Participating in the christening were Ralph and Connie Gertson, uncle and aunt of Little Gus, who were chosen by his parents as his Godparents.

A baptismal dinner was held in Little Gus' honor at the home of his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Breithaupt, earlier that day. Enjoying a menu of turkey and dressing with all the trimmings were: Little Gus' parents and sister Karl; maternal great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor of Weimar; aunts, Mrs. Linda Henske and Mrs. Connie Gertson; uncles Billy Breithaupt and Ralph Gertson, Jr.; cousins, Sunny and Ralphie Gertson, Kevin and Tanya Henske; and a family guest, Robbie Stauffer.

After playing outdoors on the gym sets, Shara and her guests enjoyed hilly day cake, featuring Ronald McDonald, and ice cream. Upon leaving each child received a party sack of favors including a story book.

Spending the day with the birthday girl were: her brother Shamus, Tiffany Wilkerson, Jill Satsky, Lary Moore, Sharon Pavlik, Jackie Schmitt, Trey Kucherka and Michelle Spaniel.

After enjoying hamburgers, french fries and a drink, the birthday girl opened her presents as her guests looked on and then they enjoyed a game of pin the tail on the donkey.

Teresa Davis, Patrick Hurd plan January 8th wedding

Mr. and Mrs. William Charles Davis, Sr. proudly announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Teresa Amanda, to Patrick Lloyd Hurd of Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hurd of Eagle Lake.

The bride-to-be is a 1980 graduate of East Bernard High School and is now a student at Wharton County Junior College. The prospective groom is a 1980 graduate of Rice High School and now is employed as a night manager and as a salesman for Morse Shoe Inc.

The exchange of vows will be January 8, 1983 in the First United Methodist Church in East Bernard at 7:30 p.m.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses for the occasion, Vlasta Maschek and Cynthia Enax and daughter Vickie.

Upon departing every one wished Mrs. Kollman many more birthdays to come.

Those who guessed correctly were Lisa Corman, Roxanne Ripper, Laurie Bubela, Delbert Jarvis, Michael Sibley, Patricia Fields, and Monica Pieprys.

Yearbook ad sales complete

The yearbook staff would like to thank the business owners and all others who purchased ads this year. This year the yearbook staff sold $4650 in ad sales. This amount will pay for about 50 percent of the 1983 Raider yearbook. The price of ads were increased this year because the publication price of the yearbook increased. The price of the yearbook may also be increased.

"Who's Zat?"

This week, only two people were puzzled by this cute, young mystery lady.

The rough and ready

Nearing the close of the season, the mighty Raiders are polishing up their plays, routines, and fundamentals. The concentration and energy is directed toward the climax of the season. It is at this time when the outstanding accomplishments are most remembered and Raiders push their hardest to make a strong statement saying, "They better move over!"
