

Plenty to see and do!

Whether you liked the entertainment, the special food booths, or riding the ferris wheel, there was plenty to do at the fair, the Eagle Lake Volunteer Fire Department and the Eagle Lake Knights of Columbus were only two of the many food booths; Saturday afternoon on the stage outside the Armory, the

Garwood, Nada area teams take Go-Texan honors

The entrants from the Garwood and Nada areas of Colorado County were most successful in Sunday's Go-Texan events, and didn't let a little rain dampen their spirits. Although the rain forced cancellation of the hay hauling event, the midway of the fair was exciting for the barbecue cook-off and the horseshoe pitching. Winners are: Barbecue cookoff: The team named grand champion open winner as well as the Colorado County grand champion were the Nada Knights of Columbus, with team members Kenneth Leopold, Chris Leopold, Rudy Till III, Roy Till, Lawrence LaBay Jr., and Donald Leopold.

Reserve champion open winner was the Bumper Crop Cookers team of Ed Lee Schneider, Jimmy Schoellmann, Frank Popp and N. J. Schneider.

Reserve champion Colorado County winner was the El Dorado Social Club team of Floyd Welsch, Jerry Janish and C. C. Bradford.

The grand champion team in the Most Colorful judging was the Ole Time Cookers team of Boudreaux Waligura, Mark Boenisch, Kenneth Crane, Frank Staff, Rudy Dell Jr., Bill Bailey and Gary Crane. Reserve champion in the open division judging for Most Colorful was the Nada Hoboes team of Vic Hyek, Guy Popp, Philip Urbanovsky and Leonard Staff.

Reserve Colorado County champion in most colorful was the Blackland Farmers team of Frederick Leopold, Albert Bittner, Ernie Gens and Herbert Popp, with help from Joe Seifert and Arthur Leopold.

Horseshoe pitching
Eddie Balusek and Mark Boenisch of Garwood won two championships in the Go-Texan horseshoe pitching contest. They were named grand champions both in the Colorado County division as well as the open division.

Reserve Colorado County horseshoe champion is the team of Jamar Rios and John Rios of Columbus.

To Compete in Houston

The grand champions in the Colorado County division of both contests won the right to compete in the Go-Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo next year, representing Colorado County. Teams were limited to members who live in the county.

Gasless

If you'll believe that, you'll believe anything. Leonard Staff leans over the pot to demonstrate his technique of venting the beans through a string attached to the wooden stick. At least it added to their points on winning reserve champion for most colorful.
