Powder Puff game held

BY KRISTINE CARPENTER

On December 14, some brave Rice High School girls attempted to play the game of football. The seniors and freshmen banded together to be called the Lowe-Cain Motives. The juniors and sophomores, otherwise known as the Good Little Bad Girls, made up the opposing team. After a tough game of football, the outcome was the Lowe-Cain Motives, 12 and the Good Little Bad Girls, 0.

During halftime, the Powder Puff King court was announced with the following: "Rub-a-dub-dub, here comes the Powder Puff King. He is John Adkins, the dad, Rachelle Hunt escorts him safely to his place. Wonder why she is wearing that smile on her face? Some people are bright, some people are noble, every look out 'cause here comes Pecos Coble. Kristine Carpenter is by his side; she's just along for a free ride."

"Merry Christmas is a traditional refrain, but here comes Stephen Drik and that's a real puff. By his side is Susan Gold, a cute little package to be held. Some people like Michael Jackson, some people like Perry Olin, it makes you kind of wonder about ole Michael. Janice Hyek is his escort, she's just along to give a free ride."

"And now the fun must come to an end. To announce the winner once again. Stephen Drik must be the new reigning Powder Puff King! Each class was allowed to nominate three boys from their class for Powder Puff cheerleaders. The senior and freshmen cheerleaders were: John Adkins, Pecos Coble, Billy Cook, Trip Clipson, Keith Korenek, and Rafael Lopez. The junior and sophomore cheerleaders were: Jerry Fajkus, Darrell Pagel, Orlando Pratt, Frank Adkins, Kevin Dornak and Brian Hyek.

The Student Council sponsored this event and would like to thank Coach Lowe, Coach Cain, Coach Good and Coach Carroll for helping organize the teams.

cue beef, sliced turkey and assorted side dishes prepared by OEA members. After the meal, presents given to each member by her secret pal were passed out by the president and vice president, Toni Jaramillo and Susan Gold. An enjoyable time was had by all in celebrating the holidays.

OEA Christmas party

On Monday, December 17, the Rice OEA Club held their annual Christmas dinner in the Rice High School Commons. Those present included the OEA members and their sponsor, Mrs. Henrietta Baumgarten, and special guests Joe Wendel, Mrs. Judy Engstrom and Fred Grahnman.

The meal consisted of barbecue beef, sliced turkey and assorted side dishes prepared by OEA members. After the meal, presents given to each member by her secret pal were passed out by the president and vice president, Toni Jaramillo and Susan Gold. An enjoyable time was had by all in celebrating the holidays.

Scale donated
By Linda Korenek
Paul Kucherka is looking over the 2,000 pound call scale which was donated by Clipson Ranch in Eagle Lake to the Ag Department at Rice High School. It was greatly appreciated and will be put to good use. The scale will be used to check weight gains of the livestock prior to and during the local show.

Meet the Lady Raiders

BY DONNA PRAZAK

This week we meet two varsity basketball players. Beverly Rucka and Lisa Brown. Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Rucka. She wears jersey number 10 and plays the point position. Beverly feels that there is spirit and confidence within the team. She feels they have the ability to win and if they work together there isn't any reason why they shouldn't win district. Lisa is the daughter of Mr. Yvonne S. Williams. She wears jersey number 32 and plays the post position. Lisa feels that the team has a lot of potential. She thinks that each one of the ten girls on the team plays just as well as the other. Like Beverly, Lisa feels that they have a strong team and that they are really looking forward to a championship season.

Library lingo

BY RACHELLE HUNT

As a famous author named Francis Bacon once said, "Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested." Books can be used for research, reports or pleasure. The Rice High School Library is well equipped to meet all of these literary needs. According to librarian, Mrs. Lillian Gohke, the paperback selections appear to be the favorite of the majority of the students. Some of the most recent paperbacks include "Love Always" by Mary Osborne; "The Lost Holiday" by Elizabeth Olsen; "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever" by Barbara Robinson; "Miss Perfect" by Jill Klewin; "Danielle" by Vivian Schurfranz; "The Kid" by B. Hiller; "Custom Cars" by R. Nicholls, and the "Teen Girl's Guide to Social Success" by M.Y. Stewart.

Who's zat?

BY AUDREY WILLIAMS

This has to be the baby the song "You've Got the Cutest Little Baby Face" was written about. Can you guess who this little girl is? Frank Adkins was sure it was Donna Drik. Mario Hernandez thought it was Tina Grahnman and Bryna Wiese guessed it was Frank Adkins. Those people who guessed correctly were Leslie Matthews, Daryl Pieprzyca, Valerie Benge, Maria Thomas and John Adkins. They all knew she had to be Lisa Drik, an active sophomore and a member of the Rice High School Band.

Is this someone you know?

Henry has always been the life of the party. He entertains family and friends for hours with his stories and tall tales. At Christmas he loves to dress up as Santa Claus and visit the children at the local hospital.

This year, though, Henry himself is in the hospital. He had a stroke a few weeks ago that left him completely paralyzed on his left side. He has to learn how to walk, talk, eat and dress himself all over again.

The doctor says he's well enough to leave the hospital but will need nursing supervision and therapy for several months to come. Henry, the eternal optimist, is in good spirits and believes that with time and the help of God he will be talking and laughing again.

We've known many Henrys over the years. We understand the road to recovery can sometimes be a difficult one. We've created a special living environment for important people like Henry, who need:

- rehabilitation therapy,
 - medical attention,
 - a sense of security,
 - the warmth of companionship,
 - nutritious meals
 - and someone to rely on in emergencies.
- If there is a Henry in your life, call us today, for more information and a free copy of the book "When Love Gets Tough." There is no place like home, but we offer the things that make life worth living.

"If there is a Henry in your life, call us today."
