

Colorado County

Sheriff's Report

Use precaution around school buses

By Jim Broussard

We would like to remind drivers that passed our vehicle operators to use precaution around school buses and school areas. We have issued a number of citations for red lights on. October 11: Removed livestock from the roadway on County Road 122. Worked school traffic in the morning and the afternoon. Had JP Court. Assisted the ambulance personnel with a call in Sheridan. Removed livestock from the roadway on IH-10. Issued 17 traffic citations and served nine civil citations.

October 12: Checked on a suspicious subject near Alleyton. Worked school traffic in the morning and the afternoon. Removed livestock from the roadway on IH-10. Issued 14 traffic citations and served 11 civil citations.

October 13: Worked school traffic in the morning and the afternoon. Checked on a burglary near Garwood. Investigated a burglary on Schobel Road. Checked on a family disturbance East of Columbus. Checked on a break in near Glidden. Removed livestock from the roadway West of Columbus. Recovered a vehicle stolen from Houston. Issued 13 traffic citations and served nine civil citations.

October 14: Worked school traffic in the morning and the afternoon. Arrested three for fraud. Assisted a stranded motorist on 71 South. Assisted at the scene of an accident on IH-10. Checked on a suspicious vehicle near Borden. Issued 17 traffic citations and served 10 civil citations.

October 15: Checked on a reported burglary near Freisburg in Austin County. Assisted a stranded motorist on 109. Assisted with crowd control in Garwood. Checked on suspicious subjects in Glidden. Checked on a suspicious subject near Borden. Checked on a malicious mischief near Glidden. Checked on a break in near Glidden. Served two civil citations.

October 16: Assisted with crowd control in Garwood. Checked on suspicious subjects in Glidden. Checked on a suspicious subject near Borden. Checked on a malicious mischief near Glidden. Checked on a break in near Glidden. Served two civil citations.

October 17: Assisted at the scene of an accident on IH-10. Assisted at the scene of an accident on 71 North. Checked on suspicious subjects on 71 South. Removed livestock from the roadway on IH-10. Checked on false reports of accidents and fires in the Sheridan area. Removed livestock from the roadway on Reese Lane. Checked on a reported missing person in Alleyton. Issued two traffic citations.

Jim Broussard, Sheriff and Deputies Phones: 732-2388 and 732-2535 Home Phone: 732-3950

Holiday entertaining program planned

[By Donella R. Pantel, County Extension Agent] A special holiday entertaining program has been planned by the Colorado County Family Living Committee for October 25 at the Columbus Veterans Community Center from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The program will be centered around setting the mood for entertaining. Mrs. Vickie Lacy, Wharton County Extension Agent, will be the featured speaker that afternoon. She will present a slide program and demonstration on table setting.

VARIETY SHOOT at Pilsner's Place Sunday, October 24 Time 1:00 P.M. First Round Free No Reloads Shells Furnished

EH Clubwomen of Year to be recognized

The 1982 Colorado County Extension Homemakers Clubwomen of the Year will be recognized at the October 25 Colorado County Information Day Luncheon to be held at the Columbus Veterans Community Center.

Each Extension Homemakers Club will have an educational exhibit depicting various programs they have throughout the year. Medicine, Your Throat, Learning from Ready to Wear, Shaping Up Sensibly, International Party Foods, and Women and Insurance.

The public is invited to come by at 1:30 p.m. to view the exhibits and see a program presented by the Colorado County Family Living Committee on Holiday Decorating and Planning. There will also be exhibits in 4-H and youth, agricultural, and older Texans committee work.

Office Hours: By Appointment Telephone 532-2440

Outlaw Blair Clinic 3027 N. Richmond Road Wharton, Texas 77488

Pair arrested while calling Iran

Two out-of-county men were arrested last Thursday, on charges of fraud, while they were making a telephone call to Iran. According to Southwest Bell Telephone Co., the call was charged to a telephone in Canada that the pair was not authorized to use.

About 8:35 p.m. the Colorado County sheriff's office was told by the District Attorney's office in Houston that Bell Telephone Co. was making an unauthorized call from the pay telephone at the rest area on Interstate 10 west of Columbus. The company said the call to Iran was charged to the Philippine Consulate in Ontario, Canada, but the charge was not authorized.

