MONDAY NITE MIXED
The Good Times took over the lead in the Monday Nite Mixed League after action on October 11th in Altair. They have a total of 15 and one-half wins and are trailed by the Mavericks who have 13 and one-half wins, good for second place. The Leftovers are right behind in third with 13; the A's follow in fourth with 12; the U.F.O.'s fifth with 11 and one-half; and tied for sixth are Bonus Lease and Pearl Lites, each with 11 wins.

On October 11th Pearl Lites posted the high team game of 866 and A's high series of 2398. For individual honors, Dora Briscoe rolled the women's 205 high game and Elisa Gertson the 546 high series with a 201 game while for the men Bud Briscoe had the 216 high game in a 519 series and Lee Briscoe the 555 high series with a 208 game.

Others with top scores included Harold Williams 207-522, Alta Hatten 500 and Mike Henske 500.

SKULL CREEK MIXED
Freddie Peltis rolled a whopping 238-428 to set the pace for Skull Creek Mixed League bowlers at Altair October 12th. Margie Knippel led the women with a 505 series and the Woolly Boogers team posted the top series with a 2456.

Al Novosad bowled a 203-586, Erwin Knippel 241-611, Mano Graham 232-554, Carl Peasnell 200, Kenneth Venghaus 207, Bubba Shrader 528, Ben Castillo 542 and James Booker 521.

The league is still led by Who Are We, now with a 19-win total. Following by two games are the Royals and Rice Birds with 17 each.

At the end of the first half, the score was a very respectable 7-0 in Waller's favor; in the third quarter they added another three points, and in the fourth the Bulldogs scored their final touchdown.

The first series of plays gave the full-house home audience an idea of how the game might go-instead of what some thought could be a rout.

Waller won the toss and took the ball first. But instead of tallying a quick score, they scrounged only a few yards at a time against a very tough Rice Raider defense and finally gave the ball over to Rice without even punting. The Bulldogs lined up with the ball 17 times, took more than seven minutes off the clock, but still failed to score.

Rice took over on their own 20 yard line, and ticked off seven plays, but managed only 15 total yards.

When Waller lined up for first and ten after returning the Rice punt seven yards to the Bulldog 37, Dwayne Pagel busted in and sacked the Waller quarterback for a five yard Bulldog loss. Waller kept clawing, switched ends of the field at the end of the first quarter, and finally managed to score 13 plays later with just over two minutes gone in the second quarter.

For Rice, Troy Corman and Mel Pratt kept switching positions at quarterback, bringing in plays. Offense was more straight forward without pitching options, and defense included a six-man front with Charlie Amos at the center of the line to successfully shut off the up-the-middle attack.

In addition to the sack by Pagel, Amos and Rob Johnson managed to thwart the Bulldog attack by dumping the quarterback, and Eugene Kazmir recovered a Waller fumble. Rice plays the Brookshire-Royal team Friday night in Brookshire.

Halfback James Williams scored all three Raider touchdowns. He had a total of 208 yards. Defensively, standouts included Alcario Barrios with five tackles and three assists; Albert Barrios, three tackles, six assists; Kevin Amos, one tackle, seven assists; and Douglas Tillman with four tackles and three assists.

For the eighth graders, the contest ended in a tie, 8-8. The Raiders' lone TD came in the first quarter on a "quarterback keeper" with Warren Hurd running it in six yards. Hurd also scored the extra points.

Waller's 8th grade made their score with a run in play at the end of the third quarter.

Dwight Stovall has 125 rushing yards, Billy King added 81 and Hurd 16. On defense, Mickey Scott had six tackles, two assists and one sack; Jimmy Foster, six tackles; Stovall, four tackles, two assists and one sack; and Earnest Lemons, five tackles and two assists.

The 7th grade coach is Bobby Zander and Larry Varley coaches the 8th grade.

The Middle School teams will travel to Royal for two contests beginning at 5:30 p.m.

ELRC club championship tourney held

Brook Ashby fired a sizzling one-under par 74 on Sunday afternoon to capture the championship of the Eagle Lake Recreation Center's annual Club Championship Tourney. Ernie Sommerlatte captured the women's title with a 93.

Twenty-six golfers competed in the competition on Sunday with prizes being awarded to the top three in each of four flights in the men's division and to the top two places in two divisions for the women.

The event was the final one of the year for the club and awarded members a chance to test the recently renovated greens which was part of a $30,000 improvement project on the course this summer.

Despite the final club sponsored activity, the course will remain open as long as weather permits and members, as well as guests and other visitors are welcome to utilize the facility.

Action last Sunday produced some surprising scores as Ashby ran away with the victory in the championship flight with his 74, besting second place finisher Curtis Laughlin by seven strokes and defending club champion Ray Nash, who finished third, by 10 strokes.

In the first flight, Gus Seaholm turned in an excellent round of 79 for first place, the second best score of the day. Glen Suderman placed second in the flight with an 85 and Thurston Webb was third with an 87.

First place in the second flight was earned by Aubrey Meyer with an 86 followed by Larry Dulany 88 and Jeff Franks in third with an 89.

Frank Pidgeon picked up the first place trophy in the third flight in the men's division by firing an 89 followed by Richard Allen in the second place spot with a 90 and taking third place was Louis Schorlemmer with a 99. Schorlemmer edged out Herb Boehme for the position in a "card playoff."

In the women's competition, Ernie Sommerlatte posted the low gross score of 93 to win that division with Carol Allen, the defending champ,

Eagle Lake 7th grade loses, 8th grade ties with Waller

The Eagle Lake Middle School Raiders hosted Waller last Thursday with the results being a tie for the eighth graders and a loss for the seventh graders.

In the 7th grade contest, the Raiders were defeated 28-18 by Waller with the first quarter ended at 0-0. In the second quarter Waller scored twice with our TD coming in the final minutes of the first half to end scoring at 6-12 in Waller's favor.

In the third quarter Waller scored once and made the extra points to make the score 20-6 but the Raiders came back with a TD towards the end of the quarter with third quarter scoring closing at 20-12 Waller.

Both teams scored again in the fourth; Waller made the extra points, the Raiders did not to close out the game at 28-18 Waller.

Halfback James Williams scored all three Raider touchdowns. He had a total of 208 yards. Defensively, standouts included Alcario Barrios with five tackles and three assists; Albert Barrios, three tackles, six assists; Kevin Amos, one tackle, seven assists; and Douglas Tillman with four tackles and three assists.

For the eighth graders, the contest ended in a tie, 8-8. The Raiders' lone TD came in the first quarter on a "quarterback keeper" with Warren Hurd running it in six yards. Hurd also scored the extra points.

Raiders 'respectable' in 17-0 loss; Defense shuts off Waller scoring

The scoreboard at Raider stadium last Friday may not have shown any points for the home team, but the fans and team both should have gone home a lot happier.

The Rice varsity lost to the Waller Bulldogs 17-0. It wasn't until the final second ticked off the clock that the game was over.

With a different defensive set, and a simplified offense, Rice was able to keep the Bulldogs away from scoring until the second quarter. Only against Needville had that happened this year, and Waller is one of the teams expected to be in district playoffs.

At the end of the first half, the score was a very respectable 7-0 in Waller's favor; in the third quarter they added another three points, and in the fourth the Bulldogs scored their final touchdown.

The first series of plays gave the full-house home audience an idea of how the game might go-instead of what some thought could be a rout.
