Carolyn Pavlu receives Brewton scholarship

Carolyn Ann Pavlu of Garwood, was the recipient of the Brewton Scholarship Award for outstanding achievement at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville.

Pavlu plans to graduate in May with a Bachelor of Arts in elementary education with a mathematics minor.

She is a member of Phi Theta Kappa junior college national honor society, Circle K Service Club, Golden Kkey National Honor Society, Alpha Chi National Honor Society, Pi Mu Epsilon, Kappa Epsilon Pi Honor Society, the Association for Childhood Education, and the Sam Houston Association of Reading Educators.

Carolyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pavlu of Garwood.

Roxanne Ripper honored

Monday, April 23, Mrs. Charlene Konesheck honored her granddaughter, Roxanne Ripper, with a luncheon at the lovely home of Mrs. Anna Lee Higgins. Members of Roxanne's 1984 Rice High School graduating class who joined her for lunch were Stacey Holden, Lisa Corman, Missy Huvar, Connie Prazak, Julia Rosprim; her mother, Carol Ripper; and Mrs. Konesheck.

Place cards with miniature diplomas tied with blue ribbons were at each place setting. The dining room table was covered by a red cloth with a green floral runner. The centerpiece was an arrangement of red silk flowers.

A meal of chicken salad with almonds, marinated vegetables, frozen fruit salad, rolls, banana bread, and iced tea was served. Dessert of a delicious three-layered banana cake was the perfect culmination to a delightful meal.

Each senior was presented with a small sachet pillow monogrammed with her initial as a remembrance of her senior year by the hostess, Mrs. Konesheck.

Recipe Coffee Shower honors Miss Janelle Bauer

Miss Janelle Bauer, bride-elect of Jackson Hooper, was entertained Saturday morning, April 28 with a Recipe Coffee Shower at the home of Mrs. Robert Griffith.

Silver appointments were used on the serving table laid with a lovely linen and lace cloth which held a beautiful arrangement of Spring flowers. Spring flowers were repeated in corsages, at the guest register and throughout the home.

A crystal compote of fresh fruit, and miniature crescents, ginger bread and sausage balls were served.

Attending out of town guests included: Mrs. Charles Hooper, mother of the groom-elect; Mrs. E. N. Catlett, grandmother of the groom-to-be; and Mrs. Jim Giles, aunt of the groom-elect, all of Houston.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Griffith were Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Kingsley, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Sibley, Mrs. Grammer, Mrs. Frank Davidson and Mrs. J. Davidson.

A late May wedding is planned.

Tea honors Lisa Corman

Rice High School senior Lisa Corman was honored with a tea Sunday, April 15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Wiese.

Guests were served from a lace-covered table which was centered by a lovely spring flower arrangement. Placed beside the flowers were ceramic graduate figurines and a graduation plate. These were made by Mrs. Johnnie Schmidt.

The tea menu included assorted cookies, fruit bread sandwiches, nuts, mints, fruit punch and coffee.

Lisa's special guests were the Rice High School twirlers.

Sharing in giving the tea were Mrs. Edgar Adkins, Becky Anderson, Anna Mae Wiese, JaNeille Etheridge, Sally Couvillion, Nancy Adkins and June Pirtle.

Who's Zat?

By: Lisa Corman

Can you guess the identity of this impish little lad? Well, he's a senior at Rice High School who's actively involved in baseball and other school activities. In spite of this fact, not many people could guess his identity.

Missy Huvar guessed that he could be none other than Larry Taylor. Estella Moreno, Jamie Ferril and Jimmy Clipson just knew that this little baby was Matthew Rohwer. Another wrong guesser, Debbie Wilson thought that this little boy was Albert Tomchesson, and Albert Tomchesson just knew it was none other than Brandon Cope.

Only Lynn Mota, Stacey Causey and Brandon Cope guessed this lad's true identity. He is Rice High School's one and only Carl Brown.

Rice homemaking classes sponsor playschool

By: Roxanne Ripper

The Rice High School Homemaking classes have sponsored a playschool from April 25 to May 4. Children three to five years of age were eligible to attend with prior registration.

The children participated in art activities, singing, learning activities, story time, free play indoors and outdoors, and refreshments.

The playschool provided the high school homemaking classes the experience of learning to work and cope with young children.

The homemaking students were under the supervision of the following home economic teachers: Mrs. Dorothy White, Mrs. Diana Wunderlich and Ms. Jewel Coreathers.

Rice high school thespians plan fall dinner theatre, activities

The Rice High School Thespian Club's planning committee, made up of ten club members and the club's advisor-sponsor Mr. Wright, met on April 18. The purpose of the meeting was to plan Thespian Club activities for the 1984-85 school year.

The committee is again planning to hold a Dinner Theatre during the Fall semester. Plans are to have the Dinner Theatre around Thanksgiving time. Mr. Wright hopes to qualify the Fall production for the International Thespian Society's Play Festival. Mr. Wright also hopes to video tape the production to enter the PBS Television Play Festival.

The committee looked over 150 plays for the Fall Dinner Theatre production. The list was narrowed to five for final consideration. All of the final plays are 3-act comedies. Final selection of the play will be made in August with auditions to be held shortly after the beginning of school in the Fall.

Plans for the UIL One-Act-Play contest in the Spring was discussed as well. The committee requested that the administration consider allowing the UIL OAP group to attend and participate in the UIL One Act Play Festival to be held at Tyler Junior College in February. Mr. Wright had received an invitation from Doctor Jeane Brown to bring his Thespian group to next year's Festival. Mr. Wright told the committee that this would be a good learning experience in Theatre Arts as well as good preparation for District UIL One-Act-Play contest.

Final plans are being made also to hold mini-workshops next year for the Thespian Club members in acting skills, make-up, costume design, set design and construction, lighting techniques, and techniques of special effects and sound.

Garden club meeting

The Eagle Lake Civic Garden Club will hold a meeting Monday, May 7 at 1 p.m. at City Hall.

All members are urged to attend.

A MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS FROM HOUSTON MUNSON - DISTRICT ATTORNEY

My opponent wants a political office. He ran unsuccessfully for County Judge of Guadalupe County. He supported attempted legislation to create a separate district attorney for Guadalupe County, where he lives, and to cut off Gonzales, Lavaca and Colorado Counties from the District. Now he claims that he wants to be District Attorney for all four counties. I do not believe he is really interested in the citizens of Gonzales, Lavaca and Colorado Counties. I successfully opposed the splitting up of our District.

The District Attorney's job requires trial experience and hard work. We are currently handling between 400 and 500 defendants per year. My opponent has no experience as a felony prosecutor and very little experience in the courtroom. He has stated that the District Attorney's office is a part time job. This office requires experience and a full effort and that's what I have given you for 13 years. I want to continue as your District Attorney. That's the only office I've ever sought. I ask for your vote and continued support of law enforcement.

RE-ELECT
HOUSTON MUNSON
DISTRICT ATTORNEY
