Drama students place third in UIL contest

On the morning of March 23, a rather cold and dreary morning, 14 excited Drama students, loaded with stage makeup on their faces and carrying their props and lunches in their hands, headed for U.I.L. One-Act Play District competition held at Bellville High school. When they arrived, they were assigned to Room 208. The students and their teachers touched up their makeup. Then, each, she held his breath as, finally, the

The play, "Once Upon a Playground," was performed well with an easy air of confidence and a high level

NHS selects new members

Thirteen new members were selected to serve on the RHS National Honor Society. These students, who had to have a 2.5 grade point average, applied for membership and were selected by the faculty using the criteria of academic achievements, extra curricular activities, and citizenship.

Congratulations to all.

Band travels to contest

On Thursday, March 1, the Mighty Raider Band traveled to Palacios to compete in UIL Concert and Sightreading Contest. The band prepared the following concert pieces: "Rhythm of the Winds," "Little English Girl," and "Concert Variations." A panel of three judges rated the tunes and the results were a II-Division.

man, the band had eight minutes to study a piece of music that they had never seen before. Time was winding down, but the band had everything under control. One, two, ready, play! They're off, the judges are really writing. "Good sound, reading the piece very well, good percussion, nice looking organization. Congratulations, keep up the good work." Bravo! the band earned a 1 Division rating.
