Raider Review

Left to right, Tina Grahmann, Laura Appelt, Monica Lopez and Colette Williams proudly display the first place trophy that the FTA won for its 1984-85 yearbook.

FTA competes and wins first

Involvement and participation paid off once again for the Future Teachers of America. The FTA won first place in state competition with their 1984-85 yearbook. Vice president Valerie Bengtson designed the front cover emphasizing the theme, "Education: The Key to the Future." This state award makes the Rice chapter the winner for the eighth time. Rice's first award came in 1971-72 with a first place award in the Top Ten Projects. The award was for the initiation of the Teaching Experience Program, which is still part of our high school curriculum. This course is open to senior FTA members who plan to pursue teaching as a career.

Freshman chosen for FTA honor

Jennifer Mader, a freshman Future Teacher of America member, won the coveted honor of being chosen the February FTA'er of the Month. Her contributions for the month of February numbered many hours of work. She memorized the FTA pledge, voted of the January FTA'er, modeled two mornings on the FTA scrapbook, attended the night meeting for the FTA, took numbers home to be cut for the scrapbook, and lastly, making to entirely new heights in her control of energy.

Clipson speaks

On Monday, February 18, the Raider Business Club held its club meeting. The order of business was read and president Beos Coble, asked for a discussion of old and new business. The plans for a dish supper were discussed. Richard Clipson of Clipson-Johnson Farms of Eagle Lake was the guest speaker for the meeting. He expressed that to succeed in the business world we must find a need and fill it. He stated that every job opportunity is backed by business. Mr. Clipson also reminded the club that an education is important in any field.

After Mr. Clipson's presentation, the meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served.

The Business Club would like to thank Mr. Clipson for taking the time to speak to the club.

New books spring up in the library

With spring just around the corner, new book arrivals are showing up daily in the high school library. Reading interests range from sports, romance, Roman mythology, hunting ducks and geese, superstars of country music, mass growing mastery of energy and selected poems. Some specific titles are: "Kenneth Rexroth," one of the most readable of this century's great American poets; "From Hand Ax to Laser," capturing advances that have swept mankind to entirely new heights in his control of energy; "Olympic Gold, A Runner's Life and Times," one of the most famous athletes of our day, Frank Shorter, tells the full story of his running career; "Hunting Ducks and Geese," hard facts, good bets and serious advice from a duck hunter you can trust; "Heroes, Gods and Emperors," revealing the stories of the gods that the Romans worshipped; and "The Romans," revealing the Romans claimed as their ancestors and of the spirits they believed played an active part in their daily life. Lastly, "Superstars of Country Music" is filled with performing stars like Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, Charley Pride, Dolly Parton, Kenny Rogers and Tammy Wynette. Their music has brought them fame, fortune and worldwide popularity. Read about their careers and lives as they skyrocketed to the top of the charts.

Visit the library and read your favorite book now.
