

October 9-15, Fire Prevention Week

October 9-15, 1983, is Fire Prevention Week in Colorado County and across the nation, with the theme "LEARN NOT TO BURN ALL THROUGH THE YEAR." According to Leon Hattermann, president of the Colorado County Farm Bureau, home fires disable and kill thousands of Americans each year, yet there are many precautions that can be taken to prevent a fire from starting. To avoid or reduce fire loss, Hattermann recommends these tips from the National Safety Council:

- Keep unnecessary flammable and combustible materials out of your home.
- Install smoke detectors outside the bedrooms in your home on the ceiling or high on the wall. Check the batteries of the detectors at least once each month.
- Keep matches and lighters away from small children. Make sure you completely extinguish a cigar or cigarette when you finish smoking it.
- Equip your home and other building property with fire extinguishers. It's also a good idea to mount them on tractors, trucks and combines.
- Develop a home fire escape plan. Designate a primary and secondary escape route from every room in the house. Remember, your first priority is to leave the house as soon as possible.

County Agent's Notebook

Fall armyworms left uncontrolled can wipe out entire lawns and cause heavy damage to pastures. While fall armyworms have been light this year, the pests of late increase following a local or general rain. They prefer to feed on well-fertilized lawns and other lush grasses.

We suggest frequent and careful inspections to locate infestations before extensive damage occurs. Control measures are most effective against young larvae (worms).

Fall armyworms hatch from eggs laid by ash gray moths with mottled forewings which have irregular white or light gray spots near the extreme tip. Young larvae are white with black heads. They become darker in color as they grow older and can devour forages and lawn grasses.

Larvae are about 1-1½ inches long at maturity and light gray to almost black in color with several light stripes along the body. The front of the worm's head is marked with an inverted "Y".

Worms are full grown in two to three weeks and then burrow an inch or two into the soil to pupate. Moths emerge 10 days to two weeks later and the cycle repeats. There may be as many as six generations a year, and it is common to find various sizes of larvae infesting pastures at any one time.

Pesticides labeled for control of fall armyworms in lawns are carbaryl (Sevin 80 percent wettable powder and Sevin XLR), Malathion and Diazinon (Spectracide). Use sufficient water for complete coverage. Also, read the insecticide label for rates and follow all directions, instructions and restrictions.

Eagle Lake girl elected student officer

Leanne Smith of Eagle Lake is one of seven Texas A&I University accounting and electronic data processing majors who have been elected officers of the student accounting society for 1983-84.

Leanne, a senior, was elected corresponding secretary. Susan Sales, a Kingville junior, is president and Arnold Kent, a junior from McAllen, is vice president.

Sinton's Maria Soja Gonzales, also a junior, is treasurer. Lucy Chavera, a junior from Alice, is recording secretary. Lubbock senior Maria Hill is reporter and Albert Robledo, a senior from Pearsall, is parliamentarian.

Dr. Virgil Stone, professor of accounting and electronic data processing, serves as the group's advisor.

Tice earns second certificate for holding 4.0 grade average

Bertice Lee (Bert) Tice has received another honors certificate from Texas A&M University. The certificate is given to students earning "A" grades in 12 hours of course work.

Those receiving certificates were sponsored by Dr. Cross, director of the university's Honors Program, and presented by Dr. R. H. Page, dean of engineering. Of the 1,000 students in the honors program, 34 received certificates. Fifteen of the students are in the engineering department.

Bert, and his roommate Gerald Grafe, were two of the three students who received their second certificate. Both men are holding 4.0 grade point averages in electrical engineering and are juniors this year.

Bert also received a Dean's Honor Award during the summer. This is for completing the spring semester of 1983 with a 3.75 grade point average or better. His was a 4.0.

Bert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Tice, were at the university last Friday for the awards presentation.
