Sorority chapters celebrate Founders Day

Government officials across the world recognized April 30, 1984 as the start of Beta Sigma Phi Year in their cities, states and provinces. This women's service, social and cultural organization, celebrated its anniversary with Founder's Day activities ranging from small gatherings to huge banquets for its many members. Beta Sigma Phi is the largest Greek letter sorority in the world and has grown in its 83-year history from one chapter of seven women to a sorority of 250,000 members active in 12,500 chapters in countries throughout the world.

The 53rd Founder's Day celebration was observed by Alpha Delta Phi and Xi Phi Psi chapters in Eagle Lake on May 1 at the Sportsman's Restaurant. Vicki Powers, president of Alpha Delta Phi and Diana Brunner, president of Xi Phi Psi, served as chairpersons for the annual event.

After a delicious meal prepared by Doug Schwenker and his staff, Melody Grigar of Alpha Delta Phi and Dianne Causey of Xi Phi Psi presented the historical record of the past year of each sorority.

The group was then led by Ernie Sommerlatte of Xi Phi Psi as they repeated the Founder's Day Pledge. Jacalyn Ashby of Alpha Delta Phi presented a special message from the membership in Beta Sigma Phi. They were Ernie Sommerlatte 15 years, Lynda Appel 13 years, and Diana Brunner 12 years.

At the conclusion of the evening, "Paint a Living Masterpiece" will be the 1984-85 theme for Beta Sigma Phi all over the world.
