Duck, goose season again split

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has announced that the duck and goose hunting season will be split into two periods. The first period, from Nov. 2 through Jan. 23, is for ducks. The second period, from Jan. 23 through May 1, is for geese.

The commission set a limit of 10 ducks per hunter per day and 10 geese per hunter per day. The limit is for both ducks and geese combined.

The commission also announced that the duck and goose hunting season will be split into two periods. The first period, from Nov. 2 through Jan. 23, is for ducks. The second period, from Jan. 23 through May 1, is for geese.
