AAUW meets at home of Jane Clipson

The Eagle Lake branch of the A.A.U.W. met the evening of May 6 at the home of Jane Clipson.

President Paulette Klockman introduced Ruth Anderson, who spoke on the subject "Changing Roles of Women in My Lifetime." Her remarks were quite interesting and cleverly spoken.

She related that professions for women were very scarce when she was graduated from high school in 1925. Need, opportunity and ability have been determining forces in the change of roles of women.

The speaker asked the following questions which were interesting to all and nostalgic for some of those present:

1. Did you ever change a Model T tire?
2. Did you ever wash a cream separator?
3. Do you remember seeing your first airplane?
4. Do you remember seeing your first radio?

By the early 40's or 50's, many women did not wish to be confined at home. So soon there was a recognition of the rise of women's abilities as they began to work in very responsible positions.

Today's woman behaviorism pattern is in many cases that of "Do your own thing." Many married women have careers, but this is not longer considered a "big deal." An encouraging report is that more and more career women are staying at home with newborns. A woman's traditional role of being a housewife and mother is still a valid one, and her happiness is closely linked to that of her husband. In taking an opinion poll, Anderson asked one young man how his grandmother was different from younger women and he replied, "My grandmother never had a car." The poll also revealed that women were becoming a little uneasy in that they might have "biten off more than they can chew."

During the social hour the guests enjoyed refreshments of dips, chips, crackers, olives, layer cake, and a choice of tea or coffee. Elizabeth Boothe, Reporter

Study Club holds President's Luncheon May 10

The Eagle Lake Study Club met Tuesday, May 10 at noon for the annual President's Luncheon at the Community Center.

The meeting was opened with Mrs. Ray Cumberworth, president, presiding. She reported that the book sale held the day of the April Fost took in about $135 with the money going to the revitalization committee.

Mrs. Cumberworth then turned the meeting over to David Wintermann who introduced the speaker, Lynn Ashby. Mr. Ashby presented a column for the Houston Post.

Mr. Ashby's talk was on Journalism. Writing a daily column is not as easy as it appears to the reader. The subject must be interesting to most people. It is best to have a tape recorder on when interviewing some people, as when they see in print what they have said it does not look good and they decide to deny the whole thing.

Everyone makes mistakes and some times the gremlins in the printing room change the whole content.

Mr. Ashby is an entertaining speaker and every one enjoyed his talk. At the close he answered questions from the audience.

The next meeting of the Study Club will be in September.
