Raider Review

Who's zat?

BY DONNA PRAZAK

Who is this little toddler taking her first step? When asked, there were only two incorrect guesses. They were Gloria Spears who thought it was Tracy Davis and Linda Korenek who said it was Kassandra Gordon.

The correct guessers were Danette Alvarado, Shari Webb, Derrick Williams, Carol Rhodes and James Havens. They all knew this little toddler was Michelle Cunningham, a member of Rice Raider Band Flag Corps and a very active member of the senior class.

Rice home economics department to conduct annual playschool

BY RACHELLE HUNT

The Rice High School Economics Department is conducting its annual playschool for children between the ages of three and five who are not yet in kindergarten. Enrollment is limited to 17 for each session and those children who enrolled last year were given the first opportunity. Although it is too late to apply now, perhaps those interested can make plans to apply next year.

There are two sessions — 8:30 to 11:15 (morning session) and 12:20 to 3:00 (afternoon session). Dates are Tuesday through Thursday, April 30 to May 3 and May 7-10.

The purpose of this program is to give students in the Home Economics classes a chance to work with children. Activities for the children include free play — indoors and outdoors, music, games, exercises, art, snacks, learning activities and story time. The students are looking forward to teaching the children and learning about child behaviors.

Winners named in library drawing

Thirty students had a choice of prizes to select from during National Library Week, April 14-20, when their names were drawn during the six-period school day.

Among the prizes were library book bags, ink pens, pencils, posters, memo pads, and Garfield, Ziggy and creative design books.

Winners on Monday were Terri Clayton, Traci Klein, Alberta Fitzgerald, Viola Gordova, Susan Kalusa and Katrina Carson.

Selecting prizes on Tuesday were Deirdra Douglas, Natalie Hubenak, Sharon Harborth, James Williams, Lisa Munst and Linda Leal.

Wednesday's lucky winners were Beth Ferguson, Hope Garcia, Gary Sosa, Wayne Yell, Toni Jaramillo and Christine Montoya.

The six fortunate library visitors on Thursday were Lucy Garcia, Alcarrio Barrios, Clarence Horndt, Jackie Smith, Carol Korenek and Dusty Jackson.

Lastly, on Friday, the winning names were Randy Mancias, Jose dela Garza, Beverly Rucka, Catherine Castillo, Sheryl McGrew and Billy Goodwin.

Business Club holds final meeting

BY LINDA KORENEK

The Raider Business Club held its year end meeting with a covered dish supper on April 22 at 7 p.m. in the Rice High School Commons. President Pecos Coble called the meeting to order. Melissa Wilcox led the club in prayer and the meal was served.

After the meal, Temple Thomas introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Bruce Johnson, a regional sales representative for Drywall Construction Company and a local merchant of Eagle Lake spoke to the club. He spoke of the different aspects in life that have an effect on young peoples lives and careers. He stressed that each individual must have the desire to understand what it takes to stay in a business and make it thrive.

Three important points Mr. Johnson made to the club was to be happy in your business, receive as much education as possible and take advice of successful business people.

President Pecos Coble then came forward to announce the recipient of the — Presidents Award. It is given every year to an outstanding and hard-working member. This year's recipient was Linda Korenek.

The sponsors, Mrs. Judy Engstrom and Joe Wendel, were then asked to comment on the clubs progress throughout the year. Mrs. Engstrom said she was proud to be a part of such an active club. Students have to have a

The players who participated in doubles were: Laura Appelt, Danette Pagel, Kristen Carpenter and Beverly Rucka. Kristian and Beverly placed fourth in the meet. In the boys division those competing in doubles were: Rafael Lopez,

National honor society attends convention on April 23 in Palacios

BY AUDREY WILLIAMS

Fourteen members of the Rice High School National Honor Society, along with their sponsor D.R. Wright, traveled to Palacios on April 23 for a convention of the Midcoast Association of the National Honor Societies.

Over 600 students attended the convention and heard a lecture given by Dr. Thorne entitled "Acres of Diamonds," which stressed self-development.

Elections of officers for the 1985-86 school year were held. Rice ran for the office of secretary against Terry and Wharton high schools. They lost by four votes. Wharton High School was named secretary; Sherry High School was named vice president and Lamar High School, president.

Next year's convention will be held in Sweeny.

FTA elects new officers

Future Teacher members elected new officers for the 1985-86 school year on Monday, April 15 at their final meeting of the year.

Valerie Benge will serve as president, Jennifer Mader will be vice president, Laura Appelt will act as secretary. Sandra Korenek will be in charge of the treasury. Susan Kalusa will be designer and creator of the scrapbook as historian, and Tina Graham will serve as parliamentarian.

These new officers were installed by District III's financial secretary, Rachelle Hunt.
