

Museum committee meets

Last Wednesday evening the Museum Committee met to discuss proposals prepared by their planning group. The planning group which consists of Hollis Baker, Robert Samuel Martin, Paul Krupicka and Frank Reese proposed an impressively detailed plan outlining objectives, a program of collections and a method of operation. This plan was read by Mr. Martin and discussed step by step. Upon general consensus the plan was approved. It will now be presented to the Revitalization Committee for its review in terms of coordination with the revitalization effort.

Baker also explained the Home Articles and Crafts. Mrs. R. L. (Ada) Cook, Mrs. Charles (Margaret) McTear and Mrs. Herman (Elizabeth) Booth. Art and Archive Collection operation: Kathryn McRee and Mrs. R. H. (Mary W.) Baker.

Exhibit and Collection Storage: Franklin Reese, H. E. Tate and Isidoro Ramirez.

If anyone has any information pertaining to these areas of concern, please contact one of the sub-committee members.

Publicity and Public Service: Paul Krupicka. Farm and Ranch Relics: Fulton Dromgoole, Obie Rhodes, Leo Luna and Draper Stephens.

23 RHS students enter Livestock show

Twenty-three FFA members from Rice High School will be participating in the 1983 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, February 19 through March 6. With more than 30,000 exhibited livestock entries, the Houston Livestock Show is one again the world's largest.

Students from Rice High School entering their livestock are: Steve Almanza, III, Roscoe Botard, Johnnie Darnell, Baldomero Hernandez, Jr., Gary Kocurek, Ronnie Kocurek, Deborah Kretschmer, Robert Labay, Joe Lang, David Moisek, Keith Nance, Kevin Osburn, Jesse Rodriguez, Coby Shorter, III, Albert Tomchesson and Jon Wunderlich, who will be showing market barrows.

Also, Kevin Brisco and Stephen Mahalite with their steers; DeWayne Dopslauf, DeWight Dopslauf, Michelle Huvar and Phillip Huvar with their beef heifers; and Shawn Wiese, who will enter his dairy heifer.

Ronal Roberts is the ag teacher at Rice High School. "Our 1983 Show is going to be another spectacular event," noted Show President E. Norwin Gerhart.

"With the combination of the finest livestock found anywhere, thousands of hard-working 4-H and FFA exhibitors, an exciting championship rodeo in the Astrodome and 17 of the biggest names in the entertainment world to perform here, the Houston Rodeo in 1983 just can't be beat!"

"We know that the Houston Show is an annual family event for fans from all over the state," said Gerhart. "And, it's still as affordable as ever, with ticket prices remaining at $4.00 and $8.00, just as they were in 1982."

Monday, February 21, marks the start of actual competition in the world's largest livestock show. The first week is devoted primarily to open show competition, drawing professional breeders and ranch owners from some 35 states to show the best in breeding beef, dairy, swine, poultry, sheep, Angora goats and barrel races pit their skill against the clock and the roughest, toughest rodeo stock anywhere. Chuckwagon races, the calf scramble and a top star of the rodeo industry, the barrel race, will make the Houston Rodeo a total entertainment experience for the whole family.

The motor fuel tax collections were the third largest tax revenue source and totaled $496.4 million in 1982, an increase of 3.3 percent. Wintermann explained that federal funds received were $2.44 billion, 17 percent of state receipts, which was 15.4 percent less than 1981.

Rotary hears talks on economics

David Wintermann presented an enlightening program on economics and the state of the State at Wednesday's meeting of the Rotary Club.

Mr. Wintermann reported that while manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade and services are the leading employers in Texas, the state government employs nearly 170,000. This figure represents 115 workers employed by the state for every 10,000 Texans which is well below the national average of 185 per 10,000 population.

He further said that taxes were the largest source of revenue in 1982, accounting for 60.3 percent of the total collections. Mrs. Miles' tax collections, of $3.46 billion showed an increase of 16 percent over 1981 and represented the most important revenue tax.

