

1983 Colorado County Fair poster contest rules

Listed below are the contest rules for the 1983 Colorado County Fair Poster Contest. They are:

1. Any student from grades K through high school (next school year) attending any Colorado County school is eligible.
2. Size of poster should be full size, 22"x28" or half size, 14"x22".
3. Posters should be done in color, using crayon, felt tip markers, tempera, etc.
4. No tracing.
5. These three things must appear on the front of the poster: Colorado County Fair, September 16-18, Columbus, Texas.
6. Subject matter to choose from can be any of the following: livestock, art, quilting, canning, music, dancing, queen's contest, children's bazaar, parade, carnival, rodeo, contests or any other Fair activity.
7. Put your name, address, phone number and school grade on the back of your poster. No name may appear on the front.
8. Deadline for posters is June 10.
9. Judging will take place at your local library during the summer.
10. Categories will be divided into kindergarten, third, fourth-fifth, junior high (seventh-eighth) and senior high school.
11. A $5 cash award and rosette will be presented to the poster selected Best of Show in each category.

Others will receive first, second and third place ribbons or honorable mentions along with a free ride token to the carnival.

12. Winning posters will be kept through the Fair. Others may be picked up at your library after judging.

13. The purpose of the contest is to promote the County Fair. Students are asked to display their poster with a local business until the end of the Fair. Students are responsible for picking up their own poster.

14. The poster committee reserves the right to display the winning posters together.

For further information contact Lois Raabe at 234-5015.

AARP hears program on museum pieces

A.A.R.P. chapter 1035 met at 2:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the First Methodist Church on May 4. J. J. Armstrong presided over the meeting. Eva Marshall opened the meeting with prayer. The salute to the flag was repeated in unison. Members enjoyed singing the chapter song led by Elizabeth Boothe accompanied on the piano by Tullie Anderson, and also members with birthdays in May were honored in song. Gladys Gold read the minutes of the last meeting. Ed Schindler gave the financial report.

The chapter was happy to have Rev. Ray Widacki, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church, as a visitor and welcomed Mrs. Ed (Ruby) Schindler as a new member.

Elizabeth Boothe gave a very interesting program on "Museum Pieces," and spoke about plans for having a local museum to inform and preserve the history of this area. Antiques were brought by Mrs. Boothe, Marie Renken, Tullie Anderson, Dora Larsen, R. J. and Lila Armstrong. Each person gave some background on the article brought. Mrs. Larsen brought the oldest article, which was a ship captain's medical kit that is 100 years old. Esther Sunderman dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Delicious refreshments were served under the supervision of Rose Lange. Our appreciation to Esther Sunderman for the very last homemade cookies. Community service hours totaled 384 hours for the month of May.

All members are urged to attend the next meeting on June 1 for a covered dish dinner at noon, and a game period following. Visitors are welcome.

The chapter was saddened by the death of beloved member, Mrs. Gladys Pidgeon.

Reported by Lila Armstrong

Gaye Lynn Thomas receives degree at Sam Houston

Gaye Lynn Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Thomas of Eagle Lake, received her Bachelor of Arts-Teaching degree from Sam Houston University during the 1983 spring semester.

Community garage sale, flea market June 3, 4 in Sheridan

A community Garage Sale, Craft and Flea Market is being planned for June 3 and 4 in the Sheridan Community Center.

Individuals and groups are invited to contact Diana Wunderlich at 234-2055 or Mary Ashley at 234-3969 for more information concerning space.

Mrs. Wunderlich is now offering free lessons in floral arrangement during the month of June. This is a community-minded endeavor and there will be no charge for the lessons.

1400 days of consecutive attendance

Miss Bonnie Bengel, left, and Miss Bianca Cantu, right, are pictured receiving their 4-year perfect attendance awards from Principal Major Bengel. These two young ladies have never missed a day of school while at Eagle Lake Primary School. Each girl has attended a total of 700 days since enrolling in kindergarten.

Perfect attendance awards at ELPS

The following students had perfect attendance at the Eagle Lake Primary School for the 1982-83 school year:

Kindergarten: Kimberly Henske, Erlinda Navarro, Christina Rodriguez and Annette McTeer.

First Grade: Christopher Almanza, Kelly Chamberlain, Alejandro Gonzalez, Jason Jones, Irma Mendoza, Kay Moss, Alma Puga, Ernest Sims and Rhonda Sataky.

