United Daughters of Confederacy meet

The October 13 meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Grubbs.

Secretary Marilyn Grubbs read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved. The treasurer, Mrs. Margaret Litzmann, gave the treasury report.

Mrs. James (Milly) Cranek reported that the Children of the Confederacy Float had won the first place ribbon in the County Fair Parade, in the historical division.

The president read the change in the By-Laws, which was to elect new officers in March instead of April.

Mrs. Cranek announced that the Colonel Charles W. Tait Chapter No. 869, Children of the Confederacy, would hold their next meeting on November 13, at 2 p.m. in the David Kahlich home near Weimar.

The following people were elected to the nominating committee: Mrs. Bertha Mae Mattern, Mrs. Margaret Litzmann and Mrs. David Kronick.

There being no further business, the meeting was turned over to Historian Gladys Gold, who in turn introduced the guest speaker, Gardner Duncan of Eagle Lake, Texas.

Duncan reviewed "Green C. Duncan, His Life and Times." Green C. Duncan was Gardner Duncan's grandfather. This was a very interesting program, which everyone enjoyed.

Refreshments of individual pumpkin chifon pies, salted nuts, corn candy, tea and coffee were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be held on November 10, at the home of Mrs. Charlie Kearney and Mrs. J. R. Grubbs as co-hostesses.
