Local photographer's work displayed at international expo

A photograph by Diane Kocurek of Weimar was selected for display at the 93rd International Exposition of Professional Photography, June 18-22 in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

The photograph entitled: "Grandpa, What's a War?" also won the honor of being in the prestigious "Loan Collection" that will travel on an exhibition tour throughout the United States and Canada in 1984 and '85. One hundred photographs were selected from worldwide entries to be part of this collection.

In recognition of the achievement, Mrs. Kocurek will receive two Merit of Distinction that can be applied toward earning the "Master of Photography" degree. This degree is earned by both merit photographs in international expositions and for teaching photography.

Diane Kocurek is employed by The Gallery of Columbus. She has won numerous awards for her photographic talents.

Youens sponsor 'post' Water Safari Race party

Most of the top marathon canoe racers in Texas gathered at the home of Mrs. Harry Youens in Columbus on Saturday, the 14th of July, for their annual Texas Water Safari post-race party. The Texas Water Safari, billed as the "World's Toughest Canoe Race" is the longest human-powered boat race in the world. It is held the first weekend in June.

The race course covers 419 kilometers of river from San Marcos, in the hill country, to the coastal community of Seadrift, and is run non-stop — night and day. After 65-85 hours of shooting whitewater, portaging dams, winding through coastal swamps, and battling storm-tossed bays, without sleep or rest, it is little wonder that the contestants take out a month and a half to heal up before gathering again to socialize.

The race, which draws the United States, Canada and Great Britain, was won this year by Jerry Nunnery and Roy Tyrone of Friendswood. Some familiar faces in the group for Columbusites were Tom Stallman and Rob Youens, both of whom have repeatedly placed very high in the race standings, but have yet to win the coveted first place trophy.

The post-race party, organized by Youens, was a family gathering for the competitors and their families who seldom can visit during the grueling training periods before the race. It was a tremendous success.

One topic discussed at the meeting, which should be of special interest to local residents, who want to promote their friendly town and its beautiful river, was the prospect of moving a state canoe race to the Colorado river at favorable to the river conditions and felt that Columbus' central location could give it the top canoe race in the state, in the very near future...not including the Texas Water Safari, of course.

Mrs. Vickie Ashley reports that Vacation Bible School had an average of 85 in attendance each day last week. A large crowed attended the commencement program Friday night.

The Cheatham Cemetery Association has set Saturday, August 4 as the date for a fundraising bake sale. It will be held near the Postoffice from 10 o'clock until all baked goods are sold. The purpose of raising money is to fence the one acre of land south of the existing cemetery. Everyone who would like to see this happen and have a part in it, is asked to donate a baked good for the sale.

Friday morning, cameramen from the Victoria TV station were in Sheridan interviewing Vickie Ashley, Rocky Jahn, Janelle Klein and Delene Holub.

The interview was based on the success of Sheridan's Ambulance Service. Because so many towns much bigger than Sheridan are having trouble maintaining ambulance service and also are lacking qualified personnel to operate the ambulance service, the TV station felt such a story would be an inspiration to services that are in a slump. Many saw the 6 and 10 o'clock news Friday night when the story was aired.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kutzer, Rebecca, Marcie and Justin spent Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Hardy, Arkansas. Jim and Velma attended a graduate's reunion Friday night at the old school gym. This was a reunion that spanned from 1914 to 1964 when the school was consolidated. Approximately 600 ex-students and teachers were located and all but 19 attended. On the way, the family enjoyed a trip through the Ozarks and gathered several large rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Moose Cosper and children spent last weekend in Killeen visiting friends and relatives.
