Match air conditioning
BTU rating to home size—
and save money!

You'll be money ahead—and more comfortable, too—if your central air conditioning unit has the right capacity for your house.

The cooling capacity of an air conditioner is measured in BTUs. If the unit you choose has too small a capacity, it will run too long and still not cool your home efficiently. If its capacity is too large, you'll be uncomfortable because the unit won't run long enough in each cooling cycle to remove excess moisture from the air. In addition, you'll pay more than necessary for the equipment.

You also can save money on operating costs by selecting a model with an EER (Energy Efficiency Ratio) or SEER (Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio) of 8 or more. Air conditioning with a high EER/SEER is engineered to operate more efficiently, and will deliver more cooling for your electricity dollar.

Air conditioning represents a sizable investment, so be sure you've found the unit best for your home energy needs. If you're going to build a new home, or replace an existing unit, check with the people at CPL.

Justice Department OKs redistricting

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Labor Unions

One group that already has decided on its game plan for the coming election year is Texas labor. Last week the Texas AFL-CIO leadership endorsed State Sen. Lloyd Doggett of Austin, a liberal, for the U.S. Senate race against John Tower. News that the unions endorsed Doggett over conservative-moderate Sen. Royce Williams of Bay City, Texas, drew a sharp response from the federal executive branch. However, House redistricting chairman Rep. Tom Uher of Bay City believes a Mexican-American legal group will appeal the ruling in federal court.

If that's the case, the group is about the last of the redistricting combatants still on their feet. Most participants are sick and tired of the three-year-old battle which has been hashed and reshaped in courtrooms, backrooms and committee rooms.

No one group particularly likes the plan, but most political groups are anxious to get on with the election year politicking.

Products

Mattox has blamed his problems on "big oil" which he claims wants him out of the way.

Mobil Oil

Mattox says Mobil Oil wants his scalp because he is pressuring the company to settle a $1.67 billion lawsuit to "help the school-children of Texas."

Only labor unions have shown any interest in supporting the boycott, and aren't worried about the possibility of a boycott of their products.

The Permanent School Fund, which funds Texas public schools, has about 1.7 million shares of Mobil stock, worth about $51 million.

Senate Race

Krueger has been regarded as the Democratic front-runner to challenge Republican incumbent U.S. Sen. John Tower, but the loss of the union endorsement last week with not the only scratch he received. Krueger, a former ambassador to Mexico, has strong Hispanic support among the Democrats, but last week the National Hispanic Chamber of Commerce endorsed Tower. The group's president also indicated he supports Reagan and wants the President to appoint a Hispanic to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Federal Election Commission reports show Tower leading both Krueger and Doggett in fundraising, which surprised no one, but Doggett showed up on paper with more money in his campaign fund than Krueger—about $100,000 more.

Krueger Weds

Krueger's mind, no doubt, has been more on his wedding, which occurred in San Antonio last week, than on the political race. Reported as the social and political event of the season, the groom's lineup read like a political Who's Who of Texas Democrats including groomsmen Land Commissioner Garry Mauro and political strategist Roy Spence.

While, both Democrats and Republicans at the helm of their parties are planning ways to garner the minority vote in Texas. The chairman of the Black Republican Council of Texas is helping the GOP win black votes, and the Democrats have launched a massive voter registration project aimed strongly at valley Hispanics. Democratic Party chairman Bob Slagle said the project will cost about $300,000 and will add 500,000 new Democrats to the rolls in time for the '84 elections.

project will cost about $300,000 and will add 500,000 new Democrats to the rolls in time for the '84 elections.

State Republican chairman George Strake said recently the GOP also plans a registration drive to add about the same number to the Republican flock.