The second leading revenue tax, he said, was the oil production tax which works display on Saturday night!

At the horse arena, the National Cutting Horse Association World's Championship Finals will take place, February 17-20. The finest cutting horses will compete for the title in open and non-professional divisions, hoping to capture glory, as well as a part of the biggest added money cutting purse ever. Tickets to this event are separately priced at $6.00 each and may be bought through the rodeo ticket office.

During the second week, junior show exhibitors take over the vast exhibition facility. Traditionally accounting for more than 65 percent of all show entries, the Astrodome is filled to capacity with the results of hard work by youngsters who have their hopes set high at Houston. While junior show competition includes breeding stock, commercial steers and dairy animals, the real spotlight is on the market divisions, where a grand champion can mean an education or a future in agriculture.

Across the street at the rodeo in the Astrodome, action is fast and furious as the top professional cowboys and barrel racers pit their skill against the clock and the roughest, toughest rodeo stock anywhere.

Class favorites chosen

By Debie Wilson

On Monday morning, February 7, students were asked to choose one girl and one boy from their class for class favorites. On Tuesday, the names were handed out and the students were again asked to choose. The nominees were as follows: Seniors, Becky Benge, Karen Rucka, Paul Korenek and Stephen Mahalite; Juniors, Lisa Corman, Missy Huvar, Billy Harrison and Coby Shorter; Sophomores, Kristine Carpenter, Rachelle Hunt, Becky Kutzer, Michael Romo and Michael Sibley; and Freshmen, Lisa Brown, Carol Rhodes, Beverly Rucka, Darrell Pangel and Rodney Williams.

Cosmetology holds local contest

The cosmetology class held a local contest February 6, after school. The purpose of the contest was to qualify students for the district contest. The judges were Mrs. Patsy Jones, Sealy I.S.D., and Kathy Mills, Katy I.S.D. Local winners who will advance to District competition in skill and speed are: Priscilla Dabney with model Donna Spears, Stephanie Woods with model Ethel Shorter, Suzanne Fajkus with model Lori Hoffmann, Tracy Soupe with model Lynn Ishee and Belinda Cavazos with model Linda Cardenas.

Students whose projects will be taken to District competition in cold wave roll-ups are: Lynn Ishee, first place; and Belinda Cavazos, second; wigs and wigslets: Lynn Ishee and Leticia Saucedo, second place.

The following also received first and second place ribbons but they will not attend the competition. In cold wave roll-ups: Frances Garcia and Belinda Cavazos, first place; and Becky Morales, second.

RHS students participate in contest

By Julia Rosprim

On Saturday, February 5, nineteen Rice students attended the UIL Solo and Ensemble contest in Victoria. It was held at Victoria High School.

Soloists receiving Division I ratings were: David Adkins on baritone saxophone; Christine Corella on tuba; Julia Rosprim on tenor saxophone; and Shaw Spanish on trombone. One ensemble, a saxophone quartet, received a Division I rating. The members of this group were David Adkins, Tamra Paenick, Julia Rosprim and Derrick Williams. All these students are eligible to go to the State Solo and Ensemble contest in May.

The following soloists received Division II ratings: Brandon Cope on French horn; Rachelle Hunt on clarinet; and Michael Mota on trumpet. Ensembles receiving Division II ratings were: a clarinet choir, consisting of Pam Black, Karen Blunston, Tina Grabmann, Rachelle Hunt, Pam Morgan, Lisa Parker, and Stralecia White; and a flute trio, whose members were Kylene Carpenter, Deborah Kretschmer and Ruth Quintanilla. Melissa Wilcox, who played an abbe solo, received a Division III rating.