Deputies dispatched to the scene arrested two men, who then appeared before Justice of the Peace Richard Schmidt. Charged were Seyed M. Hosseini, 30, of Arlington, Texas, and Mohammad H. Pakravan, 27, of San Antonio. Bond was set at $15,000 for each man, and Pakravan posted bond but Hosseini remained in jail Tuesday afternoon.

In other sheriff's reports, Ralph Gerstner, Jr. of Eagle Lake reported about 11:30 a.m. on October 12 that two batteries had been stolen from rice trucks parked in his barn on FM 3013. The report said a cutting torch was used to remove the batteries. A windshield also was broken from one of the trucks.

*On October 13, Bill Raabe of Schobel Road reported his residence had been broken into. Nothing was reported missing but items were scattered around the home.

Monday, Howard E. Chapman of Houston told the department his 1980 Chrysler was burglarized while at the rest area on Interstate 10 west of Columbus. While he was in the restroom, a passenger window was broken, and some bows and arrows, and clothing were stolen.

Vicki received many lovely and useful baby gifts from the large group of ladies who attended the shower.

Refreshments were served after the gifts were opened.

Mrs. Janet Dupree entered the Eagle Lake Community Hospital Monday.

Lorance Johnson is recuperating at home following surgery in the Weimar hospital.

Students at Sheridan School earning a place on the first six weeks Honor Roll are:

First Grade: Kelly Ashley, Susan Layton, Tracy Rodriguez, Marco Sanchez, Phelan Scott and Bodette Vavrusa.

Second Grade: John Carey, Joshua Grahmann, Christopher Griffin, Shane John, Aaron Machac, April McMillan, Glenna Tesch and Jesse Wilburn.

Third Grade: Kori Klein, Raymond Ford.

Fourth Grade: Lareina Pence.

Fifth Grade: David Murphy.

Sixth Grade: Cash Coble, Michael Grahmann and Denise Soape.

Seventh Grade: Lara Dupre, Danna Fudge, Dionne Glover, Traci Klein and Shannon Pustejovsky.

Eighth Grade: Steven Antrich, Cheryl Murphy and Jodi Smith.

Halloween party planned

Children through the

Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District news

Herbert Engstrom, chairman; Henry Sunderman, vice chairman; Melvin Albright, secretary; Theo. Schultz and Royal Hennecke, members.

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District was held on September 21 at 9 a.m. in the County Agricultural Building. Requests were made for funding for three RCAD critical area gully erosion projects in Colorado County. Plans were finalized to attend the 42nd annual meeting of the Texas Soil and Water Conservation Districts in Austin. Conservation plans were approved for Lloyd A. Coyer of Columbus Irrigation, engineering assistance was provided to Steve Balas of Eagle Lake. He plans to install some irrigation pipeline for conservation of irrigation water.

Engineering assistance was provided to the personnel of the Atwater Prairie Chicken Refuge for construction of a lake for waterfowl habitat.

Assistance was provided to Robert R. Briggs of Houston on his LTA contract making the annual status review report.

Briggs has cleared several acres of brush and has planted the cleared areas to Pensacola bahiagrass.

Joe Cathy of Houston has constructed a new pond on his place near Sheridan. Cathy is also clearing some brush.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Reed, Jr. of Eagle Lake.

The Nada Knights of Columbus, Council No. 3371, will sponsor a Variety Show on Sunday, October 24 at the St. Mary's church grounds.

Prizes will be turkeys, hams and bacon. The show will begin at 1 p.m. and shells will be furnished.

Wednesday afternoon.

A cold front will trigger scattered thundershowers Tuesday night and Wednesday, which may linger into Thursday. Temperatures will start to cool Wednesday afternoon.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

Pair arrested while calling Iran

Two out-of-county men were arrested last Thursday, on charges of fraud, while they were making a telephone call to Iran. According to Southwest Bell Telephone Co., the call was charged to a telephone in Canada that the pair was not authorized to use.

About 8:35 p.m. the Colorado County sheriff's office was told by the District Attorney's office in Houston that Bell Telephone Co. was making an unauthorized call from the pay telephone at the rest area on Interstate 10 west of Columbus. The company said the call to Iran was charged to the Philippine Consulate in Ontario, Canada, but the charge was not authorized.

