Morgan, Wostarek married in Columbus

Saint Anthony's Catholic Church in Columbus was the setting for the wedding of Miss Pamela Kaye Morgan of Eagle Lake and Anthony Stephen Wostarek of Columbus on Saturday afternoon, June 4, at three o'clock. The Rev. Brian P. Crookes officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Morgan of Eagle Lake. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Wostarek of Columbus and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. Munsch of Fayetteville.

Three arrangements of pink and burgundy roses flanked the altar. Leroy Stein was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of chantilly lace. The lace bodice which featured a sweetheart neckline, was accented with a ruffle of illusion held by a cap of silk roses. A short string of pearls on the bride's grandmother veil were entwined in the roses. She carried a cascade of burgundy, pink and white silk roses.

Dorothy Morgan of New Orleans served her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were De Le Lyn Valente, Marilyn Mahalic and Geri Wilson of Eagle Lake, and Rhonda Young of Sheridan, all friends of the bride.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with tails and a burgundy rose boutonniere. The groom's cake was a rectangular chocolate confection with a car design in the center. All three cakes were iced in white with pink roses.

The groomsmen wore silver gray tuxedos with white shirts and white ties. The ushers wore a silver gray tuxedo with a black vest and pants and a white shirt. The ushers were Robert and Jimmy Morgan from Eagle Lake, George Morgan of Taft, brothers of the bride, and Gary Winkle of Columbus, friend of the groom.

Four cosmetology students earn licenses

On June 6, seven girls from the Rice High School cosmetology department went to Austin to take their state board examination to become licensed beauticians.

The girls were required to bring a model to demonstrate the verbal part of the exam which included scalp manipulating, manicuring, facials, bleach, retouching, virgin tinting, chemical relaxing, shampooing, hair cutting, perm rolling, and final styling. After the verbal exam the girls took a written exam consisting of 100 questions.

The girls and their models were: Suzanne Pakkus, accompanied by Mrs. Gahmann; Lynn Ishee and Mrs. Kemper; Tracy Soape and Mrs. Diane Scott; Priscilla Dabney and Nelsie Sanford; Patty Woods and Marshall McFar; Karen Adams and Mrs. Diane Wunderlich; and Belinda Cavazos and Tisha Saucedo.

Out of the seven girls, four came home with their licenses. They are Lynn Ishee, Tracy Soape, Suzanne Pakkus, and Priscilla Dabney.

Webb, Bowen nuptials

In a 4 p.m. ceremony on Saturday, June 18, Jenna Webb and Wayne Bowen were united in marriage at the First Baptist Church in Eagle Lake. Rev. Paul Krupicka of the Grace Lutheran Church and Rev. Melburn Sibley of the First Baptist Church, both in Eagle Lake, performed the ceremony.

The altar was surrounded by arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and flanked with candelabra entwined with greenery. The entrance to the altar was flanked with ferns and baskets of spring flowers.

Clara May Nash was the organist for the wedding. Scott Neal, cousin of the bride from Jasper, Texas, sang "Truly, My Sweet Lady," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bouffant silhouette gown designed with a Queen Anne neckline. The bishop sleeves had chintilly lace ruffles above tapered cuffs. The neckline and bodice were trimmed with Venice lace and the skirt was embellished with tiers of chintilly lace.

A tiered cathedral-length train fell from a satin sash. She wore a fingertip-length veil of imported white illusion bordered with matching lace which was secured with a Juliet cap.

Karen Rucka attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sharri Webb, the bride's sister; Becky Bengo, Leslie Harrison, and Carolyn Baird, sister of the groom, all of Eagle Lake; Laurie Bubela of Nada; Terry Bishop, cousin of the bride of El Campo, and Lori Terrell of Boling.

The bridal attendants wore formal gowns of various pastel colors of the rainbow. They were fashioned with stand-up necklines with front and back yokes and shoulder ruffles of lace which created a capelet effect. The slipper-length skirts were accented with gentle pleats. They carried bouquets of flowers which matched their dresses.

Bridget Baird, the groom's niece and Gretchen Schnurpel, the bride's cousin from El Campo, were the flower girls. Brent Schneider of Garwood was the ring bearer.

Larry Bowen of Conroe served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were John Schneider of Garwood, David Grammer, David Baird, the groom's brother-in-law, John Grammer, Randy Epps, Jeff Fruka, and Trey Kell, all of Eagle Lake.

Ushers were Michael Schorlemmer, the bride's cousin, Robby Cook of Eagle Lake, and Kenny Hyek of Nada. Troy Webb, the bride's brother, was the candlelighter.

Following the ceremony, a reception, dinner, and dance were held at the Eagle Lake Community Center. The houseparty included Janet Schorlemmer, the bride's cousin, Glenda Schnurpel, the bride's aunt of El Campo, Karen Schneider of Nada, Lisa Corman, Roxanne Ripper, Melissa Hoffman, all of Eagle Lake, Vickie Eberhart of Brenham, and Samantha Schnurpel, the bride's cousin from El Campo.

