Mrs. Emma Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shoppe and two sons, Andrew and Phillip, all of Houston visited Mrs. Martha Cernoch at Nada recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Shoppe and son, Nicky, of Dallas were Mother's Day week and guests of Mrs. Roy Shoppe. Mrs. Shoppe and her guests attended the wedding of her grand-daughter, Jill Taylor, and Bob Zerr at the First Baptist Church in El Campo.

Mrs. Ella Struoka accompanied Dana and Allen Struoka to Houston to spend Mother's Day with the Struoka family. On May 7 they were guests to a seafood dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Knight in Rosenberg. Mr. and Mrs. Struoka and Jack Knight accompanied her home.

A speedy recovery to Paul Laske who had surgery in the Eagle Lake Community Hospital.

The Colorado County Older Texas Fair was held May 5 at Mentr Parish Hall to honor the older Texans.

The theme for Older Americans Month, May 1983, was "Older Americans: Keys to Our Future."

Bernice Heinsohn of Frelsburg and Waltra Henicke of Columbus were honored as the outstanding woman and man of Colorado County with Judge Lester Cranek presenting the awards. Other nominees included Mrs. Amelia Popp of Nada, Emily Bock Neundorff of Mentz, Martha Henicke and Martha Gillespie, both of Columbus.

James Dunn Seymour of Colorado Savings and Loan, gave a talk on exemption from withholding on interest and dividends and today's economy.

Mrs. Dana Struoka and Miss Roxy Howard, both of Houston, spent some time with Dana's grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Rees entertained with a forty-two party recently with three tables of 42. Lovely refreshments were served.

The women of the Garwood Lehrer Memorial United Methodist Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engstrom with Mrs. Engstrom as hostess.

Mrs. E. H. Stienke finished giving a report on the life of Elijah the Prophet as given by an outstanding author.

After the report the group went into a business meeting with Mrs. Lawrence Berger presiding. Mrs. Guy Conner called the roll and read the minutes and Mrs. R. A. Shoop gave the card report. They decided to order some telephone pads to sell.

A report was given on the El Campo meeting. There were 12 members present and one visitor, Mrs. Nell Amos, of Houston.

The next meeting will be at the Berger campouse. A lovely dinner followed with sandwiches, potato chips, coffee and cold drinks was served.

May 23

Shropshire-Upton UDC chapter meets

Shropshire-Upton Chapter No. 361, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met in the home of Mrs. David Gunn of Weimar on Thursday. Other hostesses were Mesdames David Kahlich, A. W. Willrodt and Henry Brasher.

The meeting was opened with the ritual by president Mrs. Oscar Schade. Patriotic service chairman, Mrs. Homer Koliba, led the pledge to the flag. Minutes of the previous meeting and treasurer's report were given by Mrs. J. R. Grubbs and Mrs. Edgar Litzmann respectively.

Mrs. Schade reminded members of an upcoming Hero's Day, Jefferson Davis's birthday, June 8; welcomed new members Miss Jayne Cranek; and welcomed guests Mrs. Carl Gordy and Miss Harriet Cranek. Miss Cranek told about the state and general conventions of the Children of the Confederacy and extended an invitation to the ladies to attend all or part of the activities August 1 to August 6 in Austin.

Third vice-president, Mrs. James Cranek spoke of other activities of the Col. C. W. Tait Chapter and reminded everyone that the children would be selling Confederate flags at the museum during the home tour. Mrs. Gunn passed along compliments about the children's participation in the Memorial Service in Weimar. She thanked Kate and Megan Sanders for helping with the prayers and pledges.

Mrs. Carl Mattern, librarian, presented a motion on behalf of Mrs. Cranek for the chapter to donate a book to the Nesbitt Library in memory of Mrs. Streckfus. Motion was seconded and passed.

Mrs. Jack Draper, acting curator, said she is having the pictures of our Confederate flag debutantes framed and they will be on permanent display at the museum.

The speaker, Mrs. Bradon Fritpatrick, reviewed the book, "Women in Texas" by Ann Crawford and Crystal Ragsdale. She profiled some ten outstanding women of the state and said the pioneer women laid the foundation and provided the time and talent to make Texas a great state.

Among those mentioned were Jane Long, known as the mother of Texas; Mary Rauh, writer of tales about Texas; Molly Goodnight, school teacher; Elizabeth Nye, artist; Ima Hogg, first lady of Texas, and Clara Driscoll, who was most instrumental in getting the Alamo restored.

Members were advised that the September meeting would be at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Litzmann. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned and members and guests enjoyed refreshments of coffee, tea and deep dish dextery pie.

Wendy Herman honored with eighth grade graduation dinner

Miss Wendy Herman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Herman of Eagle Lake, was complimented with an eighth grade graduation dinner at 1 p.m. Sunday at the home of her sister.

She attended St. Anthony's School in Columbus.

Wendy, along with her class, assembled at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Columbus Sunday morning at 10 a.m. for Mass and to receive her eighth grade diploma.

After Mass, many relatives and friends gathered for a sumptuous dinner consisting of barbecued ham, potato salad, broccoli and rice, green bean casserole, cole slaw, orange jello-salad-and-pies-and-cakes.

The honoree received many lovely gifts for her achievement and upon leaving, guests congratulated her for a job well done.

Upon Jonna's arrival, she was presented with a beautiful orchid corsage. Jonna's mother, Mrs. Sharon Webb, and mother of the groom, Mrs. Rita Brown, were also presented with corsages.

After opening many lovely and useful gifts, the guests were served delicious refreshments.

Hostesses were Janet Schuler, Fae Cook, Judy Reese, Lydia Apple, Lydia Engstrom, Glenda Eberhart and Sandra Benge. Their gift to Jonna was the platter to her selected china.
