Happy Hoofers' charity ball will not be held this year

Due to the shape the economy is in, the Happy Hoofers' Dance Club announces the Charity Ball will not be held this year. In years past, the dance club would sponsor a dance and the proceeds were earmarked to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Fund, the Knights of Columbus Beef Community Fund and the Shriner's Crippled Children's Hospital. However, they will be happy to accept any donations you may wish to give and the contributions you give are tax deductible. If you wish to give to any of the funds listed above, you may contact J. T. (Tommy) Pinkington, Joe N. (Sonny) Spanik, Joe N. Frazier, Jr. or Mrs. Joe (Bunny) Frazier.

Special Olympics coaches training workshop Feb. 12

There will be a Special Olympics Coaches Workshop on Saturday from 10 to 3 p.m. at the Waldvogel Opportunity Center, 624 Preston, Columbus. The purpose of the workshop will be to certify coaches, teachers and volunteers for the Texas Special Olympic Events. Topics to be discussed will be the rabbit rule, metric conversion sport rule modifications and other important matters. Persons interested are asked to please attend this important workshop.

Each day this week special activities were scheduled. Wednesday, an open house is scheduled for parents appreciation, so they may have a meal with their children. Thursday is Teacher Appreciation day with parents volunteering to teach a class. Friday, joint activities are scheduled for St. Anthony's and St. Mary's schools for a 10:30 a.m. mass celebrated by Bishop Charles Graham. Earlier this week, there was a special mass on Sunday with St. Anthony's P.T.C. Monday there was a general assembly with mini-skits and awarding of ribbons and prizes for the poster contest sponsored by the P.T.C. Tuesday was student appreciation day with a film, and there was an 8th grade food sale. Throughout this week Catholic schools across the

National future homemakers week

The Rice Future Homemakers Chapter is in the process of celebrating National FHA Week, February 6-13. This is also National Vocational Education Week. These young men and women have been an equal opportunity to participate in these and other activities that will help their personal development, and/or be of service to others. FHA is an important part of the total homemaking program. The Rice Chapter has eight members this year who have a chance to participate in these and other activities that will help their personal development, and/or be of service to others. FHA is an important part of the total homemaking program.

On your mark, get set, go!

It's that time of the year when athletes put on their track shoes, chew salt tablets, and limp home to relieve their sore, aching muscles. It is the time of the year for track. On February 2, a track meeting was held in the meeting room by Coach Johnson to organize the girls' track team. She briefly went over the plans concerning the practice sessions. She also explained that everyone would have an equal opportunity to compete for the varsity track team provided that they tried their best. Because there was a large number of people present, Coach Johnson stated that there may be a JV team as well. The first practice will be after school on February 21. Let's see everyone burn the track field!

4-H News

Governor White to sign 4-H proclamation. To celebrate the 75th anniversary of 4-H, Governor Mark White will sign a proclamation in honor of thousands of 4-H members and leaders throughout the state of Texas. A number of 4-H members and leaders from Colorado County will travel to Austin on February 10 to witness the signing of the 4-H proclamation. Governor White will make his presentation at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday morning and at 12:30 p.m., a tree will be planted in his honor. Colorado County's 4-H members and leaders will also tour various landmarks and buildings during their visit to Austin. Today's 4-H'ers are active in such areas as energy conservation, environmental improvement, community service and food production. They participate in programs that aid youth employment and career decisions, health, nutrition.

Raider Review

New student

Who is the new face shining among the Rice High School students? Well, it is the one-and-only Dana Pope. Dana is a junior who attended the Jack Yates High School in Houston. She presently resides in Eagle Lake with her mother, Dorota Pope. When asked what she thinks about Rice she replied, "I think Rice is a nice school." The Raider Review wishes Dana the best of luck at Rice during the remainder of the year!