Who's Zat? Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

1982-83 Raider Review Staff
Patricia Fields, Editor
Leslie Harrison, Editor

Becky Benge
Ronald Cook
Stacey Holden
Roxanne Ripper
Cheryl Ross

Ramaldo Godino
Steven Simek
Jimmy Clispson
Tom Davidson, Sponsor

Laurie Bubela
Lisa Corman
Cathy Lanyon
Julia Rosprim
Debbie Wilson

Vicky Hernandez

Hernandez
January
FTA'er

Class favorites chosen

By Debie Wilson

On Monday morning, February 7, students were asked to choose one girl and one boy from their class for class favorites. On Tuesday, the names were handed out and the students were again asked to choose. The nominees were as follows: Seniors, Becky Benge, Karen Rucka, Paul Korenek and Stephen Mahalite; Juniors, Lisa Corman, Missy Huvar, Billy Harrison and Coby Shorter; Sophomores, Kristine Carpenter, Rachelle Hunt, Becky Kutzer, Michael Romo and Michael Sibley; and Freshmen, Lisa Brown, Carol Rhodes, Beverly Rucka, Darrell Pangel and Rodney Williams.

Rotary hears talks on economics

David Wintermann presented an enlightening program on economics and the state of the State at Wednesday's meeting of the Rotary Club.

Mr. Wintermann reported that while manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade and services are the leading employers in Texas, the state government employs nearly 170,000. This figure represents 115 workers employed by the state for every 10,000 Texans which is well below the national average of 185 per 10,000 population.

He further said that taxes were the largest source of revenue in 1982, accounting for 60.3 percent of the total collections. Mrs. Miles' tax collections, of $3.46 billion showed an increase of 16 percent over 1981 and represented the most important revenue tax.

The second leading revenue tax, he said, was the oil production tax which works display on Saturday night!

At the horse arena, the National Cutting Horse Association World's Championship Finals will take place, February 17-20. The finest cutting horses will compete for the title in open and non-professional divisions, hoping to capture glory, as well as a part of the biggest added money cutting purse ever. Tickets to this event are separately priced at $6.00 each and may be bought through the rodeo ticket office.

During the second week, junior show exhibitors take over the vast exhibition facility. Traditionally accounting for more than 65 percent of all show entries, the Astrodome is filled to capacity with the results of hard work by youngsters who have their hopes set high at Houston. While junior show competition includes breeding stock, commercial steers and dairy animals, the real spotlight is on the market divisions, where a grand champion can mean an education or a future in agriculture.

Across the street at the rodeo in the Astrodome, action is fast and furious as the top professional cowboys and barrel racers pit their skill against the clock and the roughest, toughest rodeo stock anywhere.

Who's Zat? Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

By Stacy Holden

1982-83 Raider Review Staff
Patricia Fields, Editor
Leslie Harrison, Editor

Becky Benge
Ronald Cook
Stacey Holden
Roxanne Ripper
Cheryl Ross

Ramaldo Godino
Steven Simek
Jimmy Clispson
Tom Davidson, Sponsor

Laurie Bubela
Lisa Corman
Cathy Lanyon
Julia Rosprim
Debbie Wilson

Vicky Hernandez

Hernandez
January
FTA'er

Class favorites chosen

By Debie Wilson

On Monday morning, February 7, students were asked to choose one girl and one boy from their class for class favorites. On Tuesday, the names were handed out and the students were again asked to choose. The nominees were as follows: Seniors, Becky Benge, Karen Rucka, Paul Korenek and Stephen Mahalite; Juniors, Lisa Corman, Missy Huvar, Billy Harrison and Coby Shorter; Sophomores, Kristine Carpenter, Rachelle Hunt, Becky Kutzer, Michael Romo and Michael Sibley; and Freshmen, Lisa Brown, Carol Rhodes, Beverly Rucka, Darrell Pangel and Rodney Williams.

Rotary hears talks on economics

David Wintermann presented an enlightening program on economics and the state of the State at Wednesday's meeting of the Rotary Club.

Mr. Wintermann reported that while manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade and services are the leading employers in Texas, the state government employs nearly 170,000. This figure represents 115 workers employed by the state for every 10,000 Texans which is well below the national average of 185 per 10,000 population.

