Invitation also extended to Mrs. Santa Claus.

Santa Claus to visit here on December 10

Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce directors, in a well-attended monthly session at Sportsman's Restaurant on Monday of last week, joined the City of Eagle Lake in protesting Greyhound Bus Lines' application to discontinue service to this community; reviewed successful entries in the Colorado County Fair; and started plans for the annual Christmas Parade and visit by Santa Claus on December 10th.

The chamber expects increased interest in the annual visit of Santa Claus to the community, by extending an invitation to Mrs. Santa Claus as well as the parade and visitation session here on Saturday, December 10th. It will be the first time for Mrs. Santa Claus to come to Eagle Lake and she will join Santa in visiting with the children and distributing gifts from 2 to 4 p.m. on December 10.

The directors also voted to change the gift packages this year to include a Christmas Fun and Coloring Book as well as specially prepared candies. Plans are being made to distribute one thousand of the packets.

Information and parade entries for the parade to precede Santa's visit are being mailed this week by the chamber. The parade will begin at 1:30 p.m. and the chamber hopes that entries will follow the Santa Claus or Christmas theme. Several bands are expected to attend, as well as a number of local and out of town floats, marching units, decorated vehicles and others.

President Mahalite is serving as general chairman of the parade and she invites all civic clubs, churches, individuals and businesses to have entries in the parade. In addition to Santa Claus' visitation, plans are being made for a number of food and entertainment booths on month memberships to new businesses and also to some businesses in the community which have never been members. These will be handled through the membership committee, Mrs. Liz Waddell, chairperson.

They will also make suggestions for making changes and improvements.

During this first meeting, Mrs. Joyce Davison was elected chairperson and Miss Tracy Soape, secretary. The curriculum, disciplinary procedures, adult education, and the FHA/HERO organization were discussed.

Participants offered comments and asked questions. Other members attending were Mrs. Mary Yanez, Mrs. Esther Fitzgerald, Dr. and Mrs. Russell Thomas, D. R. Wright, and Billy Harrison. Homemaking teachers conducting the meeting were Diana Wunderlich, Dorothy White and Jewel Coreathers.

Historical Commission has regular meeting September 22

The Colorado County Historical Commission met on September 22, 1983 for its regular meeting at 7:00 p.m. at Caroleta, the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Halla.

A covered dish dinner was served and the regular business meeting was held. Mrs. James Hopkins, president presiding.

Henry Radack explained that he has re-mapped Odd Fellow's Rest Cemetery.

Approximately 2,500 names have been indexed with cross reference so that a grave site may be located immediately.

Mrs. Halla presented the program on stenciling of homes by early settlers. Using slides, she told of restoration of her home which was built in the early 1880's, and is an excellent example of stenciling.

The next meeting will be in November.