Deputies dispatched to the scene arrested two men, who then appeared before Justice of the Peace Richard Schmidt. Charged were Seyed M. Hosseini, 30, of Arlington, Texas, and Mohammad H. Pakravan, 27, of San Antonio. Bond was set at $15,000 for each man, and Pakravan posted bond but Hosseini remained in jail Tuesday afternoon.

In other sheriff's reports, Ralph Gerstner, Jr. of Eagle Lake reported about 11:30 a.m. on October 12 that two batteries had been stolen from rice trucks parked in his barn on FM 3013. The report said a cutting torch was used to remove the batteries. A windshield also was broken from one of the trucks.

*On October 13, Bill Raabe of Schobel Road reported his residence had been broken into. Nothing was reported missing but items were scattered around the home.

Monday, Howard E. Chapman of Houston told the department his 1980 Chrysler was burglarized while at the rest area on Interstate 10 west of Columbus. While he was in the restroom, a passenger window was broken, and some bows and arrows, and clothing were stolen.

Vicki received many lovely and useful baby gifts from the large group of ladies who attended the shower.

Refreshments were served after the gifts were opened.

Mrs. Janet Dupree entered the Eagle Lake Community Hospital Monday.

Lorance Johnson is recuperating at home following surgery in the Weimar hospital.

Students at Sheridan School earning a place on the first six weeks Honor Roll are:

First Grade: Kelly Ashley, Susan Layton, Tracy Rodriguez, Marco Sanchez, Phelan Scott and Bodette Vavrusa.

Second Grade: John Carey, Joshua Grahmann, Christopher Griffin, Shane John, Aaron Machac, April McMillan, Glenna Tesch and Jesse Wilburn.

Third Grade: Kori Klein, Raymond Ford.

Fourth Grade: Lareina Pence.

Fifth Grade: David Murphy.

Sixth Grade: Cash Coble, Michael Grahmann and Denise Soape.

Seventh Grade: Lara Dupre, Danna Fudge, Dionne Glover, Traci Klein and Shannon Pustejovsky.

Eighth Grade: Steven Antrich, Cheryl Murphy and Jodi Smith.

Halloween party planned

Children through the

Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District news

Herbert Engstrom, chairman; Henry Sunderman, vice chairman; Melvin Albright, secretary; Theo. Schultz and Royal Hennecke, members.

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District was held on September 21 at 9 a.m. in the County Agricultural Building. Requests were made for funding for three RCAD critical area gully erosion projects in Colorado County. Plans were finalized to attend the 42nd annual meeting of the Texas Soil and Water Conservation Districts in Austin. Conservation plans were approved for Lloyd A. Coyer of Columbus Irrigation, engineering assistance was provided to Steve Balas of Eagle Lake. He plans to install some irrigation pipeline for conservation of irrigation water.

Engineering assistance was provided to the personnel of the Atwater Prairie Chicken Refuge for construction of a lake for waterfowl habitat.

Assistance was provided to Robert R. Briggs of Houston on his LTA contract making the annual status review report.

Briggs has cleared several acres of brush and has planted the cleared areas to Pensacola bahiagrass.

Joe Cathy of Houston has constructed a new pond on his place near Sheridan. Cathy is also clearing some brush.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Reed, Jr. of Eagle Lake.

The Nada Knights of Columbus, Council No. 3371, will sponsor a Variety Show on Sunday, October 24 at the St. Mary's church grounds.

Prizes will be turkeys, hams and bacon. The show will begin at 1 p.m. and shells will be furnished.

Wednesday afternoon.

A cold front will trigger scattered thundershowers Tuesday night and Wednesday, which may linger into Thursday. Temperatures will start to cool Wednesday afternoon.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.

For the Rice Belt: High humidity will again limit soybean combining to the mid to late afternoon hours near the coast. Longer work periods will be available inland Tuesday, but showers and humid conditions will hamper soybean and rice harvests across the Rice Belt Wednesday. Rainfall amounts will average in the quarter to half inch bracket. Stockmen will need to devote more time to herd management starting Wednesday as cooler, damp weather arrives.

Sunny, milder weather should follow by the weekend.