Kulhanek, Schindler united in marriage

Miss Donna Marie Kulhanek and Gary Dean Schindler were united in marriage at three o'clock in the afternoon on December 15, 1984 at St. Paul Lutheran Church in St. Paul.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Daniel F. Kulhanek Sr. of Alletton and the late Daniel F. Kulhanek Sr. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Schindler of Cat Spring.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Daniel Kulhanek Jr., wore a lovely gown of re-embroidered French Alletton lace and bridal satin.

The fitted bodice was embellished with pearls and sequins on Alletton lace and featured a vee neckline. Long-sleeved sleeves tapered to form a point at the wrist. The full pleated skirt of bridal satin fell to a cathedral length train and was enhanced by hand beaded Alletton scalloped lace around the entire bottom of the dress.

The beautiful gown was designed and made by Susan Braden of Alletton, friend of the bride. Donna's headpiece was a wreath of French Alletton lace identical to that used on the dress. The veil fell into layers, one being cathedral length and the other a fingertip length which was used as her blusher.

To complement her ensemble she carried a cascading bouquet of red and white silk roses and baby's breath intermingled with greenery, trimmed with lace and tied with white satin ribbon.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old with a penny, once belonging to her late father, which she placed in her wedding shoe; something new was her wedding dress; something borrowed was a white pearl necklace owned by Mrs. Johnnie Kubiek, and something blue was the traditional bride's garter.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS
Attending the bride was her best friend, Leanne Kubiek, as maid of honor and "best sister," Cindy Glueck, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were friends of the bride, Susan Braden of Alletton and Donna Venghaus of Columbus, and sisters-in-law of the groom, Hope Schindler of Columbus and Luane Schindler of Alletton.

Flower girls were Julie Glueck of Cat Spring, niece of the bride, and Devon Schindler of Columbus, niece of the groom. Jacob Glueck, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

The groom's friend, Lynn Braden of Alletton, served as best man. Groomsmen were the groom's brothers, Allen Schindler of Alletton and Joe W. Schindler of Columbus; brother of the bride, David Kulhanek of Alletton; brother-in-law of the bride, Richard Glueck of Cat Spring, and friend of the groom, Ronnie Aasenbeck of Columbus.

Ushers were Carl Hillmer of Columbus, cousin of the groom, and friends, Kerry Jungmann of Austin, Rusty Neundorff of Columbus and Tony Neundorff of Belton.

Special guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Moekel Sr. of Alletton and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Lester Lipperdt of Belton.

Immediately following the marriage ceremony, a reception was held at the Veterans Community Center in Columbus. A wedding dinner was served by Mike's Catering.

Columbus, Mrs. Kenneth Warschak of Freiburg made the bride's and groom's cakes.

Members of the house party were Dana Hosen, Sheri Schlichte, Lisa Gregory, Diane Kasimiersky, Cindy Guthmann, Michele White, Judy Stolar, Tammy Olson, Mary Jane Peters and Susan Polach.

"Family Traditions" of Cat Spring provided the music for the grand march led by Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Hill and for the dance following.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Columbus High School and is employed by Gindler's Department Store in Columbus.

Kristi Luedecke turns four

Kristi Luedecke, daughter of Judy and Tim Luedecke, was honored on her fourth birthday, Sunday, January 6 with a party beginning at noon.

Those attending enjoyed a delicious meal of homemade chili and stew with all the trimmings.

The Sesame Street theme was carried out in the birthday cake and party decorations and favors.

With the help of her little guests, Kristi opened her many gifts she received.

Before leaving, the honoree passed out party favors to her guests.

Middle school student has poem published in national magazine

Dustin Hengst, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hengst of Eagle Lake, received notification recently that his poem "The Lie" has been accepted for publication and printed in a national magazine.

Wombal, a journal of young people's writing and art, is published in Athens, Georgia.

Wimbat sent Dustin a certificate of excellence for outstanding artistic and/or literary achievement and a copy of the issue containing his poem.

The poem was submitted to Wombal by Dustin's English teacher, Mrs. Helen Craig, when he was a fifth-grade student at Eagle Lake Middle School.

Here is the poem "The Lie" Dustin wrote:

I'm Willie Malony Mongooseburg.

I'm the most perfectest man in the whole wide world.

I'm never mean, I'm never naughty, I'm never bad, I'm never wrong, I'm always right, I never lie, And I never fight, I never burp, I don't go around bare, I never wet in my
