Raider Review

Dora Hernandez
Hernandez, FTA'er of the Month

On Wednesday, March 27, Future Teachers of America selected Dora Hernandez, a freshman member, as the March FTA'er of the Month. She was chosen on the basis of her contributions to the club.

Her activities included voting for the February FTA'er, working on Texas Public School Week materials, and running for an FTA officer for next school year.

Other eligible members for this honor were Tina Grahmann, Audrey Williams, Sandra Korenek and Susan Kalusa.

Rachelle Hunt
Who's zat?

BY KRISTINE CARPENTER

This little boy prefers to wear his sunglasses in the afternoon. Shell Meitens declared that this youngster was Jason Smith. Beth Ferguson, Stephanie Sosa and Keith Pennell said that the face was familiar, but they guessed incorrectly by saying that it was Pecca Coble. Minnie Williamson was another incorrect guess which was given by Mario Hernandez and Toni Jaramilla.

Mrs. Kasper knew that this boy was in her first period English class, but incorrectly guessed that it was Charles Gaskin.

There were only two individuals who saw through the shades. Chari Jones and Billy Cook knew that this face belonged to John Harborth. John is a senior at Rice High School and was a member of the Rice Raider Bi-District football champs.

Rice High School to present one-act play April 18

The Rice High School drama students will be presenting the one-act play, "The Other Side of the Wall," on Thursday, April 18 at 7 p.m. in the Rice High School Commons.

The play was presented at the District VII one-act play contest held in Columbus on March 22. Leonard Perry was selected for the All-Star cast and Valerie Bengue was awarded honorable mention at the district contest.

The play takes place in the future, after the great light when the old world was lost in one burning moment. The action of the play takes place at the "Barrier" which stands dividing two groups. The military group is militant. The women's group is beautiful. Its past goes suggest peace and parties and they believe the barrier denotes devotion. Neither group realizes its need of the other but a young boy and young girl are attracted to each other. The girl tells the boy of her love of flowers and gives him a packet of seeds. She tells him "You have the seeds and someday you will plant them. Remember," and he replies, "I will remember."

Cast members include: seniors, Rachelle Hunt, Johanna Sontag, Leonard Perry, Michael Sontag, Temple Thornton, Derrick Williams and Janet Zbranski; juniors, Valerie Bengue,

Rice future homemakers attend area meeting

"Come Alive in '85" was the theme of the Area III Future Homemakers meeting held in Houston on March 22-23. Six delegates and their advisors from the Rice chapter attended. On Friday evening, workshops on teen problems, entrepreneurship, sexuality and leadership were attended.

In the first general session Saturday, the keynote speaker, Craig Timberlake, a totally blind young man with big ambitions, challenged the 500 in attendance to search for victory even in the face of defeat. When he was mysteriously gradually blinded while in high school, he thought his world had ended; however, today he is filled with aspiration. After completing his college studies in political science, his goal is to become a U.S. Senator.

Melissa Rodriguez, Wendy Herman and Marsha Kuykendall assisted as ushers during the morning session. Colette Williams served as voting delegate. She, along with Cheryl Semors and Vanessa Tillman were responsible for setting up the display entered in area competition.

"Being Sexually Active" — a puzzling decision — to be or not to be was the caption of the display that caught the eye of viewers and the judges. Scattered puzzle pieces provided pros and cons of the issue. Portions of the FFA/HERO emblem were used to describe how the teen sexually workshop was carried out by the chapter last fall.

The group was very proud of their accomplishments when it was announced that this display was awarded first place and would be eligible for State Competition in April. Other contests held included job application and interview, illustrated talks, food service demonstrations, and scrapbooks (manuals).

The second general session ended with the president's message given by Camille Hunt of Columbus and the installation of new area officers.

Jennifer Brown, Jewel Corseth and Diana Wunderlich were advisors to the delegates who attended this inspiring meeting.

Mr. and Ms. Rice High School

BY LINDA KORENEK

Each year a girl and boy are chosen as Mr. and Ms. Rice High School by the faculty of Rice High School. Their decision is based upon their academics, participation in extracurricular activities, citizenship and leadership.

Mr. and Ms. Rice High School for the 1984-85 school year are Michael Sibley and Rachelle Hunt.

Rachelle, an excellent academic student, is a member of the Student Council, Band, National Honor Society, Future Teachers of America and the Drama Club. She also participates in one-act plays and was a varsity cheerleader for three years. She holds several offices and has received numerous awards.

Michael, also an excellent academic student, is a member of the Student Council, National Honor Society, Band and Business Club. He also is an officer holder in several clubs at school.

Juniors get class rings

BY RACHELLE HUNT

On the morning of March 26, the Rice Commons was filled with anticipation as members of the Junior class arrived to receive their long-awaited class rings. The rings were distributed by the L.G. Balfour Company.

The excitement continued throughout the day as the Juniors showed off their prized possessions and followed the tradition of turning each other's ring for good luck.

Tina Grahmann, Leslie Heard and Deane VanNort, freshmen, Rafael Lopez and Bonnie McMurrugh, Stage manager and light director is Darlene Stancik.

National Library Week is April 14-20

During the week of April 14-20, the Rice High School library staff will be celebrating National Library Week. Come in and view some of the new books that have arrived. Special book markers, "A Nation of Readers," will be distributed to all students who check out a book or magazine during National Library Week. During the six-hour school day, a special drawing will be held each hour for the week with book bags, books and memo pads as prizes.

Stop in the library and register during National Library Week. Our student library helpers, Melissa Wilcox, Cynthia Midgett, Norma Trevino and Elma Hernandez, will be glad to assist you.
