Mr. and Mrs. Darby Hoffman of Nada announce the birth of their first child, a daughter, named Jenna Marie. The baby was born April 7 at Gulf Coast Medical Center in Wharton and weighed seven pounds and eleven ounces.

The maternal grandmother is Alberta Dettling of El Campo and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Meth Hoffman.

The new mother is the former Sherry Dettling. The women of the Garwood Lehrer Memorial United Methodist Church met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stienke with Mrs. Stienke as hostess.

Mrs. Stienke gave a very informative review of one of Phillip Tetter's books.

It was on Ahab's reign in the Northern kingdom. Before the business meeting, Mrs. Stienke asked the group to say the "Lord's Prayer."

The president, Mrs. Lawrence Berger, read a poem. The roll call and minutes were read by Mrs. Guy Conner and Mrs. Louis Miller gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. R. A. Shoop and Tiffany, Barbereau, gave the card report. Then the president took up new business and also thanked all members for their help in the past projects.

It was decided to have the June 6 meeting at the Berger camphouse. After a song, delicious refreshments of spring salad, chips and apricot cake was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bubba Wesselski and son Jason were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Ondrias of Wharton on Easter Sunday. Other guests from Garwood were

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wesselski, Jr.

Guests for Easter Sunday at the Lester Cranek home were Les and Karen Cranek and children of Louise, Peggy, Wabert-Jule, and Brad of Garwood, Bubba and Florence Wesselski and Jason, Mrs. Louis Cranek and children, Kim Cranek and children, Pam Cranek of Wharton, Janene Cranek, Mrs. Roy Cranek and Tiffany, Barbereau, chicken, green rice, green beans, fruit salad and potato salad was served to the guests.

J. B. Tipton returned home from a Houston hospital after a two month stay, Howard Gary Coast Medical Center in Wharton and Mrs. J. A. Meisner came home from a Houston hospital.

Servicing meeting

Alpha Sigma Omicron met in the home of Madelyn Zbrank on April 5. Members opened the meeting by repeating the Opening Ritual. Cathy Schilling began her program by starting a gallon of "Sun Tea" to be made without the sun and enjoyed by all at the close of the meeting only one hour later.

The outgoing president, Mrs. Frnka, extended heartfelt thanks to her officers, committee chairpersons and other members for the support given her for the past four years and asked they do the same for the new president.

The nominating committee, including Mrs. Frank (Barbara) Davidson, chairman; Mrs. Sidney (Ura) Miller and Mrs. Jimmie Scott presented the nominees for the officers, and they were elected by acclamation.

The office of vice president had been vacant since Mrs. V. V. (Cassie) Shields moved from the city.

Mrs. L. D. (Sydney) Sheldon was elected the new president; Mrs. Joe Lee (Eleanor) McCreary, vice president; Mrs. Davidson was elected second vice president; and Mrs. Letha Lundquist re-elected secretary. The treasurer's office, which Mrs. William (Viola) Zboril holds, carries over for another year.

During the installation ceremony, Mrs. Frnka presented each of the officers a flower in a color symbolizing the office she holds.

The president, Mrs. Sheldon, received a red flower symbolizing the culmination of a lovely day, of authority and responsibility. The vice president, Mrs. McCreary, received an orange flower symbolizing the brilliance of an afternoon, of preparedness and cheerfulness; second vice president, Mrs. Davidson, was given a silver one, for the dew of early dawn, of constancy and loyalty; the secretary, Mrs. Lundquist, accepted a yellow flower for the freshness of a new day, of dependability and a pleasant outlook; the treasurer, Mrs. Zboril, was recipient of a gold flower symbolizing the golden glow of daytime, of prosperity and stability.

Mrs. Frnka concluded in saying, "Each day, from the freshness of the morning to the glow of the evening, you as the officers and members of the Eagle Lake Community Hospital Auxiliary give of your selves, your time and your talents to benefit others."

In behalf of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Zboril presented the outgoing president with a lovely gift of three pink variegated wine glass candleholders, for which Mrs. Frnka extended sincere thanks.

Praise of each of the ladies was expressed to Mrs. Higgins for catering the lovely luncheon.
