Corman and Pagel named to 3A District 24 All-District baseball team

The 1983 all-district baseball team for 3A District 24 has been announced with Rice Raiders seniors Dwayne Pagel and Troy Corman named to the team.

Pagel, a unanimous selection, was catcher and pitcher for the Raiders. Corman played first base and pitcher.

Senior Alex Ramirez and junior Mark Munoz received honorable mention.

Other all-district selections were Brent Vasut, Jody Supak, Darrell Morbe, Craig Prause and Danny Tamez of La Grange; Stanley Faldyn, Ricky Noska, Robert Neuendorf, and John Neuendorf of Columbus; Jesse Bain and Mark Novakosky of Waller; John Burtschell and Jimbo Janczek of Sealy; Jeff Dungen and Brian Porter of Bellville and Darrell Cooke of Hempstead.

Corman and Pagel were members of the 1983 Raider team which ended the season with a 7-7 district record. After getting off to a slow start, losing their first five games, Coach Mark Faldyn's Raiders bounced back to win five in a row. They later defeated Waller and received a forfeit from Hempstead to end the season at 7-7.

The team season batting average was .255 with a district average of .279.

Leading Raider batting for 1983 with 25 or more times at bat were Corman with a .414 district average, Dwayne Pagel with a .382, Mark Munoz with a .345, Alex Ramirez with a .296 and Felix Soto with a .287.

Lakers rained out in Seniors

The Senior Boys hardball league which is made up of boys ages 13 to 15 is well into play this season. In the first game last Monday the Eagle Lake Lakers lost to the Columbus Blue Jays by six runs. The score was 14-8.

On Friday the tables turned and the Lakers beat the Blue Jays 12-10. Pitcher for last Monday's game was Jeff Marquart and pitcher for Friday's game was Florencio Ramos.

This week the Lakers were rained out. Coaches for the senior league are Mark Faldyn and Joe Salazar.

Ace on No. 4 highlights golf tournament

A hole-in-one on the par 3 hole number four on Saturday morning highlighted this weekend's partnership golf tournament at the Eagle Lake Recreation Center.

The ace was scored by Richard Vestal of Houston using an eight iron.

With play divided into the usual five flights, winners in each flight were awarded prizes ranging from woods and irons, to golf bags and golf balls.

Winner in the championship flight was the team of Conrad Broussard and Gary Sellers, shooting a 62 on Saturday and a 65 on Sunday, for the two-day total of 127, 13 under par. The low-ball tournament originally was scheduled two weeks ago, but was rained out. Although participation this weekend was good, about 14 teams had to drop out because of conflicts with this weekend's date.

However, the course was in excellent shape and the weather was no problem either day.

Vestal was on the course with Don Champion, Danny James and J. C. Mosier. He said it was the first ace he had ever scored. The ball hit about three feet in front of the flag, then rolled into the hole.

Honey Bees, Eagles tied for first in softball

Last Monday's game between the Honey Bees and the Red Sox brought a whopping 51-1 win for the Honey Bees. The lone run for the Red Sox to prevent a shutout came in the third inning.

Shalanda was the pitcher for the Honey Bees and Jeanette, Rita and Melissa pitched for the Red Sox. The Red Sox committed four errors while the Honey Bees committed only one. Outstanding hitting was accomplished by Wendy who plays for the Honey Bees. She managed two homers and a two-base hit.

The Fillies vs the Eagles provided a much closer game. The Fillies were ahead until the bottom of the fourth inning when the Eagles brought in 13 runs to bring the score to 14-9. The fifth brought no runs for the Fillies and only one for the Eagles. When the Fillies only managed four runs in the bottom of the sixth before their three outs, the Eagles took the game 15-13.

Winning pitcher for the Eagles was Charlene who pitched three strike-outs, four base on balls and allowed four hits. Lakeshia pitched the first three innings for the Fillies; Jackie was pitcher for the Fillies; she was relieved by Tricia in the fourth and Sandra pitched the fifth. The Eagles committed a total of eight errors while the Fillies only committed three.

Hitters for the Fillies were Sandra (2 for 4 including a double), Dana (2 for 4), and Becky (1 for 4). Eagles hitters were Kim (2 for 3 including a double), Lakeshia (2 for 4), Amy (2 for 4), and Kimberly (1 for 4, a double).

The Eagles and Honey Bees and the Fillies and Red Sox met in action Monday evening and will play again tonight beginning at 7:30 with the Eagles vs the Honey Bees and at 8:30 with the Fillies vs Red Sox.