He further said that taxes were the largest source of revenue in 1982, accounting for 60.3 percent of the total collections. Mrs. Miles' tax collections, of $3.46 billion showed an increase of 16 percent over 1981 and represented the most important revenue tax.

The second leading revenue tax, he said, was the oil production tax which works display on Saturday night!

At the horse arena, the National Cutting Horse Association World's Championship Finals will take place, February 17-20. The finest cutting horses will compete for the title in open and non-professional divisions, hoping to capture glory, as well as a part of the biggest added money cutting purse ever. Tickets to this event are separately priced at $6.00 each and may be bought through the rodeo ticket office.

During the second week, junior show exhibitors take over the vast exhibition facility. Traditionally accounting for more than 65 percent of all show entries, the Astrodome is filled to capacity with the results of hard work by youngsters who have their hopes set high at Houston. While junior show competition includes breeding stock, commercial steers and dairy animals, the real spotlight is on the market divisions, where a grand champion can mean an education or a future in agriculture.

Across the street at the rodeo in the Astrodome, action is fast and furious as the top professional cowboys and barrel racers pit their skill against the clock and the roughest, toughest rodeo stock anywhere.

Who's Zat? Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

By Stacy Holden

1982-83 Raider Review Staff
Patricia Fields, Editor
Leslie Harrison, Editor

Becky Benge
Ronald Cook
Stacey Holden
Roxanne Ripper
Cheryl Ross

Ramaldo Godino
Steven Simek
Jimmy Clispson
Tom Davidson, Sponsor

Laurie Bubela
Lisa Corman
Cathy Lanyon
Julia Rosprim
Debbie Wilson

Vicky Hernandez

Hernandez
January
FTA'er

Class favorites chosen

By Debie Wilson

On Monday morning, February 7, students were asked to choose one girl and one boy from their class for class favorites. On Tuesday, the names were handed out and the students were again asked to choose. The nominees were as follows: Seniors, Becky Benge, Karen Rucka, Paul Korenek and Stephen Mahalite; Juniors, Lisa Corman, Missy Huvar, Billy Harrison and Coby Shorter; Sophomores, Kristine Carpenter, Rachelle Hunt, Becky Kutzer, Michael Romo and Michael Sibley; and Freshmen, Lisa Brown, Carol Rhodes, Beverly Rucka, Darrell Pangel and Rodney Williams.

Rotary hears talks on economics

David Wintermann presented an enlightening program on economics and the state of the State at Wednesday's meeting of the Rotary Club.

Mr. Wintermann reported that while manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade and services are the leading employers in Texas, the state government employs nearly 170,000. This figure represents 115 workers employed by the state for every 10,000 Texans which is well below the national average of 185 per 10,000 population.

He further said that taxes were the largest source of revenue in 1982, accounting for 60.3 percent of the total collections. Mrs. Miles' tax collections, of $3.46 billion showed an increase of 16 percent over 1981 and represented the most important revenue tax.

The second leading revenue tax, he said, was the oil production tax which works display on Saturday night!

At the horse arena, the National Cutting Horse Association World's Championship Finals will take place, February 17-20. The finest cutting horses will compete for the title in open and non-professional divisions, hoping to capture glory, as well as a part of the biggest added money cutting purse ever. Tickets to this event are separately priced at $6.00 each and may be bought through the rodeo ticket office.

During the second week, junior show exhibitors take over the vast exhibition facility. Traditionally accounting for more than 65 percent of all show entries, the Astrodome is filled to capacity with the results of hard work by youngsters who have their hopes set high at Houston. While junior show competition includes breeding stock, commercial steers and dairy animals, the real spotlight is on the market divisions, where a grand champion can mean an education or a future in agriculture.

Across the street at the rodeo in the Astrodome, action is fast and furious as the top professional cowboys and barrel racers pit their skill against the clock and the roughest, toughest rodeo stock anywhere.