Second Grade: John Hodde, Lina Rodriguez, Rosendo Tavera, Kandiemarie Almanza, Conrad Betancourt, Brad Mullins, Thomas Pavlovic, Kelli Walker, Martha Castillo, Belinda Navarro, Erika Trevino and Bertha Tavera.

Third Grade: Maribel Garcia, Eloisa Rangel, Brenda Rodriguez, Guadalupe Rodriguez, Jimmy Sosa, Viola Trevino, Manuel Villalobos, Bonnie Bengel, Rosey Carroll, Jacqueline McGrew, Silvia Trevino, Delia Valdez, Becky Avery, Stacy Betancourt, Jaime Rosendo Tavera, Kandiemarie Almanza, and Laura Rodriguez.

Primary school visits library

Mrs. June Pirtle is pictured telling Eagle Lake Primary School pupils about the upcoming summer library program. The entire campus toured the library, saw a film, and received a bookmark to use at school.

The dancers pictured left to right in the back row are Isabelle Samora, Matthew Gunn and Delia Valdez; in the middle is Rosey Carroll; and front row consists of Laura Rodriguez and Lorrie Romo.

Primary school has fiesta

Last Monday and Tuesday the Eagle Lake Primary School gym took on the atmosphere of Old Mexico. The children, dressed in traditional Mexican costumes and music were the order of the day. The pupils sang and danced to old favorite Spanish songs and were treated to tortillas, punch and cookies at the conclusion of the fiesta.

Sheridan School honors students, awards diplomas

The end of school in Sheridan not only meant eighth graders were certified for graduation to Rice High School, but honors students earned throughout the year were awarded:

Honor Roll students for each six-week grading period were awarded a plaque marking their achievements. They are: Kelly Ashley, Tracy Rodriguez, Phelan Scott, Bodette Vavrusa, John Carey, Joshua Grahamman, Aaron Machac, Kori Klein, Louis Esparza, David Murphy, Raymond Ford, Lareina Pence, David Murphy, John Carey, Joshua Grahamman, Denise Soape, Lara Dupre, Dionne Glover, Tracy Klein, Shannon Pustovsky and Steven Antrich.

Kindergarten students received their diplomas on May 17 after completing their first year. Miss Annie Kossa was the teacher.

Account established at bank for Bill Taylor Memorial Fund

An account at the First National Bank has been established for the Bill Taylor Memorial Fund.

The fund was set up to buy a Coulter Counter for the laboratory at the hospital. The total cost for this machine is $10,000.

So far, the fund has a total amount of $824 that was donated. If you would like to contribute to this worthy cause, please call Don Riste at the hospital at 234-5571, extension 211. Your support is appreciated.

29 on Garwood honor roll list

Twenty-nine students earned a place on the Garwood School honor roll for the final grading period of the 1982-83 school year. They are:

First Grade: Misty Crane, Sara Eggemeyer, Sam Mader and Mandy Priesmeyer.

Second Grade: Sophronie Anderson, Will Atkins, Kendrick Henderson, Ramiro Hernandez, Jr., Jill Janish, Melanie Labay, Ragen Stienke and Jennifer Weid.

Third Grade: Lisa Dromgoole.

Fourth Grade: Bobby Horch, Rachel Weishuh and Anessa Williams.

Fifth Grade: Brad Baumgarten, Cynthia Engstrom, Laura Hernandez, Dawn Horndt, Russell Labay and Lezli Schilling.

Sixth Grade: None.

Seventh Grade: Vanessa Casarez, Jennifer Mader and Danette Pagel.

Eighth Grade: Melissa Engstrom, Bill Hefner, Kelli Lanier and Kelly Salazar.

Family Night on the Square, auction rescheduled June 3

Family Night on the Square and the auction at the Magnolia Homes Tour were scheduled for last Friday and Saturday, but due to the rain and bad weather the county had it cancelled. Last Sunday a large crowd attended and proved very successful.

Family Night on the Square and the auction have been rescheduled for Friday, June 3 starting at 5 p.m. There will be kiddie rides, games, a hamburger supper, beer garden and live entertainment at 8 p.m. An auction benefiting the Opera House.

Everyone is urged to come out and help restore the Opera House.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ruesewald, Jr., of Garwood, and a junior at Subiaco Academy, was among the students recognized during the graduation ceremonies held at the 96-year-old Arkansas college preparatory school on May 14.

He was awarded the silver medal for accomplishment in Music, and was recognized for his participation in religious activities during the past school year.

Donald Ruesewald, son of Mr. and Mrs.