President Diana Brunner read notes of thanks from Karen Rucka, the recipient of the sorority scholarship, and from Jean Williams for the yellow rose received while in the hospital.

Mary Lou Scymanski discussed that cards will be sent to residents of the Heritage House by members as a service project.

The upcoming Lion's Carnival and Parade on October 1, includes plans of the chapter sweetheart, Cherry Corman and sorority clowns as parade entries. Pat Cook suggested a horseshoe pitching contest, with trophies presented to the winning teams, as a Carnival event.

Ernie Sommerlieste reminded members to contact citizens for the annual community birthday calendar. The price will remain at $4 and September 27 is the deadline for sales.

Jo Ann Mahalite reported the garage sale on the square was a success. The proceeds are planned to go toward the purchase of new drapes for the Community Center.

According to a chapter tradition, Jane Clipson passed candy to members announcing the anticipation of becoming a grandparent.

Guest speaker for the evening was Coleen Zimmerhansel, owner of The Custom Shoppe. She presented an informative program on "Window Treatment and Wall Decorating."