The wedding cake was a beautiful tiered white cake topped with two white satin balls. It was decorated with yellow tulle water. The groom's chocolate cake was decorated with a Dallas Cowboy theme by the bride's mother.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Webb of Eagle Lake. She graduated from Rice High School in May and is employed as a dental assistant.

Wayne Bowen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowen of Eagle Lake. He graduated from Rice High School in 1981 and is employed by Laker Printing in Eagle Lake.

After a trip to San Antonio, the couple will reside in Eagle Lake.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowen, parents of the groom, at the First Baptist Church, on the evening of June 17.

Following the dinner, Jenna and Wayne presented gifts to their attendants.

A miscellaneous shower was given Tuesday night, June 21, at the home of Mrs. Wayne Bowen, in El Campo at the home of Mrs. Garrison Farrar.

Hostesses were Yerna Tarver, Judy Hunter, Glenda Schnurpel and Mrs. Farrar.

A cake decorated with wedding bells and pastel rainbow trim was made by the bride's aunt, Glenda Schnurpel. It was served from a table centered with a pastel flower arrangement.

The hostesses gave the honoree a bride's cake knife and server.

Approximately 30 guests attended the party. Included were the honoree's mother, Sharon Webb of Eagle Lake; her grandmother, Johnnie Schnurpel of El Campo; her future groom's mother, Rita Bowen; his sister, Carolyn Baird, and Jenna's maid of honor, Karen Rucka, all of Eagle Lake.

Kitty I. Thomas of Eagle Lake, sophomore computing science major, has earned "Distinguished Student" status at Texas A&M University.

Recipients of the "Distinguished Student" honor must earn at least a 3.25 grade point ratio, out of a possible 4.0, during the most recent grading period.

Sunshine class meets at Larson home

The Sunshine class met in the home of Nellie Larson. Six members answered roll call with a bible verse. Ophelia Raabe gave the devotional and presided at the business meeting that followed.

A card was signed and sent to Mattie Barnett, who now lives with her daughter in La Porte.

Hazel Havens led the study, "Prayer in Secret." Jesus prayed in secret many times and we will find that mystery is the power of secrecy in prayer.

Nellie served delicious ham salad, sandwiches, yogurt flip, cheetos, cookies and iced tea.

Our July meeting will be at the home of Hazel Havens with a covered dish luncheon.

AARP chapter 1035 met at noon in the fellowship hall of the First Methodist Church on June 1, for a beautiful covered dish dinner under the supervision of Rose Lange.

It was enjoyed by 32 members, including visitors Max and Mrs. Bill Emmel, Ada Ward, Elenora and Gus Schobel, and Edna Mascheck.

A short business session followed. Rose Lange presided in the absence of R. J. Armstrong. Gladys Gold read the minutes of the last meeting. Ed Schindler gave the financial report. The salute to the flag was repeated in union.

Patriotic songs were led by Elizabeth Booche, accompanied by Tule Anderson on the piano.

A time of fellowship and games was enjoyed by a number of members. R. J. and Lila Armstrong attended the annual Texas Senior Games in Arlington at the University of Texas in May. They participated in a number of events, namely checkers, washers, bowling, walk-a-thon, basketball free throw, and the 50 yard dash. Mrs. Armstrong was awarded medallions for placing second in the basketball free throw and for placing third in the 50 yard dash in her age group.

On June 6 the Armstrongs attended a seminar at the Marriott at the astrodomo on "serving on boards and commissions."

Nineteen members attended the district meeting on June 16 in Brenham at the Sons of Herman Hall. They were privileged to hear former speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, Gus Mencher, who is now Washington County judge.

He also spoke at a number of years with the DeMolay Boys Club. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Beatrice Thomas is a past patron of the Order of Eastern Star and past president of the DeMolay Mother's Club. She also has done volunteer work with the Red Cross.

"We all join together and hope that everyone will come and help us celebrate at noon on September 7, for a covered dish dinner and game party."

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Thomas Sr., residents of Eagle Lake for more than 20 years and now residing in Alvin, are publicly inviting all their friends to help them celebrate their 50 years of marriage.

The golden wedding anniversary will be held July 3 at the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church on South Street in Alvin. Open house will be held from 2:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m.

In lieu of gifts, the couple asks that donations be given to the Shriner's Burn Institute in Galveston.

For Queen

Vicky Hernandez, candidate for the reign of Guadalupe Parish Queen, is raising money for the Guadalupe Picnic, held August 21. On July 3, she will have a bake sale after the 10:30 mass and the 6 p.m. mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. She will also raffie a lamp to help Guadalupe. Those wishing to support her may do so by donating to collections at local stores, and by contributing to the bake sale and raffie. Your help will be greatly appreciated.
