

Bryant, Pugh exchange vows

Miss Leigh Ann Bryant of Lake Jackson and William "Chuck" Pugh of Houston were united in holy matrimony at 4 o'clock in the afternoon Saturday, April 14, 1984 at the First Baptist Church in Lake Jackson. Rev. Claude Johnson, pastor of Assembly of God Church in Freeport, officiated at the wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bryant of Lake Jackson and Eagle Lake and the groom's mother is Mrs. Faye Pugh of Houston.

An archway covered in greenery with a unity candle in the middle adorned the center of the altar. Spiral candelabra and large cascades of white gladioli with several shades of peach roses embellished by green ferns giving a garden effect flanked each side of the archway.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess silhouette gown of white French organza designed with a portrait neckline trimmed in seed pearls. Her Victorian sleeves fell to tapered cuffs. The traditional gown was trimmed with Chantilly lace on the neck and hemline and heavily beaded with seed pearl design. The chapel train fell from a matching band of lace. The bride's fingertip length veil of white illusion was trimmed in seed pearls and secured by a capulet heavily designed with seed pearls.

To complement her attire, she carried, as her bouquet, a small white Bible covered in satin and trimmed with pearls. The Bible had been carried by her mother when she was married. A corsage of white orchids lay on a traditional wedding handkerchief given to the bride by her grandmother, Mrs. R. R. Bryant.

Bridal attendants: Miss Marty Monical, cousin of the bride, of Lake Jackson; served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Ms. Carol Crabb of Austin; Ms. Polly Pugh, sister of the groom, of

Mr. and Mrs. William Pugh

Dallas; and Ms. Lisa Youngblood and Mrs. Pam Nagle, both of Lake Jackson.

The attendants wore light peach princess silhouette gowns of peach de soie covered with chiffon. They were designed with princess necklines and short puffed sleeves. For their headress, they wore light peach hats trimmed in peach chiffon roses. They carried bouquets of white orchids surrounded by peach roses and pearls beautified by pearls cascading down the bouquets.

Serving as the best-man was Arlen Reese of Hockley. Groomsman were: Brad Pugh, brother of the groom; of Houston; Mark Figurido of Lake Jackson; and Bradley Bryant, brother of the bride, of Lake Jackson; and Mrs. Mavis Lee of Angleton.

The bride's table was covered in white linen tablecloth with a centerpiece of several antique crystal candelabers with peach candles surrounded by the bridesmaids' bouquets of white orchids and peach roses.

The groom's cake sat on a table covered with a white linen tablecloth. The cake had chocolate brown icing decorated with a bouquet of brown roses. The table also held a crystal candelabrum with peach candles and another cake of white with pink roses with the inscription "Will You Marry Me?" The cake had been presented to the bride on the night the groom asked her to marry him.

As her travel attire, the bride wore a light rust silk tailored dress accented by a picture hat, matching shoes and purse, and pearls presented to her by her grandmother, Mrs. R. R. Bryant.

After the couple returns from a trip through the lower part of Texas and Mexico, they will make their home in Lake Jackson.

The bride graduated from Rice High School in Altair, attending college part time and is a teacher's aid at A. P. Beutal Day Care in Freeport. The groom graduated from Dulles High School in Houston and is attending Brazosport Junior College and works at Ebasco, South Texas Nuclear Plant, in Bay City.

Xi Pi Psi meets with Cherry Corman

On Tuesday, April 24, fifteen Xi Pi Psi members and two Alpha Delta Phi members met in the home of Cherry Corman.

President Diana Brunner presided over the meeting and welcomed Jennifer Obenhaus and Vicki Powers from the Alpha Delta Phi chapter. Also, Linda Wieser was welcomed as a progressing member to the Exemplar Xi Pi Psi chapter.

The Come April Fest preparations were reported on. The horseshoe contest will be at 1 p.m. for registration and 2 p.m. the contest will begin.

Chairmen Key Clipson, Jo Ann Gertson and Pat Cook had the work schedule for members and look forward to a successful contest.

May Lou Saymanaki and Lynda Appelt are chairmen of the Art Show. The talent of Mrs. Sandra Bengé's art students will be displayed with trophies and ribbons presented to the winners.

Old business finalized plans for the Founder's Day Banquet to be at 7 p.m. at the Sportsman's Restaurant. Awards will be presented and an outstanding "Girl of the Year" will be crowned.

The girls had a lovely time telling about their future plans and enjoyed browsing through the Tea Leaf Room and shops.

The meeting closed with the closing ritual and mishap and an informal social followed.

Cherry Corman presented the program to the winners. She showed several crafts ideas for your own pleasure or to use for children in Bible school.

The group participated by viewing crafts that members had done themselves. The fun part, was a game of correctly guessing who had created each craft. The talents displayed were puzzling to some members, as the guessing progressed.

Is this someone you know?

Sara was a nurse during World War I. Her favorite story is about the wounded soldier she nursed back to health, the one who later became her husband.

Now she's 92 and confused. Yesterday, Sara forgot to turn off the gas stove. If her daughter hadn't come over, the house might have caught fire.

Sara talks about her husband as if he were still alive. Her children are worried that she'll forget to take her blood pressure medicine, or hurt herself accidentally.

We've known many Saras over the years. We understand the confusion that comes with age, and realize that the confusion often is not necessary. We've created a special living environment for important people like Sara, who need:

- reality orientation,
- security,
- nutritious meals,
- companionship,
- and someone to rely on in emergencies.

There is truly no place like home, but we offer the things that make life worth living. If there is a Sara in your life, call us today for more information.
