UIL participants hold first meet

BY LINDA KORENEK
On Saturday, February 16, in Columbus, participants of UIL had their first meet. Those who participated were Melissa Wilcox, Mike Sonntag and Leonard Perry. The debate team consisted of advisors. During the course of the day, there was the Mr. and Miss FTA competition and yearbook and scrapbook judging. Election of officers was held at 1:30 p.m. District III had a candidate for the office of vice president. Lisa Martinez of Stoman High School filed for the state office. The convention closed with awards at 6:30 p.m.

On Friday, February 15, the Texas Future Teachers of Algebra held its 36th annual state convention at the Tarrant County Convention Center in Fort Worth. The first general session opened at 2:30 p.m. with an address by Carolyn O'Neal of the National Education Association. Following at 4 p.m., District III had its meeting led by president Lisa Martinez of Victoria. Skits and campaign speeches for candidates running for state office comprised the second general session at 6:30 p.m. Entertainment for the evening was a dance featuring Brent Green of Disco America from Austin. On Saturday morning, five different workshops were held for FTA members and their advisors. During the course of the day, there was the Mr. and Miss FTA competition and yearbook and scrapbook judging. Election of officers was held at 1:30 p.m. District III had a candidate for the office of vice president. Lisa Martinez of Stoman High School filed for the state office. The convention closed with awards at 6:30 p.m.

Eligible to attend the convention from the Rice chapter were Monica Lopez, Tina Grahmann, Laura Appelt and Colette Williams.

Who's zat?

BY DONNA PRAKAZ
This little boy says: "Let me ship your floor!" When asked, several students were puzzled by the identity of this mysterious Spic and Span man. They are as follows: Daryl Padgugay said it was Robert Dyrachek; Dolores Soto and Lesley Matthews guessed him to be Paul Kucherka; Nichelle Cuppingham thought it was Bill Heffer; Rachelle Hunt guessed him to be Daryl Pagel, and Mrs. Danklefs said "No com meit."

This mysterious little face didn't fool everyone. There were many correct guesses. They are as follows: Melinda Stiles, Peter Casaria, Debra Soto, Shari Webb, Frances Young and Stevie Almanza. They all knew he had to be Bryan Wieser, a member of the junior class.

OEA area contest held

BY RACHELLE HUNT
On Saturday, February 16, eleven members of the Rice Office Education club attended the Area V OEA contest. They were accompanied by their sponsor, Mrs. Henrietta Baumgarten. This event was held at the Alvin Community College with 41 schools participating. These schools ranged from size LA to 6A classification, therefore, competition was very stiff.

Each member competed in a different category. Rice returned with four winners of which three will advance to the state level. Winners were as follows: Shari Webb, first place in Records Management II; Becky Witte, first place in Accounting and Related I; Melissa Ruether, second in Information Communications II, and Vivian Cumpian, third in Records Management I. Webb, Witte and Ruether qualify for state competition to be held in Austin on March 29. Congratulations and good luck! Other Rice OEA participants consisted of the following: Trishia Thomas, General Clerical I; Michelle Milligan, General Clerical II; Susan Gold, Information Communications I; Toni Jaramillo, Typing and Related II; Gloria Spears, Typing and Related II; Kasandra Gordon, Job Interview Interview II.

Hunt had roll call. Treasurer Michael Shiley stated the financial situation for the club. The meeting was then adjourned.
