison Life during the War Between the States", was reviewed by Mrs. Imbornone. "At the close of the War Between the States, the North held a total of 220,000 Confederates as prisoners, while the South held 126,000 Unionists. Out of the 220,000 Confederates held in Northern prisons, 26,426 died in the camps, and 22,576 Yankees died in Southern prisons. Those who died while in prison witnessed terrible conditions. They all died under conditions that have never been surpassed in terror or brutality."

Miss Sarah Jo Cranek, president of the Tait chapter and 45th president, Texas Division, Children of the Confederacy, gave highlights of the 28th General Convention held in Montgomery, Alabama in July. She mentioned over a dozen awards won by the Texas Division and her own chapter received superior chapter awards. She invited members of the UDC to attend the 1983 General Convention to be held in Austin, Texas.

As members paid dues to the treasurer, Mrs. Edgar Litzmann, yearbooks were given out. The 1982-83 book was dedicated to a faithful member of this committee who served many years, Miss Lee Nesbitt.

Confederate Museum curator, Mrs. Bill Botts, reported the most enthusiasm of the Magnolia Homes Tour crowd and most donations received.

A transfer from the Children of the Confederacy, member of the Sam Davis Chapter No. 726, Camden, Alabama, Miss Jayne Cranek of Incarnate Word College, San Antonio, received her UDC membership certificate.

The president announced October 22, 23 and 24th as dates for the yearly Texas Division, U.D.C. Convention in Waco.

Guests included Mrs. Jerry Scarbrough, Mrs. Alice Tait and Mrs. Arlene Mikeska, all of Clumbus, and Mrs. William Kemper of Eagle Lake.

Holli Shindler has party

Little Miss Holli Shindler was honored on the occasion of her second birthday Sunday afternoon, September 12th by her parents, Jeri Lou and Phillip Shindler, at their home in Eagle Lake.

The clown theme was used in party decorations and accessories and red, blue and yellow crepe paper streamers accented the party table.

Holli's guests arrived at 3:30 to spend the afternoon celebrating the honoree's birthday by playing with toys, in the sand, on the swing set, and in the swimming pool.

After Holli excitedly opened her presents, she amusingly blew out the two candles on her clown birthday cake, baked and decorated by her mother and maternal grandmother. Refreshments of cake, ice cream, chips, dips, sandwiches, beans and punch were served.

Spending the afternoon with Holli were her grandmother, Sarah Pate; cousin, Donna Turnbo; and little friends, Blake and Rebal Canaris, Brian Hadley, Stephanie Braden, Ginger Case, Cristi and Eric Andel, Sunny and Ralphie Gertson, Paulie and Carrie Borkowski and Ashley Argo. Each little guest received a party "loot" bag upon leaving the festivities.

Lecture Series -- Families With Purpose

"Of all contemporary crises perhaps none are as far reaching in their implications as the crises of family life. Every child who will be an adult in the next generation will grow up in some kind of family. What that family is today will have a great influence on the kind of world children of today will inherit." Dr. William Pinson prepared his book "Families With Purpose" with the firm conviction that God's Word – heard and acted upon – can make a positive difference in the quality of family life.

Dr. William M. Pinson, Jr., B.A., M. Div, TH. D. Litt D, will be the guest speaker for the Religious Lectures Series to be presented October 4 and 5 at 7:30 in the evening at the First Baptist Church in Eagle Lake. Dr. Pinson will speak on ethics in an assembly at the Eagle Lake Middle School at 1:45 October 5, and he will make a presentation to the H. E. classes at the high school the morning of October 5.

Dr. Pinson received his degrees from NTSU in Denton, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, and California Baptist College. He was a professor of Christian ethics at Southwestern Seminary from 1963-1975. He is at present Executive Director-Elect of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

The Religious Lecture Series is sponsored by a steering committee of laymen and ministers from several denominations. The lectures are open to the public. They will be inter-denominational in nature. If attendance and financial support warrants future engagements, the committee plans to invite lecturers from all faiths who have achieved eminence in their chosen professions as authors, orators, and educators.

The lecturers will offer all residents of Eagle Lake and surrounding areas a unique cultural, educational and spiritual experience. Contribution envelopes will be distributed in area churches. Donations may be mailed to Nelson Isenhower, 700 Patridge Lane, Eagle Lake. All monies collected will be used to defray expenses of presenting the program. The committee urges all ilterested persons to support this event by attendance and contributions, so that future events can be planned for Eagle Lake. Reported.

