Alpha Delta Phi sorority receives 3 star rating

On August 27 the Alpha Delta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Vicki Powers, 1983-84 president. The meeting was called to order by the president. Thank you notes were read from the Eagle Lake Little League for donations received from the sorority and from Sue Causey and Gail Guthman for the dinners they received when they brought home their new babies.

It was announced that Alpha Delta Phi received a three-star rating. A lovely yearbook was presented to past president, Mary Ann Wood, made by Lana Dulany. Janice Obenhaus gave out new inserts for notebooks. Ways and Means committee reported they would have three money making projects. They are going to sell tickets for a trip to the Chamber of Commerce booth sale down town and hold a finger printing clinic for small children.

Social committee announced to have a luncheon at the Tea Room in Sealy September 24. After the meeting, refreshments were served and everyone had a dip in Vicki's pool.

September 6 meeting On September 6, the meeting was called to order by the president, Vicki Powers. Minutes were read by Jennifer Obenhaus and approved. Melody Grigar gave the program on child fitness. She demonstrated several procedures to use to teach your pre-schoolers coordination. She stressed the main ingredients of a good program are patience, persistence, variety of games and, most of all, fun. May Ann Wood read thank you notes from the Eagle Lake hospital and Asapulo, parties for donations they received from the sorority. Candy McCreary remembered members to bring their items for this week's county fair downtown.

Jacalyn Ashby presented the idea of giving each new mother at the Eagle Lake hospital an infant t-shirt instead of tray favors. It was also discussed to have members dress up as clowns and go to the Heritage House and hospital to visit once a month.

Meeting was adjourned and hostess Janice Obenhaus served a tasty chicken and broccoli casserole with a fruit salad.
