Vows solemnized for Mary Dornak, Robert Cook, III

Miss Mary Katherine Dornak and Robert Laird Cook, III exchanged wedding vows in a lovely ceremony Saturday, May 19, 1984 in St. Phillips Catholic Church in El Campo at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with the Rev. Tim Kessler officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Dornak of El Campo. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laird Cook, Jr. of Eagle Lake.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a white designer gown by Alfred Angelo, with a high wedding band collar above a yoke of the sheer English net. The bodice of sheer chiffon was appliqued with lace and seed pearls, with elbow length puffed sleeves edged in lace, chiffon skirt and chapel length train. She wore a wide-brimmed hat covered with lace and pearls, with a veil of laceed chignon flowing from the back of the hat. Her bouquet was a traditional cascade of cybidium orchids and stephanotis, and a variety of greenery. Entwined in a bouquet was a rosary given to the bride by her sister to have as something old. She also wore something borrowed and something blue. Her throw away bouquet was of seasonal white silk flowers.

Bride's attendants
 Attending the bride as maid of honor was Paige Baker of Corpus Christi and matron of honor was Janice Riedel, sister of the bride, of Houston. Bridesmaids were Lisa Lutzinger, Rhonda Kulharsk, Tina Hajovsky, Gwynne Henderson, Anita Rod, friends of the bride, Stacie Dornak, niece of the bride, all of El Campo; Vikki Wiegand of San Marcos; Vicki Dornak, cousin of the bride, of San Marcos.

The attendants wore formal "perfect rose" colored gowns in taffeta by "of Milday." The bodices were covered with lace wearing the puffed sleeves off the shoulder accented with bows on each shoulder. The full length skirts were accented by a wide bow at the waist.

They carried an arm bouquet of lavender and rose flowers with ribbon streamers to match their dresses. For their hair, the bridesmaids chose the same silk flowers with a touch of baby's breath made into a halo.

The flower girl was Carrie Greenhaw, cousin of the groom, from Katy. She wore a white chiffon floor length dress accented with petals around the round neck and short puffed sleeves. She carried a basket of silk flowers in a rose shade to match the bridesmaids and also wore a halo of silk flowers.

The groom was attended by Ronny Cook, his brother, as best man. Groomsmen were Milton Riedel of Houston, brother-in-law of the bride; Billy Cook, brother of the groom; Michael Lednicki, cousin of the groom, of Hammond, Louisiana; Keith Sommerlatte, Mike Gertson, Randy Epps of Eagle Lake; Darrel Appelt of Burnett; Philip Dornak, brother of the bride, of Houston; and Jack Mann of San Marcos. Each groomsmen wore a corsage of white carnations and greenery.

Reception followed
 A reception, dinner and dance followed at the Knights of Columbus Hall at El Campo. Serving in the houseparty were Kristen and Kimberly Beken, cousins of the groom, of Weimar; Elaine Cook, cousin of the groom, of Oxford, Mississippi; Lana and Lori Mahalle of Eagle Lake; Roxanne Ripper of Eagle Lake; Debbie Anderson, Donna Anderson, Bonnie Bergstrom, Wendy Michaelson, Dawn Patik, Jeannie Rod, and Jill Harrington.

The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth, was the focal point of the hall. A four-tiered, all white cake with pillars separating the two top layers was surrounded by four heart-shaped cakes of assorted flavors and decorated with sugar spun flowers and sugar garlands on the sides. Rose colored silk flowers were placed between the pillars. The cake was topped with ceramic bride and groom. The punch bowl with rose colored punch, the candles and holders added to the beauty of the table.

The groom's table held a German chocolate cake iced with chocolate icing and depicting a duck hunting scene. Tables of cheese, crackers, kolaches and snacks were set about the hall.

A wedding dinner of barbecued beef and sausage, potatoes, green beans, bread, tea and coffee was served.

Dinner was followed by the wedding dance with the grand march led by Mr. and Mrs. Mitch Duhos. The happy couple later left for the airport in Houston and the next day left for Acapulco, Mexico for their honeymoon. Upon their return, Robby and Mary Kay will reside in Austin.

Kasmiersky, Ramsey united in marriage

Suzanne Kasmiersky and Dennis Leroy Ramsey were united in Holy Matrimony on Friday, May 4 at 6:00 in the evening, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Nada. Montsignor Victor G. Schimidiansky officiated the double ring ceremony.

Marie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Kasmiersky, Jr., of Garwood. Dennis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip G. Ramsey of El Campo.

The church was adorned throughout with greenery and candles. The beautiful entrance leading into the church was accented with candelabras, complemented with mixed spring flowers and pews decorated with candles.

Wedding music was provided by the talented organist Mrs. Cynthia Goewig. Mrs. Suzanne Labay sang "We've Only Just Begun," "If, The Lord's Prayer," "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother," "Longer Than," and "There is Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown and veil belonging to her sister Laurie Remik. The gown was crafted of silk organza and Alençon lace, trimmed with wedding pearls and iridescents flowing into a cathedral length train. The veil was held by a modified Juliet cap, also trimmed in pearls and iridescents and silk illusion veil extending past chapel length. Marie carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, orchids and stephanotis.

The bride wore a garter especially by her sister.

Serving as maid of honor was her friend Rachel Morton, of Louise. Matron of honor was the bride's sister Laurie Remik, of Houston. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Madeline Doubt, of El Campo and Mrs. Roberta Johnson of Houston.

The attendants wore chateau length dresses all in a different pastel shade of either peach, pink, mint green or blue. They wore matching flowers in their hair and carried large bouquets of mixed spring flowers.

Meredith Doubt and Devon Martinez, the groom's niece were flower girls. They both are from El Campo. The girls wore floor length dresses of lilac and yellow and carried baskets of mixed spring for

Mary Ann Janecka
 Colorado County Tax Assessor/Collector

Just what is a Tax Assessor Collector? The duties are license plates, renewals, liquor, beer and wine licenses, transfers, and voter registration.

I was born and reared in Weimar. I am a self-educated, hard working, honest and trustworthy woman. I enjoy hard work, and I am asking for this job to serve you good people of Colorado County.

"Who would you trust with your money?"
 I invite you to inquire at either bank in Weimar as to my honesty and integrity. If elected, the honesty of the office will prevail as in the past. I will treat all races, color and creed equally.
