Dallas Cowboy coach says teams have drug problems

The much revered Dallas Cowboys, as well as the other major professional sports teams, have a drug problem among players, according to Ernie Stautner, defensive coordinator for the winning team.

However, Stautner was quick to point out that none of the Cowboys players have been involved with legal authorities because of drugs, but the team has hired a former FBI agent. The team wants to help its players, he said.

Stautner, speaking at the Rice High School all-sports banquet Monday night, also outlined what the team is doing to regain its superiority on the football field.

"Goal setting is an integral part of the Dallas Cowboys," he said. Our goal is to get into the championship game. To reach that goal, a change has been made in how players are named to the starting team.

In the past, Cowboys who played well the previous year were starters the next year. But now, Stautner said, rookies and veterans alike have equal chances to make the starting line up. "No one has job security this year," he said. "We've got to prove it," is the team's motto.

Stautner said that in the past several months, three drug pushers arrested in Dallas have named Cowboys players as buyers. However, those allegations were not proven, and Stautner said that he feels because of plea bargaining in the legal system, persons arrested are likely to lie to protect themselves. "I wanted you to know a criminal will do anything to keep out of jail," he said. Stautner predicted the season ahead will be a tough one all around, and that it is possible some of their draft picks have a chance to make the team as rookies. That's tough to do because of the complexity of our system.

Men's softball meeting tonight; season opener to start soon

The Rice Area Men's Softball League will hold its final spring planning session this Wednesday at 7 p.m. to put the finishing touches on the summer program which is expected to start near the end of May.

The meeting will be held at the Eagle Lake Municipal Building and all teams planning to participate in the men's league must attend. League President Jeff Frnka indicated that a $100 down payment on the $1,000 entry fee will be required at the meeting for teams to be considered entered in the league.

Ten teams are expected to participate in the summer program, Frnka said, so it will be important that all teams have representatives at the meeting.

Johnny's team wins second

The Columbus Demons hosted a men's softball tournament at the K. C. Field in Columbus last weekend and Johnny's Sports Shop of Eagle Lake finished second in the 15 team tournament.

The Eagle Lake team, coached by Mike Grigar, lost to the G-Men of Wharton in the finals of the tournament on Sunday evening despite some outstanding play.

Items stolen from truck found with caller's tip

At 11:15 p.m. Saturday, Doug Rau of Columbus, now residing in California, reported a theft from his vehicle on Smith-Rau Road near Columbus. The investigation revealed that while at a gathering, someone had taken several items from under the seat of a pickup truck being used by Rau.

Reported missing were a dipper bag, assorted jewelry, 2 wrist watches, a 35 MM camera, Mrs. Rau's purse containing some cash and credit cards, and another handgun.

At 8:57 p.m. Sunday, while the investigation was being conducted, Rau received a telephone call from an unknown caller, telling him to look under the Dry Branch Bridge on FM 109.

Deputy Sheriff Parcell and Rau went to the bridge and found some of the items. They were found in a pillow case that had been left under the bridge where the caller indicated. A diamond ring, bracelet and the two hand bags were not among the items found.

Monday Rau searched the area again and found the diamond ring. It was located near Rau's vehicle was parked at the time of the theft. The ring apparently was dropped during the theft.

Austin Diocese meet

These are valued at $5,000 each and the interest from them is used for the further study of young seminarians.

Attending from Eagle Lake were Mrs. Carolyn Niska, Diocese president of the Bremham Diocese, and Mrs. Evelyn Niska, Mrs. Mary Thomas, and Mrs. Edna Dibala from Wallis. Father Ray Widacki of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church and Father Ed Leiber of Freiburg are also attending.

Rice athletes of the year

Three athletes at Rice High School were honored Monday night as Athletes of the Year. From left is Rob Johnson; Ernie Stautner, Dallas Cowboy defensive coordinator who was speaker; and Kim Wunderlich and Jackie Parker, who tied as female athletes of the year. Stautner spoke to students about drug problems in pro sports.
