Local contact first place winners who will not be advancing to the district competition are as follows: comb-outs, Lydia Rodriguez, Cheryl Semora and Elaine Higgins; cold waves, Sherry Williams, Lena Chavez and Shelly Owens; wet sets, Margaret Leal, Yolanda Rangel and Idalia Garza; braids, Valerie King; wigs, Emelda Clayton, Yolanda Rangel and Lisa Owens. Second place winners were: comb-outs, Shelly Owens and Yolanda Rangel.

The competition was very close, prompting Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Mills to say that they had a difficult time judging. Students enjoyed being involved in such an event. The projects are being displayed in the Rice High School Commons. Good job ladies!

Here we see Shirley Parker putting the finishing touches on.

These are a few on exhibition in the Commons.

Andy Munoz speaks at FTA

BY RACHELLE HUNT
The Rice FTA held their third club meeting on February 7 at 7 p.m. in the Rice Commons. President, Kristine Carpenter called the meeting to order and the FTA pledge was led by vice president Valerie Benge. Roll call was called by secretary Tina Gramham with 23 members present. Programs were then conducted.

Laura Appelt and Tina Gramham presented a special program which featured Andy Munoz, DPS officer Eagle Lake, and Mrs. Linda Appelt. Their presentation emphasized the need for learning self-defense.

After a short break for refreshments, the other programs were given. Topics included the following: news from the district convention by Lisa Munoz and Colette Williams, making and keeping friends by Lisa Drik and Christine Schneider and aiding our teachers by Linda Korenek and Janice Hyek.

The next order of business was the reading of the minutes by secretary Gramham followed by the statement of the treasurer by Linda Korenek. Committee reports and new business were next on the agenda.
