Miss Mary Dornak honored with shower

Mary Kay Dornak, bride-elect of Robby Cook, was honored with a miscellaneous shower in the Edison Room at Wharton County Electric Coop in El Campo, March 25 at 2 p.m. The shower was given by 34 hostesses.

Approximately 40 guests were present. Miss Dornak was pinned with a corsage of pastel colors. White corsages were pinned on other special guests. Pastel, pink and rose arrangements accentuated the register, main gift and refreshment tables.

Refreshments served were coffee, strawberry punch, assorted cakes, mints and nuts. Special guests attending were the bride's mother, Mrs. Fred Dornak of El Campo; groom's mother, Mrs. R. L. Cook Jr. of Eagle Lake; bride's grandmother, Mrs. James Duhos of El Campo; groom's grandmothers, Mrs. R. L. Cook and Mrs. Albert Lednicki of Eagle Lake.

Many lovely and useful gifts were received. A special gift from the hostesses was a 13 piece set of Revere Ware. Guests were registered by Stacie Dornak, niece and future junior bridesmaid; and by Janice Riedel, bride's sister and future matron of honor. Gifts were opened by Anita Rod, Wynne Henderson, Lisa Lutringer and Rhonda Kulhane, all future bridesmaids.

Sunshine class studies Bible

The Sunshine class met in the home of Sophie Zoeller, 181 members answered call with a favorite Bible verse. Ophelia Raabe, class president, gave the devotion and presided at the business meeting.

After a reading of the February minutes, Hazel Havens of the minutes from a meeting held in 1955. There is always so much pleasure in hearing of the activities of years ago according to club reports. Sophie read a letter to Rev. Charles Walton, former pastor who now resides in Georgetown.

The study was led by Ophelia with eager participation from all present. The study taught that Christ is the good Shepherd and we are the sheep. He keeps us from being afraid and as good Christians, we become calm and at peace.

Hostesses served delicious pimento cheese sandwiches, pigs-in-a-blanket, chips, toasted pecans, carrot cake and coffee.

Elaine Biehl will host the April meeting.

To the Voters of the Rice Consolidated Independent School District...

My name is Wayne Corman and I am a candidate for Position 7 of the Rice Consolidated Independent School District Board of Trustees. I was born 40 years ago in the U.S. My father, Victor R. Corman, Sr. who was among the founders of rice farming in the Lissie area. If elected, I will strive to provide the best possible education for our young people. I am aware of the difficulties students face graduating from Rice High School and the large metropolitan areas at the college level. I will try to narrow this gap whenever possible. I am presently employed as a business manager in the Rice area. My wife Brenda and I have three children. Our oldest son, Troy, graduated from Rice High School in 1983 and now attends college. Our two younger children attend Rice Middle School. Vance is in the eighth grade and Kimberly is in the sixth grade. My family and I value to me if I am