Study Club pays tribute to Wintermanns

Sincere accolades of love and affection were appropriately bestowed upon two of this community's most beloved citizens last Wednesday evening, September 7th from six to eight o'clock in the Community Center when the Eagle Lake Study Club members and friends paid tribute to Eula and David Wintermann.

The Founder's Day event was staged by the club to officially open the 1982-83 year and to recognize the completion of the beautiful new addition to the Eula and David Wintermann Library, a gift from the Wintermanns to all citizens of the Eagle Lake community.

Mrs. R. J. (Beryl) Cumberworth, president of the Study Club, expressed the feelings of all present, and many, many more who were not present, when she noted that Eula and David Wintermann "have always given generously in any way they could." She added, "There isn't anyone in Eagle Lake who hasn't been touched one way or another by their generosity. They do so much that so many are not aware of."

Mrs. Cumberworth pointed out that Eagle Lake has had a library for over fifty years. The first library here had only a handful of books. "The founders would feel great pride and tremendous appreciation in the wonderful facilities now available in the Eula and David Wintermann Library."

She closed by stating, "Thank you, Eula and David, we do appreciate it."

Others who offered expressions of appreciation to the honorees were: Donald Bendy, chairman of the library's board of directors, and Mayor Elmer Struss.

Bendy brought words of thanks from the Library Board. "Any community would be happy and proud to have such a wonderful library facility. No one has been more concerned about the calibre of library and learning facilities than Eula and David Wintermann," said the board chairman.

Mayor Struss reviewed incidents from his long-time friendship with the honorees. He recognized the Wintermanns as "humble people who do not seek recognition for the many good deeds which they do."

As a city official, he recalled that "many things in this city were made possible through the support (both financial and personal involvement) of David and Eula Wintermann." Some of these included: construction of the airport facilities, the golf course and recreation center, the Community Center, the Little League field, the city softball park, the agricultural experiment station and the Eagle Lake Community Hospital. They gave the original building housing the library on the corner of Main and Walnut; and now have increased the size of the facility by two-fold.

Many youth in the community have received assistance in education from the Wintermanns. They are also noted locally and nationally for their work in wildlife conservation.

Struss said, "It was my pleasure to accept the original library building in behalf of the citizens of Eagle Lake in 1975; and now it is an equal pleasure to accept the new addition for the use of all citizens of the city and community."

Mr. Wintermann responded briefly to the accolades and stated, "We are gratified that we could be of service to the community."

Mrs. Wintermann, with the assistance of other members of a library steering committee from the Study Club, gathered a wealth of information on libraries and compiled a syllabus which was adopted as the syllabus for county libraries in the State of Texas and is still being used for that purpose.

The Reverend George Welsch, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, presided at a blessing of the new library addition. He said the library and the wonderful addition "are dedicated to God and will serve to add to the wisdom of all of this community's citizens and for generations to come."

After a tour of the library facilities, guests returned to the Community Center, where Mrs. John H. Matthews, together with a group of Study Club members, offered refreshments. The table was centered with a beautiful fall flower arrangement and laid with an autumn gold cloth covered with cream lace. Silver and crystal appointments were used to serve a delicious selection of hot hors d'oeuvres.

The event was acclaimed by all present as a deserving tribute to two wonderful people, Eula and David Wintermann. They have endeared themselves to citizens of all ages through their friendship and support. -Reported.

The Rev. George Welsch, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, second from left, officiated at the Blessing of the new addition to the Eula and David Wintermann Library last Wednesday evening "to add to the wisdom of this community's citizens and generations to come." At left is Mrs. R. J. (Beryl) Cumberworth, president of the Eagle Lake Study Club which sponsored the program to honor Eula and David Wintermann, shown at right, who donated the library and the addition to the citizens of Eagle Lake.

Left to right, Mayor Elmer Struss, Librarian June Pirtle, Library Board Chairman Donald Bendy and Study Club President Mrs. R. J. (Beryl) Cumberworth inspect a portion of the beautiful new addition to the Eula and David Wintermann Library. They participated in the program which was held to honor Mr. and Mrs. Wintermann who presented the library and addition as gifts to the citizens of Eagle Lake.