Who's Zat? Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

By Stacy Holden

1982-83 Raider Review Staff
Patricia Fields, Editor
Leslie Harrison, Editor

Becky Benge
Ronald Cook
Stacey Holden
Roxanne Ripper
Cheryl Ross

Ramaldo Godino
Steven Simek
Jimmy Clispson
Tom Davidson, Sponsor

Laurie Bubela
Lisa Corman
Cathy Lanyon
Julia Rosprim
Debbie Wilson

Vicky Hernandez

Hernandez
January
FTA'er

Class favorites chosen

By Debie Wilson

On Monday morning, February 7, students were asked to choose one girl and one boy from their class for class favorites. On Tuesday, the names were handed out and the students were again asked to choose. The nominees were as follows: Seniors, Becky Benge, Karen Rucka, Paul Korenek and Stephen Mahalite; Juniors, Lisa Corman, Missy Huvar, Billy Harrison and Coby Shorter; Sophomores, Kristine Carpenter, Rachelle Hunt, Becky Kutzer, Michael Romo and Michael Sibley; and Freshmen, Lisa Brown, Carol Rhodes, Beverly Rucka, Darrell Pangel and Rodney Williams.

Rotary hears talks on economics

David Wintermann presented an enlightening program on economics and the state of the State at Wednesday's meeting of the Rotary Club.

Mr. Wintermann reported that while manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade and services are the leading employers in Texas, the state government employs nearly 170,000. This figure represents 115 workers employed by the state for every 10,000 Texans which is well below the national average of 185 per 10,000 population.

He further said that taxes were the largest source of revenue in 1982, accounting for 60.3 percent of the total collections. Mrs. Miles' tax collections, of $3.46 billion showed an increase of 16 percent over 1981 and represented the most important revenue tax.

The second leading revenue tax, he said, was the oil production tax which works display on Saturday night!

At the horse arena, the National Cutting Horse Association World's Championship Finals will take place, February 17-20. The finest cutting horses will compete for the title in open and non-professional divisions, hoping to capture glory, as well as a part of the biggest added money cutting purse ever. Tickets to this event are separately priced at $6.00 each and may be bought through the rodeo ticket office.

During the second week, junior show exhibitors take over the vast exhibition facility. Traditionally accounting for more than 65 percent of all show entries, the Astrodome is filled to capacity with the results of hard work by youngsters who have their hopes set high at Houston. While junior show competition includes breeding stock, commercial steers and dairy animals, the real spotlight is on the market divisions, where a grand champion can mean an education or a future in agriculture.

Across the street at the rodeo in the Astrodome, action is fast and furious as the top professional cowboys and barrel racers pit their skill against the clock and the roughest, toughest rodeo stock anywhere.

Who's Zat? Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

Other wrong guessers were Cathy Lanyon with Debbie Wilson, Michelle Gonz with Tamra Paenick, Connie Prazak with Monica Pieprzyca, and Tamra Paenick with Missy Huvar. There were some who did not have to give it a second thought, they were Coby Shorter, Debbie Wilson and Cozsh Paldyn. These people knew it had to be none other than Cheryl Ross, a junior at Rice.

By Stacy Holden

Who could this big-eyed, cute little girl be. Several people were baffled by this charming face. Some thought it to be Julia Rosprim, they were Stephen Simek and Leslie Harrison. Others that contemplated it to be Laurie Bubela and Miss Balusek, who assumed it to be Stacy Holden. Mr. Davidson and Matthew Rohwer were wrong in guessing Roxanne Ripper.

By Stacy Holden

IBM invites you to sit down on the job for a few hours.

Attend our open house and find out how IBM products can help improve your efficiency.

Here's one time you'll want to be right sitting down on the job. Because at our open house, you'll get the chance to sit at the controls of everything from a small computer system to a word processor to an IBM typewriter, and to see for yourself how they can help solve your problems. In accounting, administration, inventory and correspondence. So if you really want your company to be a stand-out, be sure to show up on the job. With us.

Thursday, February 24, 8:30 AM or 1:00 PM
The Columbus Inn in Columbus
Or call: Ida Provo at 940-2541