Thespian Club discusses dinner theatre program

By: Vicki Hernandez

The Thespian Club met for the second time during the first period in the meeting room on October 6. The meeting was called to order by Cathy Lanyon, president, and the roll was called by Valerie Bengel, secretary. In addition, Freddy Hernandez, treasurer, stated the balance was still $169. And Secretary Bengel read the minutes.

The first order of business was the adoption of a t-shirt logo which will be paid by the club dues. Next, the members adopted the constitution and decided to also get Thespian pins for all the members. Thespian "letter" will automatically be given to the seniors each year.

Kristine Carpenter, historian, was then recognized and Leonard Perry was chosen to assist her as club photographer.

Last on the agenda was the discussion of the Dinner Theatre to be held December 8. The dinner theatre will be held in the Commons at Rice High School at 6 p.m. Adult tickets will cost $7.50 and children will be $5. The committee and their chairmen were also chosen.

Before the closing of the meeting President Lanyon briefly gave a speech about the club's participation and winning attitudes. The meeting was then adjourned.

Rice High School student council to sponsor booth at Garwood Fair

By: Roxanne Ripper

The Rice High School Student Council held their third meeting October 5 during third period in the meeting room.

The first order of business was roll call and the reading of the minutes by recording secretary, Roxanne Ripper. Then, treasurer, Stacey Holden reported on the balance of the council's funds.

President Shorter reminded the council members that the District Convention would be on October 24 in Sealy. He told the council the price of the meal and the time they would be leaving Rice to go to the convention. President Shorter then informed the members that the Rice Student Council would be responsible for the flag ceremony at the convention.

The office these students hold require responsibility and a leadership quality. With these fine leaders, the Business Club is in for another profitable year.

Next, the council voted on whether they wanted to have the same t-shirts as they had last year or get new ones. Voting democratically, they decided to keep the same t-shirts as last year.

The Garwood Lions Club Fair was the next topic of discussion. The council was informed that the project of helium balloons was already being sponsored by a sorority. The members then decided to sponsor only one booth at the Garwood Fair, the nickel slide. Mr. White, the sponsor of the student council, said the council would clean up the area around their booth before leaving the fairgrounds Saturday night.

Next on the agenda was the homecoming festivities.

OEA installs officers Tuesday

By: Debbie Wilson

The Office Education Association held its installation of officers ceremony on October 4 in the Rice High School VOE room. The guest of honor was Mr. Grahmann, principal, who initiated all new OEA officers and members. As each officer was installed, Mr. Grahmann had them raise their right hand and repeat after him, "I understand fully the honor and responsibilities which come to me as the office holder, and do solemnly and sincerely promise to accept and fulfill those responsibilities." Each officer and member was then handed a candle, and a chain of light was started by each member lighting the candle of the person to their right.

President Shelia Dabney then informed all the members about upcoming activities they would be doing, and about the fundraising project they are working on now called B-Craft.

After the meeting was adjourned, there were refreshments for everyone consisting of sandwiches, cake, soft drinks, and a variety of chips and dip. The meeting and refreshments were enjoyed by everyone.

FTA adopts logo and nametag

By: Cathy Lanyon

As the FTA district convention draws near, the Rice FTA chapter is busy preparing for the various contests. The chapter members scheme to create outstanding designs to produce superior results.

So far, Monica Pieprzycza has been the leader of the nametag that would represent Rice at the district convention. There were a lot of creative and ingenious ideas for the nametag, but the Care Bear won the hearts of many (the Care Bear is seen in the cartoon section of the Houston Post). Monica's idea was illustrated with several balloons of different colors held by a Care Bear. In each of the balloons, the school, chapter, and FTA motto was centered.

In addition to the nametag selections, a t-shirt logo contest was also held. FTA sponsor Mrs. Gohlke constructed a logo that included an outline of the state of Texas with a rainbow tangent to the state. The district area would then be outlined in the appropriate area in the state.

As the activities roll along, many students are encouraged to be a part of these special events.
