Six from Lakeside honored at LCRA dinner in Austin

Six employees of the Lakeside Water Division of the Lower Colorado River Authority became members Saturday of the Quarter Century Club that the authority established last year to honor long-time employees.

Tommy Pilkington and Jimmie Lyons were honored for being employed for 30 years while Johnny Burns, Ralph Johnson, Alton "Butch" Herms and Alex Woolridge were honored for 25 years. When LCRA purchased the irrigation company here last year, provision was made to allow employees to retain their length of employment records.

The awards were given at a special dinner at the Wyndham South Park Hotel. Ralph E. Thompson was master of ceremonies and Eloy H. Soderberg, LCRA general manager, presented the awards. A dance followed dinner.

In all, LCRA honored 12 employees who have 25 years of employment; four with 30 years; nine with 35 years and one with forty years.

Dinner planned for Prof. Fitzgerald; donations sought

A dinner to honor Willie L. "Prof." Fitzgerald will be held Saturday night, June 2, in the Rice High School Commons.

Mr. Fitzgerald retired at the end of this past school year. He has worked for 41 years in the public school system.

The private citizens group organizing the dinner is planning to give Prof. Fitzgerald a pickup truck, but as of Tuesday, additional money was needed. According to Travis Wegenhoff, donations can be made at the First National Bank of Eagle Lake.

The dinner, "to recognize the retirement of a truly dedicated teacher and friend," will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Congressional candidate Mac Sweeney was in Eagle Lake again Friday for a campaign stop as the runoff primary election June 2 drew nearer.

Voters are urged to vote this Saturday, and not let this Saturday pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Harborth celebrate 50 years

Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Harborth of Eagle Lake celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, Friday May 25 at the Heritage House. The reception was hosted by the Ladies of Grace Lutheran Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harborth were united in marriage May 16, 1934 at the Seguin Lutheran Church. Reverend Johnson officiated the ceremony. Since their marriage, the couple have been residents of Eagle Lake. Mr. Harborth came to live in the Heritage House in January of this year. His wife resides on W. Main.

Mr. Harborth served the community with his career as an electrician. Mrs. Harborth worked at the AB Store and Millers Grocery until she retired approximately 5 years ago. They are both active members of the Grace Lutheran Church in Eagle Lake.

Attending the anniversary party was the Harborths' only son and wife, Edward and Beverly Harborth, and their two children Sharon and John.

Also at the party were Mr. Harborth's two sisters Mildred Harborth and Mary Engkie; his niece Shirley Engkie and her family; and Mrs. Harborth's brother and wife, Henry and Lucille Kretzschmar, all from the Luling area; and Mrs. Harborth's niece, Chris Harborth, daughter of Kingsberry.

Prior to the anniversary celebration, a party honored four Heritage House residents that had birthdays in the month of May. They include Thomas Trevino, Blanche Kilpatrick, Mary Howard and Pete Espinosa.

Yearbooks are in at Middle school
