Pioneer German family celebrate 137 years

After 137 years in America, the descendants of Henry Voelkel Sr., who came from Germany in 1846 and settled in Austin county are still celebrating their heritage. According to Colonel Eugene Voelkel (retired) of Bryan, president of the reunion, the 39th annual meeting will be held on Sunday, August 5 at Harmony Hall in Shelby, Austin county 625 miles northwest of Bellville.

A barbecue meal, with all the trimmings, will be served at noon. This will be followed by memorial services, brief business session and presentation of special awards. A genealogical chart, which

Shawn Spanihel learning cancer research

During eight weeks this summer, Shawn K. Spanihel of Eagle Lake is learning an unusual skill at The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute — how to conduct cancer research.

Spanihel, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Spanihel, is one of 23 recent high school graduates chosen from 504 applicants for the Carl and Florence E. King Foundation High School Summer Program in the Biomedical Sciences. Outstanding Texas science students have an opportunity to work in a cancer research setting at M. D. Anderson Hospital through the 24-year-old program which is supported by an endowment from the King Foundation of Dallas.

Happy first

Greeson, Boyette married

Mr. and Mrs. Barry B. Boyette

Sandy L. Greeson and Barry B. Boyette exchanged wedding vows at the Sublette Southern Baptist Church at three o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, July 14. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greeson of Sublette, Kansas. The groom is the son of Mrs. Charlotte Roberta of Houston and Mike Boyette of Eagle Lake.

Rev. Jerry A. Smith performed the double ring ceremony before an archway arrangement of brass candelabra with ivory satin bows. Baskets of wheat, apricot roses, and baby's breath flanked each side of the altar. The country setting was completed with pew markers of wheat with ivory bows.

Musical selections were provided by Jill Wright, pianist, and Dortha Duerson, organist. Shannon Fulgham of Hartley sang "Up Where You Belong" and "The Lord's Prayer." A duet, "Almost Paradise," was sung by Shannon and Jill and Leslee Upton, cousin of the bride, lit the candles.

After repeating their vows, the groom sang "What a Difference You Have Made in My Life" to the bride.

The bride wore a gown of off-white cotton eyelet which was made by her mother. It featured a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, puff sleeves, and a full skirt which extended into a chapel length train. Her old-fashioned bouquet was made of eucalyptus, sonia roses, static, and wheat with streamers of coral ribbon and raffia.

Rhonda Greeson, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Deborah Gibson of Copeland, Kansas was the bridesmaid. Their dresses of off-white print fabric were styled similar to the bride's. They carried a long stem sonia rose with wheat, baby's breath and coral ribbon. The best man was Todd Greeson of Sublette. Greg Greeson, brother of the bride, was the usher. The groom and his attendants wore Wrangler jeans, off-white western shirts and boots.

The bride's cousins, Loren Osborn of Amarillo and Wade Greeson of Moscow, Kansas, were the flower girl and ring bearer. She carried a wicker basket of baby's breath, static and wheat. The ring bearer carried a pillow of off-white muslin which had been candlewick and trimmed with eyelet, lace and ivory ribbon. A reception was held in the fireside room of the church following the ceremony. The ivory wedding cake was decorated with sonia roses, peach carnations, and baby's breath. It was served by Deanne Herring of Amarillo and Judy Wilson of Salina, Kansas. Vanny Greeson of Sublette served the punch.

Stormi Upton and Brady Ray received the gifts and assisted with the reception. Rhonda Yaksh and Canna Ray passed out the wheat bags. They are all cousins of the bride. Following a trip to Red River, New Mexico, the couple will live in Eagle Lake, where the groom and his father own and operate Rice Aero, Inc.

The Flesners have a daughter Wendy, eight years of age. The mother is the former Shirley Fajkus of Eagle Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fajkus of Eagle Lake spent the week of July 15 through 21 in Albuquerque visiting and getting acquainted with their new grandson.
