Xi Pi Psi invited to harvest ball, reported on horseshoe pitching contest at Lions carnival

The Xi Pi Psi chapter met twice in two weeks in the homes of Glenda Blair and Jo Ann Gertson. On September 27th, they met in the Blair home and president Diana Brunner read a "Party Coupon" from Alpha Delta Phi inviting members to a Harvest Ball on October 15th, in the home of Tim and Mary Ann Woods. Pat Cook reported on the Horseshoe Pitching Contest to be held at the Lions' Carnival. She outlined the rules and had a work schedule for the members. Kay Clipson, past sweetheart, arranged for the Blair Jeep to be in the Lion's Parade. Cherry Corman and Charlene Rodgers the chapter sweethearts of the Xi Pi Psi will represent the sororities in the parade, along with "Dead Eyes". Jane Clipson prepared a list of the residents of the Heritage House for members to send cards on all occasions. The Community Birthday Calendar lists were turned into Ernie Sommerlatte, the chairman of the major ways and means project. Leslie Heard was selected to represent Xi Pi Psi on the Garwood Fairest of the Fair Contest. The event will begin with a parade on October 15th. Kay Clipson introduced the guest speaker, Travis Wegenhof, as he presented the program on "Home Financing." Travis discussed the costs of building a new home and the sources and costs of mortgage credit. He defined and outlined each cost of closing and explained the standard Government form of a Loan Application. Members thoroughly enjoyed his program presented with informative facts and a lot of questions asked by members. A social hour followed with refreshments being served by the hostess. Jo Ann Gertson hosted the October 11th meeting. Under communications, president Diana Brunner read a thank you note from Leslie Heard, thanking members for selecting her to be in the Garwood Fairest of the Fair. Members were reminded of the "Crazy Harvest Ball" social at the Jim Wood home on Saturday, October 15th. Ernie Sommerlatte passed a United Way envelope with each member contributing making the sorority 100 percent in donations. Pat Cook reported on the success of the Horseshoe Pitching Contest with 16 teams entering, at the Lions' Carnival. With Pinto Brosche helping with the contest, members presented him with a gift certificate to Johnny's in appreciation for his help in the tournament.

Xi Pi Psi members authorized treasurer Jane Clipson to make a $200 donation to the Community Center toward the purchase of new drapes. Sandy Bendy presented the program on "Exercise for Health and Pleasure." She talked about the rage of exercising and how it had developed as a form of beauty. As she explained the various exercises Linda Balas appeared as the typical "fat lady" eating tootsie rolls and too lazy to exercise. Sandy showed her exercises to get into shape convincing her to try it. Then, the new "slim" Linda Balas appeared on the scene as the group participated together to Richard Simmons and a Jane Fonda tape. Following the program and closing ritual members enjoyed refreshments and a social hour.

The Jupiter Jump was only one of the fun things to do Saturday. Below, The Darlin Dolls of Columbus run through a routine during the Parade.

Jablonski and Struska to wed November 5

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Jablonski of Houston announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Melanie to Jack B. Struska, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Struska of Houston and grandson of Mrs. John Struska of Garwood. The wedding is planned for two o'clock in the afternoon on November 5 at Holy Ghost Catholic Church in Houston. Melanie and Jack are graduates of Sharpstown High School.

Danielle Hernandez is home and doing great after accident

Danielle, 16-year-old daughter of Carol and Eddie Hernandez of Rock Island and junior at Columbus High School, has improved tremendously and came home Monday after being flighted to Hermann Hospital two weeks ago due to an automobile accident which occurred in Altair at the four-way stop.

A fund was set up at the First National Bank in Eagle Lake to help with the medical expenses during her stay in the hospital.

Danielle will still have to take therapy, but the worst is behind her.

Dilue Rose chapter of DRT met

The Dilue Rose Harris Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas met in the home of Mrs. Kitty Gunn on October 1 with fourteen members present. Mrs. Jeanie Mahon, president, presided. The treasurer's report was given and dues were collected.

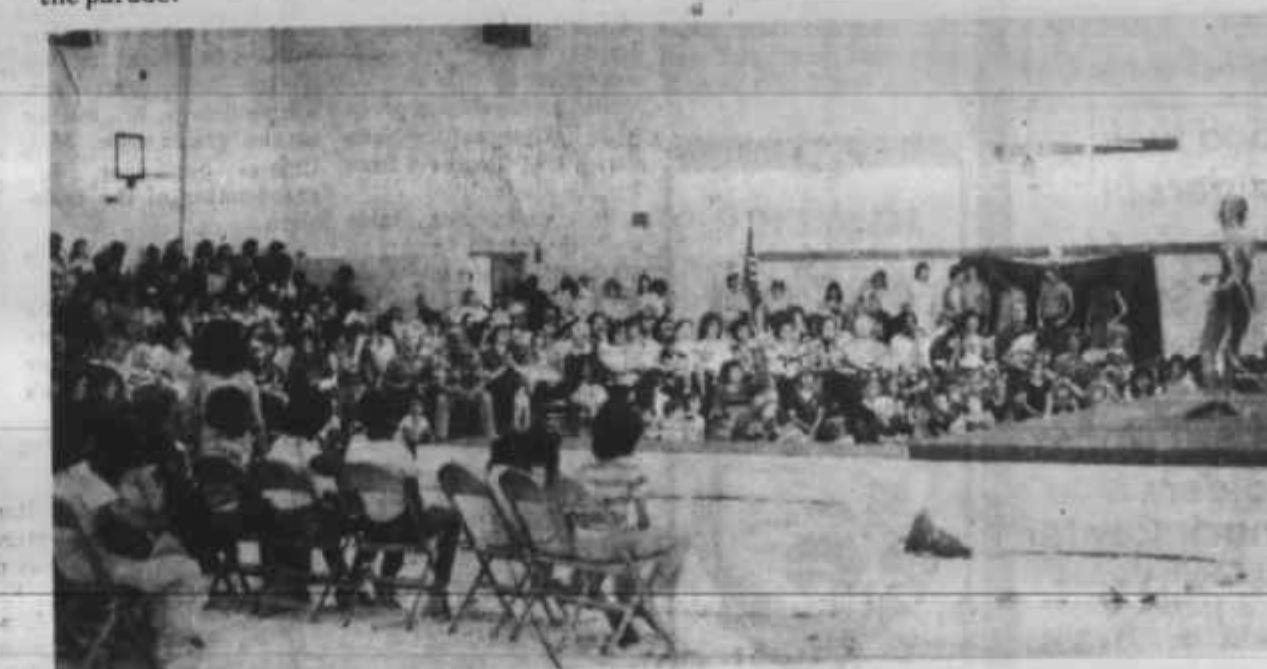

The Chapter's Sesquicentennial project was discussed, and the members voted to donate $10 to the three high schools located in the County for the purchase of a book, ask the local radio station to broadcast news items pertaining to Texas Honor Days and planting a tree. The program was presented by Mrs. Nancy Perry Wooten pertaining to "Old Letters of John Perry." Co-hostesses were Mrs. David Gunn and Mrs. Henry Brasher, Sr.

The afternoon's Talent Show drew a large crowd, filling a portion of the bleachers, and most of the chairs on the floor of the Garwood School gymnasium. The picture at the bottom of the page shows the 1919 International that won a ribbon in the parade.
